Another Shore Fiction Series:

View from Another Shore Franz Rottensteiner, 1999 A second edition with a completely new contextual introduction and other new material of a superb selection first published in 1973 and for long out of print of some of the best science fiction from continental Europe Included are stories by Stanislaw Lem Poland Vsevolod Ivanov Russia Eurocon award winner Adrian Rogoz Romania Herbert W Franke Germany Wolfgang Jeschke Germany Gerard Klein France and others The Inheritors Joseph Conrad, Ford Madox Ford, 1999 This novel one of two collaborations between Joseph Conrad and Ford Madox Ford is one of the earliest to be concerned with modern mechanical culture and as such foreshadowed other writers such as George Orwell and Aldous Huxley Symbolising the collapse of old treasured political values at the turn of the century and underlining the urgency of renovation the novel involves the unrequited love for a young woman of Arthur Granger an aristocratic and unsuccessful novelist Granger betrays the ideals on which he prides himself for this woman a nameless ethereal and goddess like agent from a strange world The collaboration between Joseph Conrad and Ford Madox Ford influenced their own independent work and in the words of Ezra Pound What Flaubert had done to change French prose Conrad and Ford did to transform English prose TIMES OF WAR & PERIL - The Historical Novels Series (Illustrated Edition) G. A. Henty, 2023-12-10 In Times of War Peril G A Henty masterfully weaves historical narrative with adventurous storytelling offering readers a vivid portrayal of tumultuous periods in history Set against the backdrop of wars and significant upheavals Henty employs a direct and engaging literary style drawing readers into the life of young protagonists as they navigate the complexities of bravery loyalty and moral courage The illustrated edition enhances this experience allowing readers to fully immerse themselves in the historical context that shapes the characters journeys while enriching the visual narrative of this compelling series G A Henty a prolific author of historical fiction in the late 19th century specialized in tales that appealed to a young audience His own background having served as a war correspondent during conflicts and his keen interest in the lives of soldiers and civilians alike shaped his ability to blend informative historical detail with thrilling adventure Henty s writing is influenced by Victorian ideals of masculinity and honor urging his readers to aspire to virtues exemplified by his characters This book is highly recommended for readers of all ages who seek both educational enrichment and entertainment Whether you are a historian a parent looking for inspiring narratives for younger readers or simply a lover of historical fiction Henty s Times of War Peril offers a captivating escape into the past that remains relevant and thought provoking today Science Fiction from Quebec Amy J. Ransom, 2009-05-20 This first book length study of French language science fiction from Canada provides an introduction to the subgenre known as SFQ science fiction from Quebec In addition it offers in depth analyses of SFQ sagas by Jacques Brossard Esther Rochon and Elisabeth Vonarburg It demonstrates how these multivolume narratives of colonization and postcolonial societies exploit themes typical of postcolonial literatures including the denunciation of oppressive colonial systems the utopian hope for a better future and the celebration of tolerant pluralistic societies A bibliography of SFQ available in English translation is included Exploring Sinophone Liminality in Contemporary Chinese Fiction Di-kai Chao,2025-05-13 Chao explores Sinophone literature as a complex field that navigates the intersections of Sinitic languages global literary systems and China centered perspectives He presents an alternative perspective that Sinophone literature especially through ghost narratives offers a platform for communities to critically examine modernity transgress boundaries and challenge epistemologies By emphasizing locality this book critiques the homogenization of knowledge production and highlights the importance of local experiences in shaping Sinophone identity Questioning the linear essentialist interpretations of Chineseness a more fluid understanding influenced by cultural memory globalization and transnational dynamics emerges This book advocates for an expanded scope of Sinophone theory that includes the Chinese mainland moving beyond an against diaspora stance Building upon postcolonialism and historical contexts it examines literary texts and ghost narratives originating from Taiwan Hong Kong Malaysia and the Chinese mainland delving into the diversity of Sinophone literature An excellent read for students researchers and scholars interested in Chinese literature cultural studies and critical literary work with a focus on Asian studies Gateways to Forever Mike Ashley,2007-04-01 This third volume in Mike Ashley s four volume study of the science fiction magazines focuses on the turbulent years of the 1970s when the United States emerged from the Vietnam War into an economic crisis It saw the end of the Apollo moon programme and the start of the ecology movement This proved to be one of the most complicated periods for the science fiction magazines Not only were they struggling to survive within the economic climate they also had to cope with the death of the father of modern science fiction John W Campbell Jr while facing new and potentially threatening opposition The market for science fiction diversified as never before with the growth in new anthologies the emergence of semi professional magazines the explosion of science fiction in college the start of role playing gaming magazines underground and adult comics and with the success of Star Wars media magazines This volume explores how the traditional science fiction magazines coped with this from the death of Campbell to the start of the major popular science magazine Omni and the first dreams of the Internet Fiction's Overcoat Edith W. Clowes,2018-07-05 If Dostoevsky claimed that all Russian writers of his day came out from Gogol s Overcoat then Edith W Clowes boldly expands his dramatic image to describe the emergence of Russian philosophy out from under the overcoat of Russian literature In Fiction s Overcoat Clowes responds to the view commonly held by Western European and North American thinkers that Russian culture has no philosophical tradition If that is true she asks why do readers everywhere turn to the classics of Russian literature at least in part because Russian writers so famously engage universal questions because they are so philosophical Her answer to this question is a lively and comprehensive volume that details the origins submergence and re emergence of a rich and vital Russian philosophical tradition During the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Russian philosophy emerged in conversation with narrative fiction radical journalism and speculative theology developing a distinct cultural discourse with its own claim to authority and truth Leading Russian thinkers Berdiaev Losev Rozanov Shestov and Solovyov made philosophy the primary forum in which Russians debated metaphysical aesthetic and ethical questions as well as issues of individual and national identity That debate was tragically truncated by the events of 1917 and the rise of the Soviet empire Today after seventy years of enforced silence this particularly Russian philosophical culture has resurfaced Fiction s Overcoat serves as a welcome guide to its complexities and nuances Historians and cultural critics will find in Clowes s book the story of the increasing refinement and diversification of Russian cultural discourse philosophers will find an alternative to the Western philosophical tradition and students of literature will enjoy the opportunity to rethink the great Russian novelists particularly Dostoevsky Pasternak and Platonov as important voices in the process of shaping and sustaining a new philosophy and ensuring its survival into our own age

