Another Kind Of Writer 1946:

MADISON AVENUE, OHIO, 1970- Wallace J. Gordon, 2010-06-04 All the best ads and commercials are written in high powered advertising agencies in New York City right In fancy offices perched high on the gleaming towers of Manhattan right By mythical creatures just returning from three martini lunches right Wrong wrong wrong And once more just for good measure Once upon a time I was fired Again I d been writing ads for agencies in Chicago Detroit Minneapolis and New York For almost twenty years Then one day I found myself writing them in the sometimes sleepy sometimes far from sleepy little city of Marion Ohio How I got there what I did there and all the rest of it makes a rather interesting story At least to me Although Gertrude Stein famously said There s no there there don t believe it for a minute She sure wasn t talking about Marion Ohio Read on gentle reader read on The Grant Years, 1958 - Wallace J. Gordon, 2006-06-29 November 1958 A sunny day and I was feeling pretty good about things I d been writing ads and commercials in Chicago for over eight years and found it both rewarding and satisfying Heck I d only been fired once Even that wasn t all that horrible my boss offered to cancel the firing but I told him to forget it Who wants to work for a guy who s just fired you So that day I was on my way to my new job at Grant Advertising Good job good agency Things looked terrific But how was I to know that in a year I d be transferred to the Detroit office to work on the big Dodge account And how was I to know we d lose the account within days and transfer me to the New York office And how was I to know that New York would be fun for a while and then a pain in the neck And how was I to know Well you get the idea And I hope you enjoy coming along Madison Avenue South, 1964- Wallace J. Gordon, 2009-01-15 Put yourself in my shoes You re an advertising copywriter in the days when advertising was if not king at least somewhere close by in the royal court You ve got thirteen years of good work with good agencies behind you and the same wife you fell in love with twelve years ago Plus three young sons with healthy appetites To say nothing of a mortgage to match So what s the problem Three problems 1 I was fired several months ago 2 I m thirty nine 3 and the industry calls me over qualified That s shorthand for too old At 39 Ye gods Ah but all isn t lost Eventually due to luck an accident of timing and the intercession of various saints plus the fact that I m pretty good at what I do I ve just landed a fantastic new job With one of the biggest agencies in the business Writing ads for Coca Cola the best known brand around With good money nice title promising future the works Wonderful right Right Except that all that good news was going to give birth to headaches the size of which I could only imagine Another Kind of Writer, 1946 Wallace J. Gordon, 2003-04-24 Where do writers come from and how do they get that way Good question With a lot of answers Wallace J Gordon has been writing for a living for something like forever fifty five years and counting and after piling up mountains of rejection slips for short stories and a novel he made a successful and satisfying detour into the advertising business writing ads and commercials for clients ranging from Coca Cola and Dodge to the neighborhood bank One Day in Paris... Wallace J. Gordon, 2005-07-21 Conventional wisdom said it could never happen For starters he was from Arizona and she was from Pennsylvania Almost a whole continent apart And he was a widower and she was a widow With 42 and 47 years respectively of happy marriage behind them And if that wasn't enough he was a young 75 and she was a lovely 69 old enough to know better one might say Then one day they boarded a plane for They noticed each other but didn't meet When the plane landed they ended up in the same hotel Arranged by the same tour group But both so engrossed in Paris they still didn't see each other Then it happened On the third day their group gathered for an introductory meeting and dinner They ended up sitting across from each other He said Hi She said Hello And the sparks began to fly That's when the love story that couldn't happen began to happen

Battling the Plantation Mentality Laurie B. Green, 2009-12-08 African American freedom is often defined in terms of emancipation and civil rights legislation but it did not arrive with the stroke of a pen or the rap of a gavel No single event makes this more plain Laurie Green argues than the 1968 Memphis sanitation workers strike which culminated in the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr Exploring the notion of freedom in postwar Memphis Green demonstrates that the civil rights movement was battling an ongoing plantation mentality based on race gender and power that permeated southern culture long before and even after the groundbreaking legislation of the mid 1960s With its slogan I AM a Man the Memphis strike provides a clarion example of how the movement fought for a black freedom that consisted of not only constitutional rights but also social and human rights As the sharecropping system crumbled and migrants streamed to the cities during and after World War II the struggle for black freedom touched all aspects of daily life Green traces the movement to new locations from protests against police brutality and racist movie censorship policies to innovations in mass culture such as black oriented radio stations Incorporating scores of oral histories Green demonstrates that the interplay of politics culture and consciousness is critical to truly understanding freedom and the black struggle for it
