Another Way Of Seeing

Frederick Hovenden

Another Way Of Seeing:

Another Way of Seeing Peter Gabel, 2013-10-11 In ANOTHER WAY OF SEEING Peter Gabel argues that our most fundamental spiritual need as human beings is the desire for authentic mutual recognition. Because we live in a world in which this desire is systematically denied due to the legacy of fear of the other that has been passed on from generation to generation, we exist as what he calls withdrawn selves, perceiving the other as a threat rather than as the source of our completion as social beings. Calling for a new kind of spiritual activism that speaks to this universal interpersonal longing, Gabel shows how we can transform law, politics, public policy, and culture so as to build a new social movement through which we become more fully present to each other, creating a new parallel universe existing alongside our socially separated world and reaffirming the social bond that inherently unites us. Peter Gabel is one of the grand prophetic voices in our day. He also is a long distance runner in the struggle for justice. Don't miss this book. Cornel West, The Class of 1943, Professor, Princeton University and Professor of Philosophy and Christian Practice, Union Theological Seminary. Replete with wise insights that reward readers with Another Way of Seeing toward their pursuit of compassion, community, and a better world. Law professor, activist, and philosopher Peter Gabel's excellent essay collection elaborates upon the meaning of Martin Luther King Jr.'s expression "Justice is love correcting that which revolts against love." No matter what your expertise, Gabel's thoughts are pertinent to fulfillment of your human possibilities. Ralph Nader, Washington DC.

Another Way of Seeing Louise A. Poresky, 2005-06 A Course in Miracles contains a program of study whose completion promises inner peace. Its curriculum is designed to rid us of fear and return us to love. Its three volumes amount to a massive 1200 plus pages of theory and practice. Students of the Course find the Text, the volume in which the Course's philosophy is laid out across a vast and tortuous terrain of theory, particularly difficult to navigate. Another Way of Seeing guides you across that terrain by identifying the basic tenets of the Course. Devoting each chapter to one basic teaching, Another Way of Seeing explains the Course in clear and simple terms. It then does what no other book on the Course has done so far: it illustrates the Course at work. Each chapter concludes with a discussion of a piece of classical literature that shows the principles of the Course put into practice. Dr. Poresky, a literary scholar and professor, brings her appreciation and knowledge of A Course in Miracles together with her conviction that literature teaches us about ourselves and our relationships with others, and by combining the two, she shows you another way of seeing.

There Must Be Another Way Ray Comeau, Ph. D., 2008-07-22 This collection of twenty essays based on deeply felt personal experiences of reading the Lessons and the Text of A Course in Miracles demonstrates the transformation from the limited conceptual egoic self identity to the limitless Self created by God, seeing with the vision of Christ. This transformation is simply a shift from one state of mind to another, from the self identity state to the state of mind of the Self. The gap is bridged by the Holy Spirit when you ask for help, realizing you can't, He can, and He will, and He does. Throughout the book, this transformation is expressed in reference to poetry, paintings, passages from the New Testament.

Sharing Democracy Michael L. Ferguson, 2012-10-18 Democratic theorists frequently assume that the people must have something in common or else democracy will fail This produces an ironically anti democratic tendency to emphasize the passive possession of commonality Sharing Democracy counters this tendency with a radical vision of democracy grounded instead in the active exercise of political freedom Perceiving, Sensing, and Knowing Robert J. The Gospel of the Kingdom in 21st-Century America Mark F. Williams, 2022-07-06 In His parables Jesus referred to the Gospel as seed and in so doing sought to present features of this good news and the manner in which it needed to be received The seedbed of course is the human heart People need to hear the message of the Christ and embrace it by faith and in so doing allow it to grow within their soul letting it become an informing influence in their lives Yet this seedbed already has vegetation growing within it From infancy we're taught how to get along in this world in which we live how to understand our surroundings how to avoid harm how to make our way into adulthood and benefit from our various activities Our existence is defined through our interaction with other people our families and our communities teach us how to understand the world around us We learn what is considered good and what is considered bad In complex societies basic values may be contested but even in this complexity there are certain fundamental beliefs that are embraced by most members of a particular society All these features pertaining to our surroundings are referred to as culture The culture works to define us and all who are part of our culture are defined in similar ways When the Gospel is presented within any culture it may share some common elements within that seedbed but it will also invariably conflict with that culture because at its core it is unique And its uniqueness will work to challenge the people within that culture to choose the Gospel over what they have absorbed from their surroundings The focus of this discussion is to consider how the good news the Gospel is understood and embraced in American culture today in the twenty first century and to investigate how it may be being distorted or its power diminished by some of the ideas that are prevalent in today s society
