Another Kind Of War Story:

A Different Kind of War Story Carolyn Nordstrom, 1997-10-14 A deeply researched study into the nature of political A Different Kind of War Story Edward M. Arnett, 2012-05-03 Summary of A Different kind of War Story a violence Quaker conscientious objector in WWII The book carries the writer through his experiences in WWII as a draftee into Civilian Public Service CPS the official structure for handling conscientious objectors COs Among his various assignments to CPS camps and projects are that to the Forest Service Smokejumper unit where he parachuted into remote areas of the Rockies to put out small forest fires before they become big Also of special interest is his description of transferring 1 200 wild horses on a cargo ship to Poland as aid for reestablishing Polish agriculture and some observations on Poland under the Soviet occupation during the early years of the cold war Another Kind of War John A. Lynn, 2019-07-23 An accessible and comprehensive history of terrorism from ancient times to the present In the years since 9 11 there has been a massive surge in interest surrounding the study of terrorism This volume applies distinguished military historian John Lynn s lifetime of research and teaching experience to this difficult topic As a form of violence that implies the threat of future violence terrorism breeds insecurity vulnerability and a desire for retribution that has far reaching consequences Lynn distinguishes between the paralyzing effect of fear and the potentially dangerous and chaotic effects of moral outrage and righteous retaliation guiding counterterrorism efforts In this accessible and comprehensive text Lynn traces the evolution of terrorism over time exposing its constants and contrasts In doing so he contextualizes this violence and argues that a knowledge of the history and nature of terrorism can temper its psychological effects and can help us more accurately and carefully assess threats as well as develop informed and measured responses The Better Story Dina Georgis, 2013-03-01 Illuminates the emotional significance of stories in response to racial traumas related to the Middle East Women's War Stories Michelle Hartman, Malek Abisaab, 2022-09-09 Women have consistently been left out of the official writing of Lebanese history and nowhere is this more obvious than in writing on the Lebanese Civil War As more and more histories of the war begin to circulate few include any in depth discussion of the multiple roles women played in wartime Lebanon Fewer still address the essential issues of women's work and their creative production such as literature performance art and filmmaking Developed out of a larger oral history project collecting and archiving the ways in which women narrated their experiences of the Lebanese Civil War this book focuses on a wide range of subjects all framed as women telling their war stories Each of the six chapters centers on women who worked or created art during the war revealing in their own words the challenges struggles and resistance they faced during this tumultuous period of Lebanese history North Country Mary Lethert Wingerd, 2010 In 1862 four years after Minnesota was ratified as the thirty second state in the Union simmering tensions between indigenous Dakota and white settlers culminated in the violent six week long U S Dakota War Hundreds of lives were lost on both sides and the war ended with the execution of thirty eight Dakotas on December 26 1862 in Mankato

Minnesota the largest mass execution in American history The following April after suffering a long internment at Fort Snelling the Dakota and Winnebago peoples were forcefully removed to South Dakota precipitating the near destruction of the area's native communities while simultaneously laying the foundation for what we know and recognize today as Minnesota In North Country The Making of Minnesota Mary Lethert Wingerd unlocks the complex origins of the state origins that have often been ignored in favor of legend and a far more benign narrative of immigration settlement and cultural exchange Moving from the earliest years of contact between Europeans and the indigenous peoples of the western Great Lakes region to the era of French and British influence during the fur trade and beyond Wingerd charts how for two centuries prior to official statehood Native people and Europeans in the region maintained a hesitant largely cobeneficial relationship Founded on intermarriage kinship and trade between the two parties this racially hybridized society was a meeting point for cultural and economic exchange until the western expansion of American capitalism and violation of treaties by the U S government during the 1850s were sharply at this tremulous bond ultimately leading to what Wingerd calls Minnesota's Civil War A cornerstone text in the chronicle of Minnesota's history Wingerd's narrative is augmented by more than 170 illustrations chosen and described by Kirsten Delegard in comprehensive captions that depict the fascinating often haunting representations of the region and its inhabitants