Awakening Of Candra:

Are You In The House Alone? Amanda Reyes,2017-04-05 Beginning in the 1960s through its heyday in the 1970s and beyond the telefilm remains an important cultural artefact masquerading as disposable entertainment Made specifically for the small screen within the tight constraints of broadcasting standards what these humble movies lacked in budget and star appeal they made up for in other ways Often they served as an introduction to genre films particularly horror mirroring their theatrical counterparts with a focus on sinister cults women in prison haunted houses and even animals in revolt They were also a place to address serious contemporary issues drugs prostitution sexual violence and justice albeit in a cosy domestic environment Production of telefilms continues to this day but their significance within the history of mass media remains under discussed Are You in the House Alone seeks to address this imbalance in a series of reviews and essays by fans and critics alike It looks at many of the films the networks and names behind them and also specific genres everything from Stephen King adaptations to superheroes to true life dramas So kickback and crack open the TV guide once more for the event that is the Movie of the Week

Knowing Illusion: Bringing a Tibetan Debate Into Contemporary Discourse The Yakherds,2021 Tsongkhapa 1357 1419 is by any measure the single most influential philosopher in Tibetan history His articulation of Prasangika Madhyamaka and his interpretation of the 7th Century Indian philosopher Candrakirti s interpretation of Madhyamaka is the foundation for the understanding of that philosophical system in the Geluk school in Tibet Tsongkhapa argues that Candrakirti shows that we can integrate the Madhyamaka doctrine of the two truths and of the ultimate emptiness of all phenomena with a robust epistemology that explains how we can know both conventional and ultimate truth and distinguish truth from falsity within the conventional world The Sakya scholar Taktsang Lotsawa born 1405 published the first systematic critique of Tsongkhapa s system In the fifth chapter of his Freedom from Extremes Accomplished through Comprehensive Knowledge of Philosophy Taktsang attacks Tsongkhapa s understanding of Candrakirti and the cogency of integrating Prasangika Madhyamaka with any epistemology This attack launches a debate between Geluk scholars on the one hand and Sakya and Kagyu scholars on the other regarding the proper understanding of this philosophical school and the place of epistemology in the Madhyamaka program This debate raged with great ferocity from the 15th through the 18th centuries and continues still today These two volumes study that debate and present translations of the most important texts produced in that context Volume I provides historical and philosophical background for this dispute and elucidates the philosophical issues at stake in the debate exploring the principal arguments advanced by the principals on both sides and setting them in historical context This volume presents English translations of each of the most important texts in this debate

Knowing Illusion: Bringing a Tibetan Debate into Contemporary Discourse The Yakherds,2021-04-19 This two volume set examines the Tibetan debate regarding the possibility of knowledge in the context of Madhyamaka initiated by the 15th century philosopher Taktsang s attack on Tsongkhapa s presentation of epistemology and Madhyamaka Volume II presents translations of the principal texts
