Another Country Sexuality And National Identity In Catalan Gay Fiction:

Another Country Josep-Anton Fernàndez, 2000 This book studies the emergence in the late 1960s and 1970s of a sophisticated body of gay fiction in Catalan and examines the relation between the representation of homosexuality and the discourses on national identity that legitimate modern Catalan literature Gay fiction argues the author reveals a tension between the nation and the body in Catalan literature Catalonia is a nation different from Spain a cultural and political minority within Europe but the existence of sexual minorities within its boundaries reveals its inner complexity which resists homogenization Catalonia is another country in more ways than one Drawing on a variety of critical discourses gay theory psychoanalysis and authors such as Foucault Deleuze and Guattari and Bourdieu Another Country explores the intertwinings of identity cultural politics and desire in the work of Terenci Moix Lluís Fernández Biel Mesquida and Lluís Maria Todó The book analyses how gay writers renegotiate identity discourses in Catalan literature in order to introduce homosexuality into them often with destabilising effects The role of gay authors in the process of canon construction a crucial aspect of contemporary cultural nationalism in Catalonia is also considered focusing on postmodernism and the divide between high and mass culture Finally Another Country addresses the interplay of homosexual desire within the frame of a distinction between perversion and transgression and proposes an alliance between queer and nationalist discourses Gender and Sexual Dissidence on Catalan and Spanish Television Series Silvia Grassi, 2016-09-23 Taking as a starting point an interpretation of the television medium as an Ideological State Apparatus this book examines how gender roles and non heteronormative sexualities are constructed in Spanish and Catalan television series In the first part which focuses on the construction of gender roles in Catalan soap operas it applies the analytical paradigms founded by Anglo Saxon feminist scholars for the content of soap operas to a corpus of material which has rarely been analysed through this perspective In the second part which focuses on the construction of non heteronormative sexualities in Spanish and Catalan television series the book challenges the rhetoric of normalisation and the essentialist paradigms which have so far dominated the examination of the construction of sexuality in television series As such this book addresses the role performed by television in the construction of meanings which surround gender issues and non heteronormative sexualities This is a timely exercise because gender studies and studies of sexual dissidence are fairly recent fields in Spanish and Catalan academia and television has been largely disregarded especially as far as the analysis of characters and storylines is concerned As a result this book represents a major contribution to these fields in the Spanish and Catalan contexts Constructing Identity in Contemporary Spain Jo Labanyi, 2002 These interdisciplinary essays focus on how cultural practices help form the Spanish identity by introducing a range of theoretical debates and exploring specific areas of 20th century Spanish culture

Burning Darkness Joan Ramon Resina, 2008-07-16 From the origins of the New Spanish Cinema in the 1950s to the end of the last century Burning Darkness features essays on a selection of essential films by Spain's most important directors including Pedro Almodóvar Luis Buñuel Víctor Erice Ventura Pons and others Contributors focus on current theoretical debates and issues of representation politics cultural identity and aesthetics Rather than historically surveying Spanish films the book encourages a deep reading of these essential works and the ways they cast light on specific aspects of Spanish society and its recent history Accessibly written it will appeal not only to students and scholars but also to anyone interested in Spanish cinema

Representations of Masculinity in Literature and Film Sara Martín, 2020-09-11 How are men represented on the printed page the stage and the screen What do these representations say about masculinity in the past the present and the future The twelve essays in this volume explore the different ways in which men and masculinity have been represented from the plays of William Shakespeare to the science fiction of Richard K Morgan passing through classic fiction by Emily Brontë and Charles Dickens and popular favourites by Terry Pratchett and Isaac Asimov without forgetting the Star Wars saga Collectively these essays argue that although much has been written about men it has been done from a perspective that does not see masculinity as a specific feature in need of critical appraisal Men need to be made aware of how they are represented in order to alter the toxic patriarchal models handed down to them and even break the extant binary gender models For that it is important that men distinguish patriarchy from masculinity as is done here and form anti patriarchal alliances with each other and with women This book is then an invitation to men's liberation from patriarchy by raising an awareness of its crippling constraints

Escribir la catalanidad Stewart King, 2005 This study explores the interaction of language culture and identity in contemporary Catalonia and rejects the exclusion of Castilian as a language capable of expressing Catalan-ness This study charting the construction of a Catalan identity from the nineteenth century cultural renaissance until the present day explores the interaction of language culture and identity in contemporary Catalonia Drawing on postcolonial and multicultural literary theories it argues that Castilian and Catalan language narratives are expressions of the same culture Through detailed analyses of texts by Terenci Moix Francisco Candel Ignasi Riera Montserrat Roig Juan Mars Ramon Pallic and Manuel Vázquez Montalbán among others the author demonstrates that such writers share similar preoccupations and points of view and also engage in a complex literary and cultural dialogue that cuts across the established linguistic divisions that characterise cultural politics in Catalonia The Catalan literary establishment's exclusion of Castilian as a language capable of expressing Catalan-ness is challenged and the author proposes redefining traditional understandings of Catalan literature to take into account texts produced by all members of Catalan society

