Baba Of Karo A Woman Of The Muslim Hausa:

Baba of Karo, a Woman of the Muslim Hausa Baba (of Karo), Mary Felice Smith, 1981-01-01 Daughter of a Hausa farmer and Koranic teacher Baba became Mary Smith's friend in 1949 when M G and Mary Smith were engaged in fieldwork in Nigeria. In daily sessions for several weeks Baba dictated her life story which Mrs Smith has translated from the Hausa. The old woman's memories reached back to the days of slave raids and interstate warfare before the British occupation and she has left a fascinating and valuable record of Hausa life in the late nineteenth century and the first half of the twentieth. Baba describes Hausa male oriented society from a woman's point of view narrating not only her own life history but stories of other women who were close to her. She tells of Hausa domestic life farming and slavery and explains the Hausa institutions of bond friendship adoption polygynous marriage and kinship showing how in a society that permits easy and frequent divorce children are not exclusively dependent on their biological parents for emotional support. First published in 1945 and now reissued with a new foreword by Hilda Kuper this autobiography of a shrewd humorous and courageous personality remains a classic in the field of African studies and a uniquely valuable account of a Muslim society in West Africa. Baba of Karo Mary F. Coles, Beverly Mack, 1991-10-01 The Hausa are one of the largest ethnic groups in Africa with populations in Nigeria Niger and Ghana. Their long history of city states and Islamic caliphates their complex trading economies and their cultural traditions have attracted the attention of historians political economists linguists and anthropologists The large body of scholarship on Hausa society however has assumed the subordination of women to men Hausa Women in the Twentieth Century refutes the notion that Hausa women are pawns in a patriarchal Muslim society The contributors all of whom have done field research in Hausaland explore the ways Hausa women have balanced the demands of Islamic expectations and Western choices as their society moved from a precolonial system through British colonial administration to inclusion in the modern Nigerian nation This volume examines the roles of a wide variety of women from wives and workers to political activists and mythical figures and it emphasizes that women have been educators and spiritual leaders in Hausa society since precolonial times From royalty to slaves and concubines in traditional Hausa cities and in newer towns from the urban poor to the newly educated elite the invisible women whose lives are documented here demonstrate that standard accounts of Hausa society must be revised Scholars of Hausa and neighboring West African societies will find in this collection a wealth of new material and a model of how research on women can be integrated with general accounts of Hausa social religious political and economic life For students and scholars looking at gender and women s roles cross culturally this volume provides an invaluable African perspective

Societies and Nature in the Sahel Philippe Lavigne Delville, Emmanuel Gregoire, Pierre Janin, Claude Raynaut, Jean Koechlin, 2002-06 Examining the conditions for land occupation and natural resource use in the Sahel this book offers a conceptual and practical approach to social organization and environmental management in the face of rapid environmental change

Non-Formal Approach to Ethnicity Zacchaeus O. Ogunnika, 2013-11 This book written by one of the foremost researchers in this field represents one of the intellectual efforts on the explanation of the inter ethnic phenomenon The author went into the critique of the whole phenomenon and approached his frame of meaning from the actor s side That is why the book is subtitled The peoples non formal mechanisms The author is phenomenological in his approach and believes that the real meaning of any event should be based on the experience of the actors He combined the pessimism of the ethnomethodologists with the realism of the phenomenologist The result of this is an essay which is considered as being nearest to the true situation of inter ethnic relations in Nigeria more than that of its predecessors The book therefore reports the behaviors of Nigerians in actual situations How different ethnicities pass and behave as if they are one The book heavily relied on the W I Thomas dictum which says that if man defines a situation as real they are real in their consequences The consequences of mutual deception and strategic interactions mentioned in the book become real as they produce the real tools and mechanisms for tension management in a multi ethnic society The author dwells a lot on economic spheres where he identified for the first time in inter ethnic relations literature a phenomenon he refers to as market groups This group unlike its counterpart the economic associations is informal enduring and based on proper inter ethnic understanding The market group members declare their allegiance to the sarki of their commodity who may not necessarily be a member of their ethnic group Different ethnic group members were united by the commodity they sold in the market The commodity to dictate their interaction style rather than ethnic or primordial emotional attachments One cannot do but remember Marx's idea on Fetishism of commodities in the section Commodities assume and dominate the social psychology of the individuals and place ethnicity in the secondary position The role of modern formal education in forging inter ethnic unity in Nigeria as reported in the book is also very illuminating The unity of curricula and subjecting the students to take the same West African Senior School Certificate Examination all over Nigeria regardless of the students state of origin or ethnic orientation contributes to the nipping of the inter ethnic distrust in the bud Another important thing one may think of is the problem of unity schools To make this more effective more student exchanges should take place and the numbers of the unity schools should increase to give the young population an opportunity to practice the non formal management mechanisms in their formative years
