dating An introduction by David Jaff curator of paintings at the Museum explores the collecting activities and tastes of J Paul Getty who founded the Museum and was responsible for its earliest acquisitions Afterlives of Ancient Rock-cut Monuments in the Near East Jonathan Ben-Dov, Felipe Rojas, 2021-09-27 This book concerns the ancient rock cut monuments carved throughout the Near East paying particular attention to the fate of these monuments in the centuries after their initial production As parts of the landscapes in which they were carved they acquired new meanings in the cultural memory of the people living around them The volume joins numerous recent studies on the reception of historical texts and artefacts exploring the peculiar affordances of these long lasting and often salient monuments The volume gathers articles by archeologists art historians and philologists covering the entire Near East from Iran to Lebanon and from Turkey to Egypt It also analyzes long lasting textual traditions that aim to explain the origins and meaning of rock cut monuments and other related carvings English Women, Religion, and Textual Production, 1500-1625 Micheline White, 2016-05-13 Contributing to the growing interest in early modern women and religion this essay collection advances scholarship by introducing readers to recently recovered or little studied texts and by offering new paradigms for the analysis of women s religious literary activities Contributors underscore the fact that women had complex multi dimensional relationships to the religio political order acting as activists for specific causes but also departing from confessional norms in creative ways and engaging in intra as well as extra confessional conflict The volume thus includes essays that reflect on the complex dynamics of religious culture itself and that illuminate the importance of women s engagement with Catholicism throughout the period The collection also highlights the vitality of neglected intertextual genres such as prayers meditations and translations and it focuses attention on diverse forms of textual production such as literary writing patronage epistolary exchanges public reading and epitaphs Collectively English Women Religion and Textual Production 1500 1625 offers a comprehensive treatment of the historical literary and methodological issues preoccupying scholars of women and religious writing The Ghost of Galileo J. L. Heilbron, 2021 Its appearance in a portrait of the young heir of Corfe Castle and his tutor forms the starting point for this lively stylish rendering by historian John Heilbron of the intellectual life of early Stuart England Deftly he brings together connections between England and Italy in the time of James I and Charles I religious and political machinations and conflicts arguments about cosmological systems art and culture Kings courtiers clerics astronomers and physicians Van Dyck Ben Jonson Inigo Jones a now almost forgotten artist a young man s fashionable melancholy and travels all figure in the backdrop to the painting Together they capture the intellectual and cultural landscape of the time while explaining the presence of a ghost of Galileo in rural Dorset Book jacket Leonardo Da Vinci Master Draftsman Leonardo (da Vinci), Rachel Stern, Alison Manges, 2003 This handsome book offers a unified and fascinating portrait of Leonardo as draftsman integrating his roles as artist scientist inventor theorist and teacher 250 illustrations The English Virtuoso Craig Ashley Hanson, 2009-05-15 This study aims to overturn 20th century criticism that cast the English virtuosi of the 17th and early 18th centuries as misguided dabblers arguing that they were erudite individuals with solid grounding in the classics deep appreciation for the arts and sincere curiosity about the natural world Printmakers of the Baroque Susan Dixon, 2014 The essays in this volume complement the recent exhibition of Printmakers of the Baroque 17th Century Explorations of Space and Light at La Salle University Art Museum during winter 2013 2014 Co curated by La Salle Associate Professor of Art History Dr Susan Dixon the exhibition also provided a foundation for a Baroque art history course taught in spring 2014 This catalogue includes essays and labels written by undergraduate students enrolled in the course along with reproductions of all 40 artworks included in the exhibition The Subject in Art Catherine M.

Soussloff, 2006-10-04 Argues that the modern subject did not emerge from psychoanalysis or existential philosophy but rather within early twentieth century Viennese portraiture Art Information and the Internet Lois Swan Jones, 2013-12-16 In the first book of its kind art information expert Lois Swan Jones discusses how to locate visual and textual information on the Internet and how to evaluate and supplement that information with material from other formats print sources CD ROMS documentary videos and microfiche sets to produce excellent research results The book is divided into three sections Basic Information Formats Types of Websites and How to Find Them and How to Use Web Information Jones discusses the strengths and limitations of Websites scholarly and basic information resources are noted and search strategies for finding pertinent Websites are included Art Information and the Internet also discusses research methodology for studying art historical styles artists working in various media individual works of art and non Western cultures as well as art education writing about art problems of copyright and issues concerning the buying and selling of art This title will be periodically updated Sidney and Junius on Poetry and Painting Judith Dundas, 2007-10 Franciscus Junius the Younger 1591 1677 is famous as virtually the founder of Germanic philology But he also composed at the request of the Earl of Arundel whom he served as librarian an influential treatise on the art of painting as it is viewed in ancient literature This book discusses his marginalia to the works of Philip Sidney Mirrors of Heaven Or Worldly Theaters? Jonathan E. Glixon, 2017 Mirrors of Heaven or Worldly Theaters Venetian Nunneries and Their Music explores the dynamic role of music performance and patronage in the convents of Venice and its lagoon from the sixteenth century to the fall of Venice around 1800 Examining sacred music performed by the nuns themselves and by professional musicians they employed author Jonathan E Glixon considers the nuns as collective patrons of both musical performances by professionals in their external churches primarily for the annual feast of the patron saint a notable attraction for both Venetians and foreign visitors and of musical instruments namely organs and bells The book explores the rituals and accompanying music for the transitions in a nun's life most importantly the ceremonies through which she moved from the outside world to the cloister as well as liturgical music within the cloister performed by the nuns themselves from chant to simple polyphony and the rare occasions where more elaborate music can be documented Also considered are the teaching of music to both nuns and girls resident in convents as boarding students and entertainment musical and theatrical by and for the nuns Mirrors of Heaven the first large scale study of its kind contains richly detailed appendices featuring a calendar of musical events at Venetian nunneries details on nunnery organs lists of teachers and inventories of musical and ceremonial books both manuscript and printed A companion website supplements the book s musical examples with editions of complete musical works which are brought to life with accompanying audio files     The Politics of Diplomacy Thea L. Lindquist,2001     Anthony Van Dyck Robin Blake,2009-02-16 Blake an author living in London explains that the impetus for this biography of the great Dutch painter came from his own connection in childhood to a painting purchased by his grandmother
