Schlund-Vials, 2021-06-17 This volume traces the formation of the Asian American literary canon and the field of Asian American Studies from 1965 1996 It is intended for an academic audience ranging from advanced undergraduate students to scholars from a variety of disciplines interested in the formation of Asian American literary studies from 1965 1996 Awake in the River Janice Mirikitani, 1978 Eros and Empire Alexander Stoffel, 2025-02-25 The history of queer politics in the United States since 1968 is commonly narrated as either a progressive campaign for state recognition or as a subcultural rejection of prevailing gender norms But these accounts miss the true scale of queer politics in the post war era By centering transnational relations practices and infrastructures in the history of sexual rebellion Eros and Empire provides an alternative view of US based struggles for sexual freedom Alexander Stoffel analyzes three prominent US based social movements gay liberationism Black lesbian feminism and AIDS activism to argue that they were fundamentally shaped by their transnational entanglements Departing from popular domestic framings of these movements Stoffel recasts the history of radical queer thought and action as a project of erotic worldmaking This project mobilized queer affects of pleasure desire and eroticism in the fight for revolutionary transformation on a world scale The transnational perceptions activities and consciousness of queer radicals Stoffel argues not only conditioned the trajectory of queer history but also radicalized wider anti imperialist socialist and abolitionist struggles past and present In this ambitious and interdisciplinary work Stoffel reconsiders the United States revolutionary sexual past and creates new opportunities for the study of sexual formations in relation to questions of capital accumulation empire and resistance Words Matter King-Kok Cheung, 2000-02-01 In this age of rapid transition Asian American studies and American studies in general are being reconfigured to reflect global migrations and the diverse populations of the United States Asian American literature in particular has embodied the crisis of identity that is at the heart of larger academic and political debates surrounding diversity and the inclusion and exclusion of immigrant and refugee groups These issues underlie the very principles on which literature culture and art are produced preserved taught and critiqued Words Matter is the first collection of interviews with 20th century Asian American writers The conversations that have been gathered here interviews with twenty writers possessing unique backgrounds perspectives thematic concerns and artistic priorities effectively dispel any easy categorizations of people of Asian descent These writers comment on their own work and speak frankly about aesthetics politics and the challenges they have encountered in pursuing a writing career They address among other issues the expectations attached to the label Asian American the burden of representation shouldered by ethnic artists and the different demands of mainstream and ethnic audiences Western Women's Lives Sandra Schackel, 2003 An anthology of essays about 20th century women living in the western U S showing that the image of the pioneer woman has been replaced not with another dominant one but with many Japanese American History Brian Niiya, Japanese American National Museum (Los Angeles, Calif.), 1993 Produced under the auspices of the Japanese American National Museum in Los Angeles this comprehensive reference culls information from primary sources Japanese language texts and documents oral histories and other previously neglected or obscured materials to document the history and nature of the Japanese American experience as told by the people who lived it The volume is divided into three major sections a chronology with some 800 entries a 400 entry encyclopedia covering people events groups and cultural terms and an annotated bibliography of major works on Japanese Americans Includes about 80 bandw illustrations and photographs Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Prose Works. Amerasia Journal, 2011 Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet's major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet's critical reception follows. In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works. The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography.

Multicultural Hybridity Laurie Grobman, 2007 Feminist Studies, 1988 Asian American Poetry Victoria Chang, 2004. This exciting anthology of work by up and coming writers is the first to profile a new generation of Asian American poets. Building on the legacy of now canonized poets such as Li Young Lee, Cathy Song, and Garrett Hongo, who were the first to achieve widespread recognition in the American literary community, this new generation also strikes off in bold new directions. Asian American Poetry: The Next Generation gathers for the first time a broad cross section of the very best work of these young poets, all under the age of forty, including Timothy Liu, Adrienne Su, Sue Kwock, Kim Rick Barot, Brenda Shaughnessy, Mong Lan, as well as less familiar names. A foreword by Marilyn Chin puts the book in context of both Asian American national identity and history and makes the important distinctions between generations clear. Asian American Poetry: The Next Generation opens the door on a dynamic, developing part of the poetic world, making it finally accessible to students, scholars, and poetry fans alike.

The Literary World of San Francisco & Its Environs Don Herron, 1985 Asian American Literature Shawn Wong, 1996 Picture Bride and Related Readings Yoshiko Uchida, 1996-09-09 Writers Directory M-Z Miranda Herbert Ferrara, 2004-06. This comprehensive resource features up to date bibliographical, biographical, and contact information for approximately 20,000 living authors worldwide who have at least one English publication. Entries typically include name, pseudonyms, addresses, citizenship, birth date, specialization, career information, and a bibliography. Contact information includes e-mail addresses where available.
