The Azerbaijani Turks Audrey L. Altstadt,1992 She identifies key issues and actors and documents a pattern of continual struggle against colonial rule from the initial conquest to the political movements of the late twentieth century

Monuments and Identities in the Caucasus ,2023-12-14 This is the first multidisciplinary volume whose focus is on the barely accessible highlands between Armenia and Azerbaijan and their invaluable artistic heritage Numerous ancient and mediaeval monuments of Artsakh Karabagh and Nakhichevan find themselves in the crucible of a strife involving mutually exclusive national accounts They are gravely endangered today by the politics of cultural destruction endorsed by the modern State of Azerbaijan This volume contains seventeen contributions by renowned scholars from eight nations rare photographic documentation and a detailed inventory of all the monuments discussed Part 1 explores the historical geography of these lands and their architecture Part 2 analyses the development of Azerbaijani nationalism against the background of the centuries long geopolitical contest between Russia and Turkey Part 3 documents the loss of monuments and examines their destruction in the light of international law governing the protection of cultural heritage Turkish-Azerbaijani Relations Murad Ismayilov, Norman A. Graham, 2016-05-20 An east west axis of Azerbaijan and Turkey has grown into prominence within the broader structure of regional dynamics in Eurasia over the past two decades Yet few including among policy advisors and policy makers in either of the two states have attempted to look deeper into the forces that lie behind the workings of this important regional nexus a reality that resulted in a dual crisis in bilateral relations towards the end of the second decade of interaction This volume investigates the underlying causes that shaped the dynamics within the structure of the bilateral relationship between Azerbaijan and Turkey It features chapters by both scholars from the region and international experts in the field and therefore provides both in house and outside perspectives on developments within the complex structure of the relationship With its analysis portfolio including historical political economic socio cultural ideological and international underpinnings of this regional alliance the volume offers the most systematic and broad ranged analysis of the matter available to date The book will serve as an important resource for students and scholars of post Soviet Studies Central Asia and the Caucasus and the Middle East while also being of interest to those of International Relations and political science disciplines Democracy Challenged Marina Ottaway, 2013-01-25 During the 1990s international democracy promotion efforts led to the establishment of numerous regimes that cannot be easily classified as either authoritarian or democratic They display characteristics of each in short they are semi authoritarian regimes These regimes pose a considerable challenge to U S policymakers because the superficial stability of many semi authoritarian regimes usually masks severe problems that need to be solved lest they lead to a future crisis Additionally these regimes call into question some of the ideas about democratic transitions that underpin the democracy promotion strategies of the United States and other Western countries Despite their growing importance semi authoritarian regimes have not received systematic attention Marina Ottaway examines five countries Egypt Azerbaijan Venezuela Croatia and Senegal which highlight the distinctive features of semi authoritarianism and the special challenge each poses to policymakers She explains why the dominant approach to democracy promotion isn t effective in these countries and concludes by suggesting alternative policies Marina Ottaway is senior associate and codirector of the Democracy and Rule of Law Project at the Carnegie Endowment Azerbaijani Literature and the Gendered Narratives of Nationhood Shafag Dadashova.2025-03-31 Azerbaijani Literature and the Gendered Narratives of Nationhood explores the dynamic relationship between Azerbaijani literature and the region's socio political history. It examines how literature reflects and shapes national identity with a focus on the gendered dimensions of this process Analyzing literary works across different historical periods this book reveals evolving gender roles and their portrayal in literature highlighting the complex interaction between gender literature and the narratives that define gender identity It offers a deep exploration of how women s identities have been shaped represented and transformed in Azerbaijani literature from the 12th century to the post Soviet era Drawing on key gender theories including the works of Judith Butler and Candace West it examines how patriarchal structures have both restricted and enabled women s agency across different historical periods Through this the volume traces the tension between tradition and modernity highlighting how authors as representatives of their times perceived these tensions interpreted them and how they viewed the negotiation of gender roles cultural norms and national identity Azerbaijani Literature and the Gendered Narratives of Nationhood is a valuable text for both students and scholars researching the The New Geopolitics