Stewart King is a lecturer in Hispanic Studies at Monash University Australia

Queer Transitions in Contemporary Spanish Culture Gema Pérez-Sánchez, 2012-02-01 Gema Pérez-Sánchez argues that the process of political and cultural transition from dictatorship to democracy in Spain can be read allegorically as a shift from a dictatorship that followed a self-loathing homosexual model to a democracy that identified as a pluralized queer body Focusing on the urban cultural phenomenon of la movida she offers a sustained analysis of high queer culture as represented by novels along with an examination of low queer culture as represented by comic books and films Pérez Sánchez shows that urban queer culture played a defining role in the cultural and political processes that helped to move Spain from a premodern fascist military dictatorship to a late capitalist parliamentary democracy The book highlights the contributions of women writers Ana María Moix and Cristina Peri Rossi as well as comic book artists Ana Juan Victoria Martos Ana Miralles and Asun Balzola Its attention to women's cultural production functions as a counterpoint to its analysis of the works of such male writers as Juan Goytisolo and Eduardo Mendicutti comic book artists Nazario Rubén and Luis Pérez Ortiz and filmmaker Pedro Almodóvar

Confronting Our Canons Joan Lipman Brown, 2010 The contents of this book cover what a Canon is and why it matters the Canon backstory modern Canons factors that make a work Canonical the literary Canon and much more Queer Events David Vilaseca, 2010-01-01 Queer Events offers radical new rereadings of crucial texts from the era of the Spanish transition to democracy From Terenci Moix to Vicente Aranda most of the major writers and filmmakers of the time are found here but David Vilaseca also addresses many who deserve to be better known including Antonio Roig controversial scholar Alberto Cardén and the directors of the short lived yet vital film movement known as the Barcelona School Drawing on queer theory and the philosophies of Badiou Agamben and Deleuze Queer Events reconceptualizes a complex period in Spanish history characterized by discomfort with the past and deep ideological conflict with the present A Companion to the Twentieth-century Spanish Novel Marta E. Altisent, 2008 The Spanish novel in a turbulent century This collection of studies by eighteen prominent theorists and critics offers a diverse panorama of the modern Spanish novel seen through the prism of Spain's recent political cultural and ideological history It considers the development of the novel as a social mirror and as a changing literary form torn between the tradition of stern realism and the aesthetics of rupture affecting all Western literature from the Avant Garde to the Postmodern age While some essays emphasise the Spanish cultural context and canonical writers others are of a broader nature grouping lesser known writers under certain literary tendencies the metaphysical novel the urban novel recuperative accounts of the Civil War feminine first person narrations and the rise of the popular detective historical and erotic novels Three studies address the resurgence of the Catalan Basque and Galician novel and their departure from a poetics of identity to one of global concerns Interdisciplinary approaches address the reciprocal impacts of literature and cinema and the effects of the marketplace on the consumption of fiction are not forgotten The Companion provides ample bibliographies and a valuable chronology while all titles and quotations are translated into English Contributors Marta E Altisent Katarzyna Olga Beilin Ramón Buckley Jos F Colmeiro Stacey Dolgin Casado Sebastiaan Faber David K Herzberger Carlos Alex Longhurst Kathleen N March Cristina Martínez Carazo Alfredo Martínez Expósito Nina L Molinaro Gonzalo Navajas Mari Jose Olaziregi Janet D Pérez Randolph D Pope Josep Miquel Sobrer H Rosi Song

Spanish Queer Cinema Chris Perriam, 2013-01-03 Since the Catalan government passed the first of Spain's regional governmental laws on same sex partnership in 1998 lesbian gay bisexual transsexual and queer culture in Spain has thrived

Spanish Queer Cinema assesses the impact of this significant c Gay Histories and Cultures George E. Haggerty, 2000 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Encyclopedia of Gay Histories and Cultures George Haggerty, 2013-11-05 First Published in 2000 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavors It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while opening up the academic profession to new scholarship and new ways of thinking A groundbreaking new approach While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written for and by a wide range of people Intended as a reference for students and scholars in all fields as well as for the general public the encyclopedia is written in user friendly language At the same time it maintains a high level of scholarship that incorporates both passion and objectivity It is written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new scholars whose research continues to advance gender studies into the future