over two and a half centuries North Country is the unflinching account of how the land the Dakota named Mini Sota Makoce became the State of Minnesota and of the people who have called it at one time or another home How People Respond to Violence Monica Carrer, 2022-09-19 This book explores the powerful role of ordinary people's agency in times of violent conflict Drawing on extensive fieldwork and a Critical Discourse Analysis the author draws out the motivations drivers and strategies at individual and community levels With a focus on people s own voices this research highlights rich findings showing a wide range of experiences and actions that people engaged in during the violent conflict and dimensions that are often missed in dominant explanations of violent conflict Therefore while looking at peace and conflict from an everyday perspective the question of power and the meaning of peace knowledge become central This monograph addresses the power of people's agency not only in shaping the politics and dynamics of violence but also in redefining what peace and change ought to look like Essential reading for researchers and students of Peace and Conflict Studies and also International Relations Security Studies Resistance Studies Anthropology The Wars We Took to Vietnam Milton J. Bates, 2023-09-01 What Americans refer to as Politics International Development the Vietnam War embraces much more than the conflict with North Vietnam Milton I Bates considers the other conflicts that Americans brought to that war the divisions stemming from differences in race class sex generation and frontier ideology In exploring the rich vein of writing and film that emerged from the Vietnam War era he strikingly illuminates how these stories reflect American social crises of the period Some material examined here is familiar including the work of Michael Herr Tim O Brien Philip Caputo Susan Sontag Francis Ford Coppola and Oliver Stone Other material is less well known Neverlight by

Donald Pfarrer and De Mojo Blues by A R Flowers for example Bates also draws upon an impressive range of secondary readings from Freud and Marx to Geertz and Jameson As the products of a culture in conflict Vietnam memoirs novels films plays and poems embody a range of political perspectives not only in their content but also in their structure and rhetoric In his final chapter Bates outlines a politico poetics of the war story as a genre Here he gives special attention to our motives from the deeply personal to the broadly cultural for telling war stories What Americans refer to as the Vietnam War embraces much more than the conflict with North Vietnam Milton J Bates considers the other conflicts that Americans brought to that Women Claim Islam Miriam Cooke, 2004-11-23 war the divisions stemming from differences in race class sex generation This provocative collection addresses the ways in which Arab women writers are using Islam to empower themselves and theorizes the conditions that have made the appearance of these new voices possible How to Revise a True War Story John K. Young, 2017-01-15 You can tell a true war story if you just keep on telling it Tim O Brien writes in The Things They Carried Widely regarded as the most important novelist to come out of the American war in Viet Nam O Brien has kept on telling true war stories not only in narratives that cycle through multiple fictional and non fictional versions of the war s defining experiences but also by rewriting those stories again and again Key moments of revision extend from early drafts to the initial appearance of selected chapters in magazines across typescripts and page proofs for first editions and through continuing post publication variants in reprints How to Revise a True War Story is the first book length study of O Brien s archival papers at the University of Texas s Harry Ransom Center Drawing on extensive study of drafts and other prepublication materials as well as the multiple published versions of O Brien's works John K Young tells the untold stories behind the production of such key texts as Going After Cacciato The Things They Carried and In the Lake of the Woods By reading not just the texts that have been published but also the versions they could have been Young demonstrates the important choices O Brien and his editors have made about how to represent the traumas of the war in Viet Nam The result is a series of texts that refuse to settle into a finished or stable form just as the stories they present insist on being told and retold in new and changing ways In their lack of textual stability these variants across different versions enact for O Brien s readers the kinds of narrative volatility that is key to the American literature emerging from the war in Viet Nam Perhaps in this case you can tell a true war story if you just keep on revising it Researching Perpetrators of Genocide Kjell Anderson, Erin Jessee, 2020-12-15 Researchers often face significant and unique ethical and methodological challenges when conducting qualitative field work among people who have been identified as perpetrators of genocide This can include overcoming biases that often accompany research on perpetrators conceptualizing identifying and recruiting research subjects risk mitigation and negotiating access in difficult contexts self care in conducting interviews relating to extreme violence and minimizing harm for interviewees who may themselves be traumatized This collection of case studies by scholars from a range of disciplinary backgrounds turns a critical and reflective eye toward qualitative fieldwork on the topic