of Central Asia and Its history literature and politics of Eastern Europe and Central Asia Borderlands Ali Banuazizi, Myron Weiner, 1994 This book focuses on the newly independent Muslim republics of the former Soviet Union in Central Asia especially Uzbekistan Tajikistan and Azerbaijan It examines the recent economic and political developments in these states with reference to the lingering legacy of Tsarist Russian and Soviet rule the resurgence of an Islamic political identity the persistence of ethnic allegiances and rivalries and the nascent democratic aspirations of their Crossroads and Conflict Gary K. Bertsch, Cassady B. Craft, Scott A. Jones, Michael D. Beck, 2013-10-08 The peoples world's second largest reserves of petroleum lie beneath the land locked Caspian Sea making the Caucasus of vital importance to both regional and global economic and security interests This book brings together experts from the US Russia and the Caucasus to examine the issues of conflict foreign policy tradeoffs and security in the region It takes into account the geopolitical factors Western and Russian involvement and the interaction between domestic and external pressures Crossroads and Conflict looks at the challenges faced by these countries and examines the possibilities for future peace and prosperity in the region The Globalization of Musics in Transit Simone Krüger, Ruxandra Trandafoiu, 2013-12-04 This book traces the particularities of music migration and tourism in different global settings and provides current even new perspectives for ethnomusicological research on globalizing musics in transit The dual focus on tourism and migration is central to debates on globalization and their examination separately or combined offers a useful lens on many key questions about where globalization is taking us questions about identity and heritage commoditization historical and cultural representation hybridity authenticity and ownership neoliberalism inequality diasporization the relocation of allegiances and more Moreover for the first time these two key phenomena tourism and migration are studied conjointly as well as interdisciplinary in order to derive both parallels and contrasts While taking diverse perspectives in embracing the contemporary musical landscape the collection offers a range of research methods and theoretical approaches from ethnomusicology anthropology cultural geography sociology popular music studies and media and communication In so doing Musics in Transit provides a rich exemplification of the ways that all forms of musical culture are becoming transnational under post global conditions sustained by both global markets and musics in transit and to which both tourists and diasporic cosmopolitans make an important contribution The Rising Tide of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young, 1993 Two decades after the publication of his prize winning book The Politics of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young and a distinguished panel of contributors assess the changing impact of cultural pluralism on political processes around the world specifically in the former Soviet Union China United States India Ethiopia and Guatemala The result is an arresting look at the dissolution of the nation state system as we have known it Crawford Young opens with an overview of the dramatic rise in the political significance of cultural pluralism and of scholars changing understanding of what drives and shapes ethnic identification Mark Beissinger brilliantly explains the demise of the last great empire state the USSR while Edward Friedman notes growing challenges to the apparent cultural homogeneity of China Nader Entessar suggests intriguing contrasts in Azeri identity politics in Iran and the ex USSR Ronald Schmidt and Noel Kent explore the language and racial dimensions of the rising multicultural currents in the United States Douglas Spitz shows the extent of the decline of the old secular vision of India of the independence generation Alan LeBaron traces the recent emergence of an assertive Mayan identity among a submerged populace in Guatemala long thought to be destined for Ladinoization A case study of the diversity and uncertain future of Ethiopia dramatically emerges from four contrasting contributions Tekle Woldemikael looks at the potential cultural tensions in Eritrea Solomon Gashaw offers a central Ethiopian nationalist perspective Herbert Lewis reflects the perspectives of a restless and disaffected periphery and James Quirin provides an arresting explanation of the construction of identity amongst the Beta Israel Ethiopian Jews Virginia Sapiro steps back from specific regions offering an original analysis of the interaction between cultural pluralism and gender Frustrated Democracy in Post-Soviet Azerbaijan Audrey L. Altstadt, 2017-05-23 Frustrated Democracy in Post Soviet Azerbaijan follows a newly independent oil rich former Soviet republic as it adopts a Western model of democratic government and then turns toward corrupt authoritarianism Audrey L Altstadt begins with the Nagorno Karabagh War 1988 1994 which triggered Azerbaijani nationalism and set the stage for the development of a democratic movement Initially successful this government soon succumbed to a coup Western oil companies arrived and money flowed in a quantity Altstadt calls almost unimaginable