Education in France, 1960 Francophone African Poetry and Drama Richard J. Gray II, 2014-09-17 Scholars examining literature from former French colonies sometimes view it wrongly as simply an outgrowth of colonial literature By suggesting new ways to understand the multiple voices present this book explores how Francophone African poetry and theatre in particular since the 1960s constitute both an organic cultural product and a reflection of the diverse African cultures in which they originate Themes explored in five chapters include the many kinds of African identity formation the resistance to former notions of literary composition as art a remapping of social responsibility and the impact of globalization on Francophone Africa s participation in world economics politics and culture This study highlights the inner workings of Francophone African literature and suggests a canonization of modern Francophone works from a world perspective

Poetic Images, Presence, and the Theater of Kenotic Rituals Enikő Sepsi, 2021-09-29 This book explores the interrelation of contemporary French theatre and poetry Using the pictorial turn in the various branches of art and science its observable features and the theoretical framework of the conceptual metaphor this study seeks to gather together the divergent manners in which French poetry and theatre address this turn Poetry in space and theatricality of poetry are studied alongside theatre especially to the performative aspect of the originally theological concept of kenosis In doing so the author attempts to make use of the theological concept of kenosis of central importance in Novarina s oeuvre for theatrical and dramaturgical purposes Within poetic rituals kenotic rituals are also examined in the book in a few theatrical practices J nos Pilinszky and Robert Wilson Jerzy Grotowski and Eugenio Barba facilitating a better understanding of Novarina s works Accompanied by new English translations in the appendices this is the first English language monograph related to the French essayist dramaturg and director Val re Novarina s theatre and will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and literature studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Music, Authorship, Narration, and Art Cinema in Europe Michael Baumgartner, Ewelina Boczkowska, 2022-12-30 Music Authorship Narration and Art Cinema in Europe 1940s to 1980s investigates the function of music in European cinema after the Second World War up to the fall of the Berlin wall a period when composers and directors embraced experimentation Through analyses of music and sound in a wide range of iconic films from across Europe the essays in this book provide a nuanced reconsideration of three core themes auteur theory art house film and national cinema Chapters written by an international array of contributors focus on case studies of music in the cinema of Carlos Saura Jean Pierre Melville the Polish School and Romanian directors as well as collaborations between directors and composers including Michelangelo Antonioni and Giovanni Fusco Federico Fellini and Nino Rota Leo Arnshtam and Dmitry Shostakovich and Peter Greenaway and Michael Nyman The contributors shift the emphasis from a director centered view to the working relationship between director and composer and from the visual component to the sonic aspects of these films without ignoring the close correlation between soundtrack and visual elements Enriching our understanding of the complex intertwined nature of authorship in film the role of film music and sound nation state and art cinema and European cinematic history this volume offers a valuable addition to research across music and film studies