Catalan Review , 2009 Historical Dictionary of the Catalans Helena Buffery, Elisenda Marcer, 2010-12-18 In this reference Buffery and Marcer cover all of the areas historically inhabited by the Catalan people These are in order of size and population Catalonia which accounts for over half of the population of the Catalan speaking areas Valencia with over a third the Balearic Islands with just under 8 percent and the Catalunya Nord the Principality of Andorra and the Catalan speaking areas within Aragon Murcia and Alghero The Historical Dictionary of the Catalans deals not only with the people who live in Catalonia but with the language and culture of the Catalan countries as well This is done through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 600 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places events institutions and aspects of culture society economy and politics Hindsight and the Real David Vilaseca, 2003 Hindsight and the Real Subjectivity in Gay Hispanic Autobiography studies the representations of self and the discursive constitution of identity in the autobiographical works by several mostly gay identified authors in modern Spanish Catalan and Latin American literature These include among others Reinaldo Arenas s Antes que anochezca 1992 Juan Goytisolo s Coto vedado 1985 and En los reinos de taifa 1986 Jaime Gil de Biedma s Retrato del artista en 1956 1994 and Salvador Dal s Un diari 1919 1920 1994 The book contains a series of case studies linked to a recurring central argument Drawing on a wide range of contemporary critics and philosophers including among others Slavoj Zizek Ernesto Laclau Homi Bhabha and Emmanuel Levinas it proposes a notion of identity and homo sexuality which is neither essentialist nor merely positional discursive Thus while attempting to show in post structuralist fashion that gay Spanish and Latin American self representations are retroactive constructs invariably inflected by political and discursive factors such as nationality race and class the book also stresses the role of the Real the kernel of pre discursive substance which according to Lacan and his followers both precedes and exceeds the symbolic order

Globalized Queerness Helton Levy, 2023-10-19 Has a global queer popular culture emerged at the expense of local queer artists In this book Helton Levy argues that global queer culture is indebted to specific local references that artists carry from their early experiences in life which then become homogenized by contemporary media markets The assumption that queer publics live and consume only through a global set of references including gay parades and rainbow flags for example erases many personal complexities Levy revisits media characters that have caught the attention of the broader public such as Calamity Jane 1953 the Daffyd Thomas character from the BBC comedy Little Britain 2003 2007 Brazilian drag queen Pabblo Vittar French singer Christine and the Queens and the Italian Egyptian rapper Mahmood and argues that they have gradually blended in the public s perception This has often obscured the individual struggles faced by these characters such as immigration homophobia poverty and societal exclusion Levy also questions what happens when global media flows take queer culture to regions wherein the notion of LGBTQ rights are not entirely acceptable Utilizing insights from media reports published across the world s ten biggest media markets Levy argues that there are a series of conditions which artists and cultural actors negotiate once they achieve any kind of success in mainstream media while local queer references remain unseen in the wider media world For that reason he argues for stronger incentives for communities to accept and acknowledge the work of queer people before and after commoditization

New Spain, New Literatures Luis Martín-Estudillo, Nicholas Spadaccini, 2010 This volume which includes essays on Catalonia the Basque country Galicia and literature written by African immigrants focuses on issues of difference that are at the center of current debates in Spain and elsewhere the emergence of minoritized literatures multilingualism and identity new relationships between culture and institutions the negotiation of historical memories the connections between migrations and the redefinition of nationhood and the impact of global trends on local symbolic systems

Reading Iberia Stuart Davis, 2007 This book is an edited volume of eleven specially commissioned essays by a range of established and emerging UK based Hispanists which assess recent developments in the disciplines falling under the umbrella of Iberian Studies These essays which cover a wide range of time periods and geographical areas but are united by the common question of what it means to Read Iberia offer an invigorating critique of many of the critical assumptions shaping the study of Iberian languages and literatures This volume offers a timely intervention into the debate about the current repositioning of language literature disciplines within the UK university Its intellectual starting point is the need for a committed and incisive re evaluation of the role of literature and the way we teach and research it The contributors address this issue from a diverse range of linguistic cultural and theoretical backgrounds drawing on both familiar and not so familiar texts and authors to question common reference points and critical assumptions The volume offers not only a new and invigorating space for reimagining Iberian Studies from within but also through its commitment to interdisciplinary debate an opportunity to raise the profile of Iberian Studies outside the community of academic Hispanists French and Spanish Queer Film

Chris Perriam, 2016-06-02 The book advances the current state of film audience research and of our knowledge of sexuality in transnational contexts by analysing how French LGBTQ films are seen in Spain and Spanish ones in France It studies films in various media and platforms and their reception across four languages Spanish French Catalan English and considers and engages with participants from across a range of digital and physical audience locations with a particular focus on festivals It examines films that chronicle the local in portraying national and sub national identities and draws on the regional global translating and transferring foreign models of non heterosexual experience No comparative and crosscutting study with audience research at its heart has yet been undertaken
