An Anthology of Australian Fishing Eric Charles Rolls,1991 Eclectic selection of extracts from a variety of written sources photographs and reproductions of prints and paintings concerning fishing Compiled by the noted Australian poet and writer whose books include TA Million Wild Acres Australian national bibliography ,1961 Australia I. Kepars,1994 The behavior and sensory biology of elasmobranch fishes: an anthology in memory of Donald Richard Nelson Timothy C. Tricas,Samuel H. Gruber,2013-06-29 The elasmobranch fishes include the living sharks skates and rays that are important members of nearly all marine ecosystems Their large size secretive behavior and wide ranging habits make them difficult to observe in the field or to maintain in captivity Consequently little is known about their natural behavior and how it is mediated by their sensory systems This volume is dedicated to the scientific contributions and memory of Donald Nelson a pioneer in the study of shark behavior sensory biology and remote instrumentation The two opening papers review Don Nelson s unique scientific accomplishments and provide insight into his strong bias towards study of animals in the field These are followed by 14 scientific papers on elasmobranch behavior sensory biology and current monitoring technologies The papers on elasmobranch sensory biology and behavior address questions on hearing the lateral line electroreception the brain orientation behavior chemical irritants feeding and reproduction The latter section of the volume presents papers on conventional tagging techniques ultrasonic telemetry physiological telemetry remote monitoring techniques archival tagging and satellite tagging The intent of this volume is to familiarize both new and established scientists with the sensory biology and behavior of sharks and rays and to encourage further behavioral research on these animals in their natural environment

Natasha Stacey, 2007-06-01 Under a Memorandum of Understanding between Indonesia and Australia traditional Indonesian fishermen are permitted access to fish in a designated area inside the 200 nautical mile Australian Fishing Zone AFZ. However crew and vessels are regularly apprehended for illegal fishing activity outside the permitted areas and after prosecution in Australian courts their boats and equipment are destroyed and the fishermen repatriated to Indonesia. This is an ethnographic study of one group of Indonesian maritime people who operate in the AFZ. It concerns Bajo people who originate from villages in the Tukang Besi Islands Southeast Sulawesi. It explores the social cultural economic and historic conditions which underpin Bajo sailing and fishing voyages in the AFZ. It also examines issues concerning Australian maritime expansion and Australian government policies treatment and understanding of Bajo fishing. The study considers the concept of traditional fishing regulating access to the MOU area based on use of unchanging technology and consequences arising from adherence to such a view of traditional the effect of Australian maritime expansion on Bajo fishing activity the effectiveness of policy in providing for fishing rights and stopping illegal activity and why Bajo continue to fish in the AFZ despite a range of ongoing restrictions on their activity.
