Awareneb Among Rural Women:

Awareness Among Rural Women Raj Bhanti,1994 Study covers Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh India Gender, Violence and the State in Asia Amy Barrow,Joy L. Chia,2016-07-01 While gender based violence occurs in all societies irrespective of the level of development or cultural setting whether in conflict or peacetime the challenges for legal responses to gender based violence are particularly acute in Asia This book addresses the lack of academic discourse on gender based violence in Asia beyond domestic violence by demonstrating that gendered violence exists within many different contexts and is perpetuated by multiple actors Bringing together scholars legal practitioners and human rights advocates the book examines the intersections between gender violence and the state in Asian contexts It considers the role of state institutions in perpetuating and preventing violence based on gender and identity and thus contributes to growing scholarship around due diligence standards under international law Analyzing both physical and structural gender based violence it scrutinizes how such violence exists within a landscape shaped by distinct cultural norms laws and policies and grapples with how to practically translate international human rights standards about state responsibility into these complex domestic environments Contributors from diverse backgrounds draw on case studies and empirical research to ground this academic scholarship in lived experiences of individuals and their communities in Asia By bridging the divide between policy laws and practice to offer a unique insight into both theoretical and practical responses to how gender based violence is understood within communities and state institutions in Asian countries this book will appeal to students and scholars of Asian studies Gender Studies and Law Emerging Trends in the role of Banking and Management in India Mr. A. Shanmugam, Mr. M. Manohar, Mr. P. Rajini, Mr. R. Rajavel, Mrs. T. Gnana Sundari& Miss. K. Sarala,2014 A SOCIOLOGICAL STUDY ON THE LANDLESS AGRICULTURAL LABOURERS IN CUDDALORE DISTRICT, TAMIL NADU Dr. P. Mariyappan,2021-07-01 Preamble Agricultural progress is normally regarded as a prerequisite of economic development It is true that economic development in the modern times has come to be associated with industrialisation nevertheless it is generally accepted that industrialisation can follow only on the sound wheels of agriculture As a matter of fact if one goes by the available evidence with the exception of Great Britain industrial development in all presently developed countries proceeded on the basis of agricultural self sufficiency and increase in agricultural productivity made possible through State intervention in numerous ways such as subsidized farm inputs free expertise and extension services price guarantees and the provision of overheads in terms of credit marketing and numerous social and civil amenities In a developing economy agriculture has to be given priority in order to accelerate the rate of economic progress The agricultural labourers of several developing countries have peculiar characteristics that are common to most of the landless agricultural labourer of developing countries especially those with high population size The plight of agricultural labourers is becoming increasingly deplorable in most developing countries However in some countries the state intervened to protect the interest of agricultural labourers by adopting both restrictive and promotional measures while other governments have generally been lukewarm to their problems Social Work for the Elderly Poverty-Alleviation Huaijuan Zhao,2024-11-27 This book focuses on how to provide social work services for elderly people living in poverty Divided into eight chapters the book first outlines the scale characteristics and causes of poverty among elderly people and discusses the significance of social work in poverty alleviation for the elderly The book then concentrates on different types of elderly people such as those in economic and ecological poverty and those suffering from poverty caused by illness disability and lack of ability analyzing the content and service modes and providing case studies Finally the book discusses ways and strategies for social work participation in poverty alleviation for the elderly in the post poverty alleviation era This book combines theory with practice and is a useful reference for government departments universities as well as social organizations related to social work Emerging Technologies for Health Literacy and Medical Practice Garcia, Manuel B.,de Almeida, Rui Pedro Pereira,2024-02-14
