Antaeus No 53:

Narratives of Power in the Ancient World Urška Furlan, Thomas Alexander Husøy, Henry Bohun, 2022-09-30 This volume showcases ways of displaying power in the Ancient world from Egypt's 18th Dynasty encompassing ancient Greece until the Sassanian Empire. It looks at how power was understood as the ability to influence others or events. This premise is applied to the Ancient world analysing a variety of evidence and narratives from this period. The contributors explore the topic through themes such as art, mythology, literature, archaeology, and identity. Susan Sontag Leland Poague, Kathy A. Parsons, 2021-12-12 Susan Sontag An Annotated Bibliography catalogues the works of one of America's most prolific and important 20th century authors. Known for her philosophical writings on American culture, topics left untouched by Sontag's writings are few and far between. This volume is an exhaustive collection that includes her novels, essays, reviews, films, and interviews. Each entry is accompanied by an annotated bibliography. Platonic Scripts Donald Justice, 1984 The Ground of Our Beseeching Peter Sharpe, 2004 The Ground of Our Beseeching Metaphor and the Poetics of Meditation describes the signature styles of meditation in three American poets and shows how each generated language out of spiritual yearning. The author's inquiry in this area grew out of an interest in the interplay of creativity, language, and religion, and a need to know as both critic and practicing poet how metaphor arises particularly in the context of poetry which harkens after the sacred. How far in other words has metaphor taken some of our central poets T. S. Eliot, Wallace Stevens, and Theodore Roethke in matters of belief? No other critique of American poetry prior to this study has systematically linked the idea of the sacred with the practice of metaphor. Nor has a compelling case been made until now for viewing meditation as a style of thinking close to prayer as the source or ground of these poets. In a sense, this is the opposite of the question from which work on motivation began and for which Claude Bernard invented the concept of the fixity of the internal milieu. How does an animal maintain constancy in the face of a fluctuating environment? Dealing with motivation has become extremely complex as new experiments, phenomena, and theories have extended the concept This book embodies some of the ways in which work on motivation is currently proceeding One of the major changes has been the recognition that motivation cannot be explained without an understanding of the biological rhythms and activational systems that underlie behavior Another is that ecological and evolutionary perspectives add enormously to answering the central problem of why an animal does what it does when it does The book suffers from several omissions There is no chapter on the development of motivated behavior There is none on reward systems in the brain owing to the untimely death of James Olds whose contribution would have enriched this book appreciably and to whom we dedicate it EVELYN SATINOFF PHILIP TEITELBAUM VII Contents PART I UNDERLYING ACTIVATIONAL SYSTEMS CHAPTER 1 Motivation Biological Clocks and Temporal Organization of Behavior 3 Irving Zucker Reactivity to External Stimuli 6 Reactivity to Interoceptive Stimuli 7 Sources of Biological Rhythmicity 9 Rhythm Generation 9 Rhythm Synchronization 10 Consequences of Rhythm Desynchronization 11