Framed by an introduction that sets out key issues in perpetrator research and a conclusion that proposes and outlines a code of best practice the volume provides an essential starting point for future research while advancing genocide studies transitional justice and related fields This original important and welcome contribution will be of value to historians political scientists criminologists anthropologists lawyers and legal scholars Female Terrorism and Militancy Cindy D. Ness, 2007-12-11 This edited volume provides a window on the many forces that structure and shape why women and girls participate in terrorism and militancy as well as on how states have come to view treat and strategize against them Females who carry out terrorist acts have historically been seen as mounting a challenge to the social order by violating conventional notions of gender and power and their participation in such acts has tended to be viewed as being either as a passive victim or a feminist warrior This volume seeks to move beyond these portrayals to examine some of the structuring conditions that play a part in a girl or woman's decision to commit violence Amidst the contextual factors informing her involvement the volume seeks also to explore the political agency of the female terrorist or militant Several of the articles are based on research where authors had direct contact with female terrorists or militants who committed acts of political violence or with witnesses to such acts Sarajevo Under Siege Ivana Maček, 2009 A richly detailed account of the lived experiences of ordinary people in this multicultural city between 1992 and 1996 during the war in the former Yugoslavia Exploring how civilians coped with desperate circumstances it argues that ethnonational divisions were the result rather than the cause of American Foreign Policy & Its' Link to Terrorism in the Middle East Khalil T. Azar, 2011-07-08 This book is a study that explores how American foreign policy is linked to the development of terrorism in the Middle East mainly using the Palestine Israel conflict as a case study It discusses questions that consider how American foreign policy in the Middle East is managed What values and what political systems produce this policy Who influences this policy What is the relationship between the countries in the Middle East especially Palestine and Israel to America This book will specifically focus on how American foreign policy was influenced by American presidents from Woodrow Wilson to George Bush II

Non-Human Rights Alexis Alvarez-Nakagawa, Costas Douzinas, 2024-04-12 Non human entities including animals mountains rainforests eco systems AI and robots are beginning to be considered the subjects of rights in different parts of the world This innovative book provides a critical outlook on this emerging trend at the crossroad of two of the main concerns of the 21st century climate change and automation

Touching Art Maria Emília Fonseca, 2011-01-18 This study focusses on the exhibition of the Tree of Life a sculpture made in Mozambique of decommissioned dismantled weapons created to celebrate peace and commissioned by the British Museum chosen to be the symbol of the Africa 2005 season of cultural events and exhibited in its Great Court between February and October 2005 This artwork was first exhibited in Maputo before being dispatched to Britain and it is presently on display at the Sainsbury African Galleries of the British Museum in London This dissertation moves along two converging routes the articulation of the meaning s produced within the exhibition and the role of exhibitionary institutions in the creation of social knowledge A central topic of discussion is the different practices and sites of exhibition of the Tree of Life sculpture in Britain and in Mozambique in an endeavour to illustrate establish the differences which determine and or condition the specific approaches used in the two distinct cultural contexts within which it was exhibited The discussion evolves towards exploring how a new discourse on the exhibition of contemporary African art questions and challenges both curatorial practices and cultural concepts of collecting displaying and interpreting art objects and negotiating meaning Military Review ,1988-07 The Routledge Companion to Native American Literature Deborah L. Madsen, 2015-10-05 The Routledge Companion to Native American Literature engages the multiple scenes of tension historical political cultural and aesthetic that constitutes a problematic legacy in terms of community identity ethnicity gender and