causing the regime to resort to repression to maintain its power Despite Azerbaijan's long tradition of secularism political Islam emerged as an attractive alternative for those frustrated with the stifled democratic opposition and the lack of critique of the West's continued political interference Altstadt's work draws on instances of censorship in the Azerbaijani press research by embedded experts and nongovernmental and international organizations and interviews with diplomats and businesspeople The book is an essential companion to her earlier works The Azerbaijani Turks Power and Identity Under Russian Rule and The Politics of Culture in Soviet Azerbaijan 1920 1940 State Building and Conflict Resolution in the Caucasus Charlotte Mathilde Louise Hille, 2010 State building processes in the Caucasus are influenced by the culture of the Caucasus and previous experiences with state building after World War I The conflicts which erupted at the time have influenced territorial claims The role of foreign powers as Russia the United States Turkey Germany is considerable in the region Divide and rule policy of Joseph Stalin is another factor which describes existing animosities between peoples in the Caucasus Since 1989 a transition process or state building process has started in the North and the South Caucasus This book gives an in depth analysis of the backgrounds of the conflicts including activities by IGO s and NGOs and the developments in international law with regard to state building practice Azerbaijan Since Independence Svante E. Cornell, 2015-05-20 Azerbaijan a small post Soviet republic located on the western shore of the Caspian Sea has outsized importance becaus of its strategic location at the corssroads of Europe and Asia its oil resources and REALITIES OF AZERBAIJAN 1917-1920 ANAR ISGENDERLI, 2011-03-22 This is a useful book on an understudied and important subject Yet much of the narrative reads like a personal diatribe bracketed by national polemics. The author clearly has an ax to grind with the Armenian population of the South Caucasus and his tone does far more to distract the reader from the content of his story than to promote his thesis For example Resettled in the South Caucasus in the mid nineteenth century Armenians brought carnage ethnic and religious discrimination and hatred Today they continue to maintain this policy Such wildly broad and unsupported hyperboles will mislead the lay reader and vex the expert Islam in Central Asia and the Caucasus Since the Fall of the Soviet Union Bayram Balci, 2018 Provides a sophisticated account of both the internal dynamics and external influences in the evolution of Islam in the region The Nagorno-Karabakh Conflict Heiko Krüger, 2010-07-30 The Caucasus region situated on a natural isthmus between the Black Sea and the Caspian Sea has long been a border zone and a melting pot for a diverse range of cultures and peoples As the intersection between Europe and Asia and also tween Russia and the Ottoman and Persian Empires it has featured in the strategic plans of numerous great powers over the centuries Given its abundance of natural resources the ready made raw material transport routes to Europe and its enduring position on the edge of Russia nothing has changed to the present day The tremendous development opportunities of the Caucasian region are being tarnished by unresolved territorial conflicts that put a continual and regionally balanced growth sustained democratisation and long term stability at risk These conflicts which all erupted with the dissolution of the Soviet Union include the separatist movements in Abkhazia Chechnya Nagorno Karabakh and South setia The war over South Ossetia which erupted between Russia and Georgia in August 2008 spelt out the explosive potential still inherent in these conflicts Culture in Soviet Azerbaijan, 1920-40 Audrey Altstadt, 2016-06-23 The early Soviet Union's nationalities policy involved the formation of many national republics within which nation building and modernization were undertaken for the benefit of backward peoples This book in considering how such policies were implemented in Azerbaijan argues that the Soviet policies were in fact a form of imperialism with nation building and modernization imposed firmly along Soviet lines The book demonstrates that in Azerbaijan and more widely among western Turkic peoples the Volga and Crimean Tatars there were before the onset of Soviet rule well developed forward looking secular national movements which were not at all backward and were different from the Soviets The book shows how in the period 1920 to 1940 the two different visions competed with each other with eventually the pre Soviet vision of Azerbaijani culture losing out and the Soviet version dominating in a new Soviet Azerbaijani culture The book examines the details of this Sovietization of culture in language policy and the change of the alphabet in education higher education and in literature The book concludes by exploring how pre Soviet Azerbaijani culture survived to a degree underground and how it was partially rehabilitated after the death of Stalin and more fully in the Red Nations Jeremy Smith, 2013-09-12 Red Nations offers an illuminating and informative overview of late Soviet period how the non Russian republics of the Soviet Union experienced communist rule It surveys the