Senna More Than a Champion Fabricio Sales Silva,2025-03-24 I have always believed that true victory begins long before the final flag Since I was a boy when I rode karts for the first time I felt a restlessness that pushed me to want more to test myself in every possible way This inner fire made me understand early on that there is no middle ground between dream and reality it takes total dedication going to the last limit and giving the best of yourself without reservations There were times when the competition was fierce when rivalries put not only talent but also mental strength at stake I won world titles in Formula 1 facing brilliant opponents such as Alain Prost and I realized that success does not depend only on a competitive car but on focus courage and the commitment to do everything well or simply not do it They always ask me where so much desire to win came from I believe that part of it was born from the love I had for my country and my family Knowing that there were millions of Brazilians waking up at dawn to watch me hoping that I would bring joy to them gave me extra energy for each overtaking And I with an open heart know that the important thing is to win Everything and always This story that the important thing is to compete is nothing more than pure demagoguery Famous People Around The World. More than Cricket and Football Joel Nathan Rosen, Maureen M. aspects visible in North American sport particularly celebrity and all its trappings and pitfalls The success of athletes from other countries in basketball and ice hockey and the proliferation of stars imported and now exported to and from North America provides some better examples of sport's international power It also creates a very new kind of sport celebrity albeit one that often shows a rather limited reach beyond that star's own country or continent Thus rather than focusing on the Western Hemisphere this collection of some of world sport's most heralded celebrities including stars of Motocross surfing distance running and more serves as a sort of passport to many places that make up our global sporting environment

Alain Prost: The Art of Speed Fabricio Sales Silva, 2025-02-27 If I could share a single message with you, it would be this: no matter how many curves life throws your way, there's always a way to adjust direction and find our own perfect course When I was a kid growing up in Saint Chamond, I never imagined that one day I would be in Formula 1 driving the fastest cars in the world and competing against the best I was just a kid with a bike, and that bike was my first lesson in balance, determination, and passion I believe that life, like motorsport, is a matter of strategy You don't win by running without thinking You win by understanding the right moment to accelerate, the moment to brake, and above all, the moment to stand firm, even when it seems that the curve is tighter than you can bear I always preferred to be called 'The Teacher' because my success was never based solely on speed but on how I used my mind to see the big picture to anticipate the next step before it arrived Life is made of curves and straights of victories and defeats of ups and downs But at every turn there is an opportunity to adjust to surpass yourself and to get closer to what you want to achieve So adjust your steering wheel look ahead and accelerate The path is yours and the race is still ongoing
