Avarice House Julien Green, 1991 Avarice House ... Translated by M. A. Best. Julien Green, 1927 Inhabiting Contemporary Southern and Appalachian Literature Casey Clabough, 2012-08-26

The idea of place any place remains one of our most basic yet slippery concepts It is a space with boundaries whose limits may be definite or indefinite it can be a real location or an abstract mental spiritual or imaginary construction Casey Clabough's thorough examination of the importance of place in southern literature examines the works of a wide range of authors including Fred Chappell George Garrett William Hoffman Julien Green Kelly Cherry David Huddle and James Dickey Clabough expands the definition of here beyond mere geography offering nuanced readings that examine tradition and nostalgia and explore the existential nature of place Deeply concerned with literature as a form of emotional intellectual and aesthetic engagement with the local and the regional Clabough considers the idea of place in a variety of ways as both a physical and metaphorical location as an important factor in shaping an individual informing one of the ways the person perceives the world and as a temporal as well as geographic construction This fresh and useful contribution to the scholarship on southern literature explains how a text can open up new worlds for readers if they pay close enough attention to place

Hosting the Monster Holly Lynn Baumgartner, Roger Davis, 2008

Hosting the Monster responds to the call of the monstrous with not rejection but invitation Positing the monster as that which defies classification the essays in this collection are an ongoing engagement with that which lies outside of established boundaries With chapters ranging from the monstrous mother or the deformed child to subjectivity in transition this volume is not only of interest to film and gender scholars and literary and cultural theorists but also students of popular culture or horror Its wide appeal stems from its invitation both to entertain the monster and to widen the call to and the listening for the monsters that have not yet and perhaps must not yet come calling back This sense of hospitality and non hostility is one guiding principle of this collection suggesting that the ability to survey and research the otherwise may reveal more about the subjectivity of the self through the wisdom of the other however monstrous the manifestation Holly Lynn Baumgartner is an associate professor of Humanities and English at Mercy College of Northwest Ohio Her articles have appeared in Reflections Rhizomes American Book Review and other journals Roger Davis is an instructor of English at MacEwan College in Edmonton Canada He is co author of Essay Writing for Canadian Students and his literary interests include poetry poetics and popular culture accomplishments and as an introduction to his major writings Whereas there exist many excellent studies of Green in French as of 1971 there is only one published full length book in English Samuel Stokes s Julian Green and the Thorn of Puritanism and since that study was originally a doctoral dissertation examining in depth a particular aspect of Green s work there is a place for a more general presentation which while having some interest for the specialist is aimed at a wider audience For that reason the present study will include along with critical commentary synopses of the more representative novels and plays and will focus on major themes The Western Literary Messenger ,1848 Twayne's World Authors Series ,1972 Works Henry Fielding,William Ernest Henley,1728 The Genius of the Gospel David Thomas,2025-08-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1873 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Moral Reflections on the Book of Job Pope Gregory I,2014 V 1 This first volume of the work contains the preface and books 1 5 accompanied by an introduction by Mark DelCogliano Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers Philip Schaff,2007-05-01 The Council of Nicaea in 325 AD marked the beginning of a new era in Christianity For the first time doctrines were organized into a single creed The Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers did most of their writing during and after this important event in Church history Unlike the previous era of Christian writing the Nicene and Post Nicene era is dominated by a few very important and prolific writers In Volume VI of the 14 volume collected writings of the Nicenes and Post Nicenes first published between 1886 and 1889 readers will find Saint Augustines exegesis on the Gospels and the Sermon on the Mount which strove to interpret and draw meaning out of the text without incorporating the author s personal agenda or bias Also included in this volume are a selection of Augustines sermons A French and English dictionary Randle Cotgrave,1673