sexuality language and sovereignty in the study of Native American literature This important and timely addition to the field provides context for issues that enter into Native American literary texts through allusions references and language use The volume presents over forty essays by leading and emerging international scholars and analyses regional cultural racial and sexual identities in Native American literature key historical moments from the earliest period of colonial contact to the present worldviews in relation to issues such as health spirituality animals and physical environments traditions of cultural creation that are key to understanding the styles allusions and language of Native American Literature the impact of differing literary forms of Native American literature This collection provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field It supports academic study and also assists general readers who require a comprehensive yet manageable introduction to the contexts essential to approaching Native American Literature It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past present and future of this literary culture Contributors Joseph Bauerkemper Susan Bernardin Susan Berry Brill de Ram rez Kirby Brown David I Carlson Cari M Carpenter Eric Cheyfitz Tova Cooper Alicia Cox Birgit D wes Janet Fiskio Earl E Fitz John Gamber Kathryn N Gray Sarah Henzi Susannah Hopson Hsinya Huang Brian K Hudson Bruce E Johansen Judit gnes K d r Amelia V Katanski Susan Kollin Chris LaLonde A Robert Lee Iping Liang Drew Lopenzina Brandy N lani McDougall Deborah Madsen Diveena Seshetta Marcus Sabine N Meyer Carol Miller David L Moore Birgit Brander Rasmussen Mark Rifkin Kenneth M Roemer Oliver Scheiding Lee Schweninger Stephanie A Sellers Kathryn W Shanley Leah Sneider David Stirrup Theodore C Van Alst Jr Tammy Wahpeconiah Repossessing the World Helen M. Buss, 2006-01-01 Why does it seem as if everyone is writing memoirs and particularly women The current popularity of memoir verifies the common belief that we each have a story to tell And we do especially women Memoirs are not only representations of women's personal lives but also of their desire to repossess important parts of our culture in which women s stories have not mattered Beginning with her own motivations for writing memoirs Helen M Buss examines the many kinds of memoir written by contemporary women memoirs about growing up memoirs about traumatic events about relationships about work In writing memoirs these women publicly assert that their lives have mattered They reshape the memoir a form as old as the middle ages and as young as today into a social discourse that blends the personal with the political the self with the significant other literature with history and fiction with autobiography and essay Buss urges readers to use their reading experience to help themselves understand and write the significance of their own lives Repossessing the World is the first book length critical inquiry into women s use of a form that has often been dismissed as less important than autobiography less professional than the novel and less intellectual than the formal essay Buss demonstrates that the memoir makes its own art not only through selective borrowing from these genres but also through the unique way that the tripartite narrative voice of the memoir constructs the personal and public experience of the memorist as significant to our cultural Dueling Grounds Mary Jo Lodge, Paul R. Laird, 2021 Hamilton opened on Broadway in 2015 and quickly became one of the hottest tickets the industry has ever seen Lin Manuel Miranda who wrote the book lyrics and music and created the title role adapted the show from Ron Chernow's biography Alexander Hamilton Although it seems an unlikely source for a Broadway musical Miranda found a liminal space where the life that Hamilton led and the issues that he confronted came alive more than two centuries later while also commenting on contemporary life in the United States and how we view our nation's history With a score largely based on rap and drawing on other aspects of hip hop culture and staged with actors of color playing the white Founding Fathers Hamilton has much to say about race in the United States today and in our past but at the same time it leaves important things insufficiently explained such as the role of women and people of color in Hamilton s time Dueling Grounds Revolution and Revelation in the Musical Hamilton is a volume that combines the work of theater scholars and practitioners musicologists and scholars in such fields as ethnomusicology history gender studies and economics in a multi faceted approach to the show s varied uses of liminality looking at its creation casting philosophy dance and movement costuming staging direction lyrics music marketing and how aspects of race gender and class fit into the show and its production Demonstrating that there is much to celebrate as well as challenging issues to confront concerning Hamilton Dueling Grounds is an uncompromising look at one of the most important musicals of the century