Brave New Words Jeff Prucher,2007-05-07 Winner of a 2008 Hugo Award this new paperback takes readers on spectacular tour of the language created by science fiction From Stargate to Force Field this dictionary opens a fascinating window into an entire genre through the words invented by science fiction s most talented writers critics and fans Each entry includes numerous citations of the word s usage from the earliest known appearance forward Drawn not only from science fiction novels and stories citations also come from fanzines screenplays comics songs and the Internet

Gene Wolfe's The Book of the New Sun Michael Andre-Driussi,2019-11-11 A guide to Gene Wolfe s series The Book of the New Sun and the sequel The Urth of the New Sun as well as four shorter New Sun works Designed for use by first time readers as well as those returning to the text

Attending Daedalus Peter Wright,2003 This new study of the fiction of Gene Wolfe one of the most influential contemporary American science fiction writers offers a major reinterpretation of Gene Wolfe s four volume The Book of the New Sun and its sequel The Urth of the New Sun After exposing the concealed story at the heart of Wolfe s magnum opus Wright adopts a variety of approaches to establish that Wolfe is the designer of an intricate textual labyrinth intended to extend his thematic preoccupations with subjectivity the unreliability of memory the manipulation of individuals by social and political systems and the psychological potency of myth faith and symbolism into the reading experience

A Companion to Science Fiction David Seed,2008-06-09 A Companion to Science Fiction assembles essays by an international range of scholars which discuss the contexts themes and methods used by science fiction writers This Companion conveys the scale and variety of science fiction Shows how science fiction has been used as a means of debating cultural issues Essays by an international range of scholars discuss the contexts themes and methods used by science fiction writers Addresses general topics such as the history and origins of the genre its engagement with science and gender and national variations of science fiction around the English speaking world Maps out connections between science fiction television the cinema virtual reality technology and other aspects of the culture Includes a section focusing on major figures such as H G Wells Arthur C Clarke and Ursula Le Guin Offers close readings of particular novels from Mary Shelley s Frankenstein to Margaret Atwood s The Handmaid s Tale

