Oxford Dictionary of National Biography: Grigg-Hanboys Henry Colin Gray Matthew, Brian Harrison, Brian Howard Harrison, 2004 55 000 biographies of people who shaped the history of the British Isles and beyond from the earliest times to the year 2002 The Discovery of the Peak District Trevor Brighton, 2004 THE PEAK DISTRICT was an area viewed with fear and foreboding for a thousand years Largely impenetrable to the traveller it was called a aehowling wilderness by Defoe Its few inhabitants were uncouth and the last troglodytes in England Their guttural dialect was barely intelligible and their fondness for drink was renowned and repellent Since Saxon times the Peak was associated with evil and the abode of the devil was located in the huge cave known as Peak's Arse By the Norman period this supernatural cavern was proclaimed one of the seven wonders of Europe Elizabethan topographers declared it the first of the Seven Wonders of the Peak all of which were natural phenomena except for Chatsworth built amid what Charles Cotton called the warts and pudenda of Nature A magical transformation occurred almost overnight when the romantic period viewed the Peak in quite a different light Its wonder was now its landscape portrayed by artists and writers as picturesque beautiful and sublime Rousseau the prophet of Nature came to live there Dovedale became Elysium and Monsal Dale Arcadia Turnpike roads slowly opened up the Peak

Chatsworth was its showplace while Buxton strove to emulate Bath Scientists such as Erasmus Darwin came to study its geology and industrialists such as Wedgwood and Boulton its minerals Arkwright's cotton mills made it one of the cradles of the Industrial Revolution and antiquaries and archaeologists explored its ancient remains Ruskin foresaw the ruin of an idyllic world and raved against the coming of the railways and the curse of trippers Yet despite the inevitable scars the area retained much of its natural beauty and surrounded by burgeoning urban industrial growth it became a focal point for the outdoor movement of the 19th and 20th centuries Not surprisingly by 1953 much of the Peak District was designated Britain's first National Park What is surprising is that this important new book is the first full and fascinating account of the past of the Peak Softs and Hards, 1986 International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Contemporary Authors New Revision Series Scot Peacock, 2001-09 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world's most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually While Gale strives to replicate print content some content may not be available due to rights restrictions Call your Sales Rep for details
