B My Name Is Bunny:

B, My Name Is Bunny Norma Fox Mazer, 2015-06-16 Bunny is funny but that doesn't mean she's totally clueless when it comes to more serious matters. With her quick wit and lighthearted personality, Bunny Larrabee can make people laugh about almost anything. She collects knock-knock jokes, riddles, and all kinds of comedy routines to try out on her best friend Emily. The only thing Bunny doesn't find humor in is her unusual name; she's heard jokes about it her whole life, and none of them are funny. So when an impossibly gorgeous guy starts talking to her at a concert, Bunny opens her mouth and says two fateful words: "I'm Emily." It's just one tiny lie, but it will drive a wedge between the two best friends. And with what looks like more serious misfortune on the horizon, Bunny will need Emily's friendship and advice more than ever. B, My Name Is Bunny,

The Maid of Sker Richard Doddridge Blackmore, 1890 Bartholomew B. Bunny and the Marvelous and Magnificent Dirt-Tunneller Evie Edgecumbe-Grey, 2014-11-21 Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew B. Bunny have been married a year. They've finally saved enough to purchase a modest bunny bungalow built for two. They haven't lived there very long when they find they are expecting a batch of baby bunnies. What will they do? What would you do? Bartholomew has an idea: he will add an addition to their burrow that will be big enough to accommodate their bouncing litter of baby bunnies. Little does he know what kind of trouble he is in for after he orders a marvelous and magnificent Dirt Tunneller. The problems begin when Bartholomew reads an advertisement in an old copy of Better Holes and Gardens in kindly old Dr. Goats' office. From there, the complications just continue to grow. Bartholomew B. Bunny and the Marvelous and Magnificent Dirt Tunneller is a whimsical action-packed story about doing it yourself, projects, the importance of reading instruction manuals, and believing in one's own ability. Captivate your children's imaginations and maybe inspire them to take on a project or two themselves. International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004

When Emily's parents got divorced two years ago, her dad still made time to see her and the twins as much as possible. But since he moved to Chicago with Marcia, his phone calls have started getting less and less frequent, and it feels like he might as well live at the North Pole. And if that weren't bad enough, her mom seems ready to start a new family too. Emily knows that it's impossible to get her parents back together but that doesn't mean she's ready for her mom to start dating and she's ready to put a stop to it. So in effort to sabotage her mom's new relationship Emily pretends to go out with a boy at school who she's not even sure she likes. Now she's going to have to deal with two unwanted relationships. D, My Name Is Danita Norma Fox

Mazer, 2015-06-16 Danita knows that nobody's perfect but it's never easy to admit that might include your own parents. Danita's parents love to remind their daughter that she weighed less than a loaf of bread when she was born but now that she's almost fourteen and perfectly healthy Danita really wishes they'd give her some space. Obviously still in love and completely devoted to their family even Danita's best friend Laredo thinks Mr and Mrs Merritt are the ideal parents but Danita can't help wanting them to focus on anything or anyone else. Danita's wish is about to come true but is it more than she bargained for. C, My Name Is Cal Norma Fox Mazer, 2015-06-16

As Cal navigates his teenage years he may be in store for more changes than he realizes. A, My Name Is Ami Norma Fox Mazer, 2015-06-16 The more things change the more Ami wishes they'd stay exactly the same. Ami and her best friend Mia share almost everything even the letters in their names. But when Ami's mom and dad separate and her mom moves out even all of the traditions she and Mia share can't put her family back together. Ami wants everything to go back to the way it was for her mother not to live in an apartment and have a life of her own and for her dad not to go to dinner with the new science teacher Ms Linsley. At least her friendship with Mia will always be the same won't it. Confessions of a Grieving

Mother Sherry Anne Coombe, 2014-04-10 I did not cry. The moment came when Heather died I did not shed a tear I felt numb like I was having an out of body experience and I was watching myself go through the motions. There were things to do people to call it was not the time to begin to fall apart I had just joined an elite club of grieving mothers. This was the club no one talked about or wanted to become a member of. From that moment on my life was getting a makeover that I didn't ask for let alone consent to allowing it to happen. It was beyond my control I was not given a choice. This was and is my life now I am a grieving mother for the rest of my life. Piggyback Songs - Seasons & Holidays, Grades Toddler - K, 2012-10-22

How is it possible that the one guy Jenny falls for is totally off limits? March isn't usually Jenny's month. For one thing, it's too dark and gray. For another, her sister Gail died two years ago in March after being hit by a drunk driver; a blow her family hasn't yet recovered from. But March is also when she first sees Rob. He's new in school and although Jenny doesn't know who he is yet, she can't look away when they pass each other in the halls. She knows there's something between them and he seems to know it too, until a chance conversation reveals something terrible: Rob's mother was the driver who killed Gail. Even as Jenny tries to pull away from Rob, she's secretly glad about his stubborn insistence that they be friends despite their pasts. If Jenny and Rob become friends or more, is she betraying her family? Can she and Rob find a way to transcend the tragedies in both their pasts and hold on to each other?

Someone to Love Norma Fox Mazer, 2015-05-19

Nina always thought that if just one person would love her perfectly and completely, she'd never be alone again. Nina's the first person in her family to leave home and go to college. Maybe that's why she feels so isolated once she gets there, especially compared to some of the other students like her roommates who have been friends for so long they can finish one another's sentences. But it seems like her narrow, small town past hasn't prepared her for this life in which everyone else knows things about the world that she doesn't. Afraid of falling behind in her classes, all Nina does is study and wonder if she'll always be this lonely. But then she meets Mitch. He introduces himself from the top of some scaffolding, taking a break from painting the house next door to hers. Their growing relationship frees Nina from her self-doubt; finally, someone to love who loves her back. Their togetherness is perfect, but can it stay that way forever?