be recognised as the leading author of supernatural fiction in the twentieth century But how did a man who died in poverty with no book of his stories published in his lifetime become such an icon in horror literature S T Joshi the leading authority on Lovecraft traces in detail the course of Lovecraft's life and shows how Lovecraft was engaged in the political economic social and intellectual currents of his time The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble, 2011-09-08 No detailed description available for The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators, Upon publication Anita Silvey's comprehensive survey of contemporary children's literature Children's Books and Their Creators garnered unanimous praise from librarians educators and specialists interested in the world of writing for children Now The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators assembles the best of that volume in one handy affordable reference geared specifically to parents educators and students This new volume introduces readers to the wealth of children's literature by focusing on the essentials the best books for children the ones that inform impress and most important excite young readers Updated to include newcomers such as J K Rowling and Lemony Snicket and to cover the very latest on publishing and educational trends this edition features more than 475 entries on the best loved children's authors and illustrators numerous essays on social and historical issues thirty personal glimpses into craft by well known writers illustrators and critics and invaluable reading lists by category The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators summarizes the canon of contemporary children's literature in a practical guide essential for anyone choosing a book for or working with children Multiple Modernities Jenny Kwok Wah Lau, 2003 Multiple Modernities explores the cultural terrain of East Asia Arguing that becoming modern happens differently in different places the contributors examines popular culture most notable cinema and television to see how modernization as both a response to the West and as a process that is unique in its own right in the region operates on a mass level Included in this collection are significant explorations of popular culture in East Asia including Chinese new cinema and rock music Korean cinema Taiwanese television as well as discussions of alternative arts in general While each essay focuses on specific nations or cinemas the collected effect of reading them is to offer a comprehensive in depth picture of how popular culture in East Asia operates to both generate and reflect the immense change this significant region of the world is undergoing Contributors include Jeroen de Kloet Mitsuhiro Yoshimoto Yomota Inuhiko Frances Gateward Hector Rodriguez Dai Jaihua David Desser August Palmer Lu Szu Ping and the editor Deconstructing the Starships Gwyneth Jones, 1999-04-01 The subject matter of this collection is varied but displays Jones' stance as a practising SF writer and a feminist the writing is characterised by both an incisive engagement with the texts and a refusal to dress that engagement in jargon This very readable book provides insight into the work of one of our most interesting writers and presents strong sometimes even subversive views of a range of modern SF and fantasy Mediterranean Crime Fiction Barbara Pezzotti, 2023-11-23 By exploring the transcultural nature of Mediterranean crime fiction Barbara Pezzotti advocates for a regional reading of the genre Alien Plots Inez van der Spek,2000-02-01 At the heart of this stimulating and provocative study is a science fiction story by James Tiptree Jr Alice Sheldon Bradley 1916 1987 about a brother and a sister and 58 other human beings who encounter an alien while on a starship travelling to discover a habitable planet The book includes an outline of Tiptree s work and of her remarkable life as the only child of jungle explorers as a painter an American agent during and after World War II an experimental psychologist and a female science fiction writer in male disguise Science Fiction, Canonization, Marginalization, and the Academy

Gary Westfahl,George Slusser,2002-01-30 Science fiction occupies a peculiar place in the academic study of literature For decades scholars have looked at science fiction with disdain and have criticized it for being inferior to other types of literature But despite the sentiments of these traditionalists many works of science fiction engage recognized canonical texts such as the Odyssey and many traditionally canonical works contain elements of science fiction More recently the canon has been subject to revision as scholars have deliberately sought to include works that reflect diversity and have participated in the serious study of popular culture But these attempts to create a more inclusive canon have nonetheless continued to marginalize science fiction This book examines the treatment of science fiction within the academy The expert contributors to this volume explore a wide range of topics related to the place of science fiction in literary studies These include academic attitudes toward science fiction the role of journals and cultural gatekeepers in canon formation and the marginalization of specific works and authors by literary critics In addition the volume gives special attention to multicultural and feminist concerns In discussing these topics the book sheds considerable light on much broader issues related to the politics of literary studies and academic inquiry Cultural Advantage for China. Tale of Six Cities Fu Yuhua,Florentin

Smarandache,V. Christianto,2009 Nowadays plenty of factories from Europe and other developed countries have been relocated to this country considering its tremendous economic scale and rapid growth rate during the past three decades But most of what happens inside the China nowadays is deeply hidden from the outside world the foreigners as China people would call This fact is partly because most reports on China were written by the so called fly high experts who are busy completing their reports despite a busy schedule Very few books or reports were written by people inside or at least foreigners who spent a few years in China Therefore in this book we took a different approach by inviting local scientists and other writers to describe what happens surround them It is the purpose of this book to bring these cultural advantages into more focus in order to bring into light some human aspects of the country and how these can be integrated into the broader context of economics development At the end of the day their achievements cannot be measured by economic progress alone but also how the people can have the proper sense of meaning i e feel at home in their own homeland instead of being just another bolt in the obsolete industrial engine of economics As shown in history that China Eastern cultures can shed some light into modern science cf Fritjof Capra etc it is of our belief that both cultures can learn from each other rather than suppressing the Eastern cultures under the spell of modernization As with other books on development economics it is beyond the objective of this book to give the final word We would rather see the purpose of this book is to invite further dialogue over a long time issue on how the modernization can be given a more humanized interpretation This perhaps will include rethinking on the meaning of modernization and development themselves beyond classical debates between inward outward looking development programs
