Josh O'Kane, 2016-04-01 Joel Plaskett has earned an awful lot of honourifics in his career so far counting folk hero indie darling and national treasure among them And that's just since the Halifax musician started making records of his own in 1999 For a decade before that he was one quarter of Thrush Hermit a band of scrappy Superchunk mimics who became hard rock revivalists and one of the last survivors of the 90s pop explosion of major label interest in Halifax Canada's east coast has never been much of a pop culture mecca Most musicians from the region who've ever made it big moved away But armed with a stubborn streak and a knack for great songwriting Plaskett has kept Halifax as his home building both a career and a music community there Along the way he's earned great respect when he plays shows in Alberta east coast expats literally thank him for staying home Nowhere With You is the study of how he pulled this off from the origins of Canada's east coast exodus to Plaskett's anointment as Halifax's Rick Rubin It's a story about what happens when you call a city the new Seattle about the lessons you learn playing to empty rooms in Oklahoma and about defying radio single expectations with rock operas and triple records It's about doing what you want where you want no matter how much work it takes A Band at Sea

with recommended websites      Anthem of a Reluctant Prophet Joanne Proulx, 2008-09-04 Luke Hunter thinks he's joking when he tells a good friend exactly when 8:37 the following morning and how hit by a red van from out of town that friend will die. But when events unfold as Luke foretold he wants none of it; he has enough problems being an average teenager without the added burden of seeing into the future, not to mention the ever after. Terrified but pretending not to be, Luke pushes his friends and family away while the local news crew, a Christian fundamentalist preacher, and a missing girl's frantic mother all draw nearer seeking to profit from Luke's new found gift. Written in clear, precise prose, Anthem of a Reluctant Prophet is a darkly comic coming of age novel with a difference. When Ed is killed in a confrontation with the Cleveland police, they're happy to close the case. But Lincoln is desperate to prove that whatever crimes his friend might have committed, he didn't set that house on fire and he didn't murder the woman whose body was found there. As Lincoln and his partner Joe Pritchard investigate, they uncover evidence about a string of arson attacks in Cleveland seventeen years ago, fires that begin to shed light on some old secrets. Now Lincoln and Joe are about to find out just how far those concerned will go to make sure those secrets stay buried.

A BAND AT SEA Before you say you're going to leave this band, before you say that playing covers is musical prostitution, before you say that every creative cell in your body has been destroyed by our 80s medley of Bros and A Ha songs, before you say you hate our choice of tunes so much that you're tempted to not listen to another piece of music ever again, before you say you'd rather be dead than play another 50th birthday party gig, don't forget this band is all you have. Alex, 41. He's lost his flat, his girlfriend, his parents, and his dignity. Still, at least he's got his bandmates, yes. Circular Breathing Ann McCutchan, 2011 In this collection of personal essays clarinetist Ann McCutchan uses the metaphor of circular breathing to animate her understanding of her own life as a woman musician and writer Circular breathing is a technique for wind instrument playing in which fresh air is drawn in through the nose at the same time that stored air in the lungs is released by mouth through the instrument The process allows the player to produce a continuous line of music without breaking the curve of a melody to inhale The questions McCutchan grapples with have universal implications For example how does one come to be called to a life's work For McCutchan who grew up in central Florida in the 1960s the call grew out of twin desires to exercise a physical voice and to develop an interior one Bringing both to fruition meant abandoning roles expected of young women in that time and place and learning to live ever after with the conflicting claims of art and life Questions of familial loss lie at the heart of this collection as well With a sure delicate hand McCutchan examines the impact of her parents untimely deaths her inability to bear children and the foundering of her two marriages Art may not deliver one from sorrow she discovers but it may console deeply Finally there are the questions that arise when one can no longer fulfill the physical demands of an art Can a musician trade in her instrument and a world that defined her for decades for something else Here McCutchan charts her journey from the stage to the page exploring the ways both worlds feed each other Ann McCutchan is the author of Marcel Moyse Voice of the Flute and The Muse That Sings Composers Speak About the Creative Process Her work has appeared in numerous literary journals and in The Best American Spiritual Writing She teaches creative writing at the University of North Texas France: The Dark Years, 1940-1944 is a girl who's not sure she can feel anything anymore because life sometimes hurts way too much. Her brother Barry ran away after having a fight with their father over the war in Vietnam. Now Barry's been drafted into that war and Molly's mother tells her she has to travel across the country in an old schoolbus to find Barry and bring him home. Norman is Molly's slightly older cousin who drives the old schoolbus. He's a drummer who wants to find his own music out in the world because then he might not be the normal Norman that he fears he's become. He's not sure about this trip across the country but his own mother makes it clear he doesn't have a choice. Molly and Norman get on the bus and end up seeing a lot more of America than they'd ever imagined. From protests and parades to roaring races and rock n roll, the cousins make their way to Barry in San Francisco not really knowing what they'll find when they get there. As she did in her other epic novels Countdown and Revolution, two-time National Book Award finalist Deborah Wiles takes the pulse of an era and finds the multitude of heartbeats that lie beneath it.      Wings above the Wind Joy Thomas, 2024-12-19 Resolute and independent Grace Murphy realises her husband's family whose lives were transformed by war and loss has a skewed perspective on love.
