

"This is a very human book. I wish it was available years ago to offer to patients I was working with. It is not simply for the chronically disabled, but for that part in all of us which fears some day we will not be able to hold a cup in our hands."

Awakening to Disability Karen G. Stone, 1997      Illusions of Equality Robert M. Buchanan, 1999 The residential schools for deaf students established in the nineteenth century favored a bilingual approach to education that stressed the use of American Sign Language while also recognizing the value of learning English But the success of this system was disrupted by the rise of oralism with its commitment to teaching deaf children speech and its ban of sign language Buchanan depicts the subsequent ramifications in sobering terms most deaf students left school with limited educations and abilities that qualified them for only marginal jobs He also describes the insistence of the male hierarchy in the deaf community on defending the tactics of individual responsibility through the end of World War II a policy that continually failed to earn job security for Deaf workers BOOK JACKET      Multiple Sclerosis Rosalind Kalb, 2011-11-11 A comprehensive guide to multiple sclerosis presented in a question and answer format that covers epidemiology symptoms treatments coping with the disease financial and life planning strategies and other related topics      Readings for Diversity and Social Justice Maurianne Adams, 2000 These essays include writings from Cornel West Michael Omi Audre Lorde Gloria Anzaldua and Michelle Fine The essays address the multiplicity and scope of oppressions ranging from ableism to racism and other less well known social aberrations      Disability, Hate Crime and Violence Alan Roulstone, Hannah Mason-Bish, 2013 This text provides a comprehensive and interdisciplinary examination of disability hate crime and violence exploring its emergence on the policy agenda Engaging with debates in criminology disability and violence studies it looks at violences in their myriad forms as they are seen to impact upon disabled people s lives      Why I Burned My Book Paul Longmore, 2003-04 Personal inclination made me a historian Personal encounter with public policy made me an activist      Unacknowledged Traces Tony Baldwinson, 2012      Intellectual Disability and Social Policies of Inclusion David P. Treanor, 2020-08-29 This book explores why after forty years of funded policies of social inclusion persons living with an intellectual disability are still separated from the social fabric of neoliberal societies David Treanor shows how the nature of the reform process is driven unnecessarily by the economic neoliberal paradigm the cultural misconceptions of intellectual disability and the inattention accorded to personal relationships between persons living with and without an intellectual disability Treanor utilizes John Macmurray s personalist philosophy Julia Kristeva s ontology of disability and Michele Foucault s concept of bio power to explain this phenomenon The concepts in this book challenge current approaches to social inclusion and have radical implications for future practices      Voicing Consent Teela Sanders, Jane Scoular, Barbara G. Brents, Susie Balderston, Gillian Abel, 2025-02-07 This open access book draws on an international research project using extensive and multiple methods to explore unwanted sexual contact and violence in sex work populations A project delivered by a large team of sex workers peer researchers and academics and with practitioner input over a four year period the central question they explore is how do social legal and judicial contexts shape the safety and well being of people engaging in sex work The book compares survey and interview data conducted in 2023 across four different legal environments legalisation Nevada USA criminalisation Northern Ireland decriminalisation New Zealand and partial criminalisation UK It explores how the interaction between legal consciousness how people in sex work interpret law consent their rights and how or whether to report legal norms legal theory case rulings legal codes and legal practices what police lawyers and judges actually do affects unwanted contact against sex workers This book advances understanding of the various layers regulating sexual autonomy for marginalised peoples the specific factors that impact the negotiation experiences and disposition of crimes of sexual violence in different socio legal contexts
