sophisticated literary form that evinces the period's aesthetic preference for the miniature the intricate and the fragmented Kathryn Gutzwiller offers the first full length literary study of these important poems by studying the epigrams within the context of the poetry books in which they were originally collected Drawing upon ancient sources as well as recent papyrological discoveries Gutzwiller reconstructs the nature of Hellenistic epigram books and interprets individual poems as if they remained part of their original collections This approach results in illuminating and original readings of many major poets and demonstrates that individual epigrammatists were differentiated by gender ethnicity class status and philosophical views In an important final chapter Gutzwiller reconstructs much of the poetic structure of Meleager's Garland an ancient anthology of Hellenistic epigrams Epigrams the briefest of Greek poetic forms had a strong appeal for readers of the Hellenistic period 323-31 B.C.