series of historical events that contributed to the break up of the Soviet Union and evaluates their continuing resonance across post soviet states today Drawing from the latest research Professor Smith offers comprehensive coverage of the revolutionary years the early Soviet policies of developing nations Stalin's purges and deportations of small nationalities and the rise of independence movements Through a single unified narrative this book illustrates how in the post Stalin period many of the features of the modern nation state emerged Both scholars and students will find this an indispensable contribution to the history of the dissolution of the USSR the reconstruction of post Soviet society and its impact on non Russian citizens from the years of the Russian Revolution through to the present day Beyond the Resource Curse Brenda Shaffer, Taleh Ziyadov, 2011-12-30 When countries discover that they possess large deposits of oil and natural gas the news is usually welcome Yet paradoxically if they rely on their wealth of natural resources they often set down a path of poor economic performance and governance challenges Only a few resource rich countries have managed to develop their economies fully and provide a better and sustainable standard of living for large segments of their populations. This phenomenon known as the resource curse is a core challenge for energy exporting states Beyond the Resource Curse focuses on this relationship between natural wealth and economic security discussing the particular pitfalls and consistent perils facing oil and gas exporting states The contributors to this volume look beyond the standard fields of research related to the resource curse They also shed new light on the specific developmental problems of resource rich exporting states around the globe including Azerbaijan Bahrain Cambodia East Timor Iran Norway Russia Trinidad and Tobago the United Arab Emirates and Venezuela Policy makers and academics think of energy security solely in terms of the interests of energy importers Beyond the Resource Curse shows that the constant volatility in energy markets creates energy security challenges for exporters as well Education and the Politics of Memory in Russia and Eastern Europe Sergey Rumyantsey, 2025-01-21 This book examines both formal and extracurricular education and the politics of memory and historical narratives in Armenia Azerbaijan Russia and Ukraine The misalignment between memory politics and history politics forms a central theme of this book Structured in three parts it focuses on school education in the post Soviet states over the 30 years between the collapse of the Soviet Union and the 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine The chapters inquire as to how post Soviet school education politics of memory and history politics became active participants in the production of state approved ideology patriotism and a state prescribed understanding of the national past Armed conflicts in the territory of the former USSR not only saw numerous victims and refugees but also the emergence of new borders and unrecognized de facto states and the annexation of territories They also contributed to the creation of new sites of memory generated their own traditions of commemoration for the heroes and victims of these confrontations and led to the reconstruction of historical narratives and the construction of new national myths The research in this book foregrounds how the nationalization of the public space and the reconstruction of national historical narratives in the independent states reflect a desire to monopolize the power to interpret the past with low tolerance of alternative accounts In this light the book covers issues such as the nation state Sovietization national history creation memory politics religion mass media nationalism and patriotism and analyzes the relationship of Azerbaijani and Armenian Russian and Ukrainian societies with their histories and pasts A novel study on the topic of memory and history writing this is a timely contribution to the field of Post Soviet history and Russian and Eastern European Studies The Open Access version of this book available at http www taylorfrancis com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Imagined Identities Gönül Pultar, 2014-04-14 How are identities being forged during the age of globalization This collection of essays by scholars from various disciplines and regions of the world discusses both the construction and deconstruction of identity in its engagement with culture ethnicity and nationhood The authors explore the tension resulting from the desire to create a new cultural space for identities that are at once national regional linguistic and religious Among the wide ranging approaches Tanja Stampfl looks at the elusiveness of cultural identity in Khaled Hosseini's The Kite Runner Dawn Morais investigates issues of ethnicity and nationality in Malaysia's tourism advertising and Cathy Waegner explores ethnic identities as globalized market commodities Throughout the volume identity is approached from a variety of sites fiction news analysis film theme parks and field work to contribute new insight and perspective to the well worn debate over what identity signifies in societies where the existence of minorities both indigenous and immigrant challenges the dominant group
