La memoria frente al poder Jacobo Machover Ajzenfich, 2013-10-31 La literatura cubana del exilio en un principio rechazada por la crítica y por los ambientes universitarios más por razones políticas que intelectuales o académicas ha acabado por ocupar el lugar que le corresponde. A través de la obra y del itinerario vital de tres escritores exiliados Guillermo Cabrera Infante, Severo Sarduy y Reinaldo Arenas se afirma la especificidad de esta literatura su relación con lo que se escribía en la isla así como sus diferencias respecto a las otras expresiones literarias de la diáspora latinoamericana.

Homosexuality and Invisibility in Revolutionary Cuba María Encarnación Martín López, 2015 Offers alternative insights into the complex relationship between politics and intelligentsia in revolutionary Cuba. Reading and Writing the Ambiente Susana Chávez-Silverman, Librada Hernández, 2000 In this dynamic collection of essays many leading literary scholars trace gay and lesbian themes in Latin American Hispanic and U.S. Latino literary and cultural texts. Reading and Writing the Ambiente is consciously ambitious and far ranging historically as well as geographically. It includes discussions of texts from as early as the seventeenth century to writings of the late twentieth century. Reading and Writing the Ambiente also underscores the ways in which lesbian and gay self representation in Hispanic texts differs from representations in Anglo American texts. The contributors demonstrate that unlike the emphasis on the individual in Anglo American sexual identity Latino Spanish and Latin American sexual identity is produced in the surrounding culture and community in the ambiente. As one of the first collections of its kind Reading and Writing the Ambiente is expressive of the next wave of gay Hispanic and Latin scholarship. Antonio Benítez Rojo María Rita Corticelli, 2013 The author of short stories novels and essays Benítez Rojo is an atypical intellectual in the panorama of Cuban exile because he offers an original perspective of the past present and future conflicts of this troubled and complex area. This literary biography tells of his journey from his emergence in the Cuban intellectual world in 1967 to his death in Amherst Massachusetts in 2005. Nuevos mundos Ana Roca, 2011-12-06 This book develops the communication and literacy skills of heritage Spanish speakers with exercises that are designed to improve oral and written proficiency in the language. Nuevos mundos uses the cultures and voices of the major Hispanic groups in the United States as well as those of Latin America and Spain to familiarize students with a variety of issues and topics which are sometimes controversial and always thought provoking. Diálogo: an Interdisciplinary Studies Journal, 2004 Latin American Documentary Filmmaking David William Foster, 2013-05-02 Latin American Documentary Filmmaking is the first volume written in English to examine themes in major works of Latin American documentary films. Foster looks at the major ideological issues raised and the approaches to Latin American social and political history taken by key documentary films. Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Gay Cuban Nation Emilio Bejel, 2001-09 With Gay Cuban Nation Emilio Bejel looks at Cuba's markedly homoerotic culture through writings about homosexuality placing them in the social and political contexts that led up to the Cuban Revolution By reading against the grain of a wide variety of novels short stories autobiographies newspaper articles and films he maps out a fascinating argument about the way in which nationalism and other institutions of power struggle for an authoritative stance on homosexual issues Through close readings of writers such as Jos Mart Ofelia Rodr guez Acosta Carlos Montenegro Jos Lezama Lima Severo Sarduy Achy Obejas Sonia Rivera Vald s and Reinaldo Arenas Gay Cuban Nation shows ultimately that the specter of homosexuality is always lurking in the shadows of nationalist discourse
