of self defense training just to spend years and thousands of dollars to learn prearranged counters to complicated attacks On the street these techniques are worthless I have found that using natural reactions as the foundation for defensive work is the best way to prepare students for real violence as they train There is no need to wait years for results You have within you right now what you need to overcome At Applied Fighter we like to say that you can Awaken Your Inner Warrior tm STAND Richard A Moore Discover The Warrior Within You (Personal Transformation Series Book #1) Lavanya
