Anthropology and the Western Tradition Jacob Pandian, 1985 This work presents an interpretation of anthropology its intellectual social functions its structure meaning Focuses on the question of why it is considered necessary valid to study other peoples in order to understand ourselves the nature of humankind The Making of Anthropology Jacob

Pandian, Susan Parman, 2004 This book offers an interpretation of anthropology as a discourse that contrasts the western self and the non western other and shows that the organizing principle of this discourse was the Judeo Christian episteme of the Other in Us that the Christian Church Fathers developed to define why the pagan others were endowed with negative ungodly attributes of humanity It is pointed out that the anthropological application of this episteme to represent and explain the colonized non western others resulted in the emergence of eurocentric hierarchical models of humanity and that although these models of humanity were largely replaced by pluralistic models in the late 20 century anthropology has continued to be linked with the episteme of the other in us Dust jacket Anthropology and Autobiography Judith

Okely, Helen Callaway, 1992 First Published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Anthropology Stanley Diamond, 2011-06-03 No detailed description available for Anthropology Anthropologists and Their Traditions Across National Borders Regna Darnell, Frederic W. Gleach, 2014-11-01 Volume 8 of the Histories of Anthropology Annual series the premier series published in the history of the discipline explores national anthropological traditions in Britain the United States and Europe and follows them into postnational contexts Contributors reassess the major theorists in twentieth century anthropology including luminaries such as Franz Boas Claude L vi Strauss Bronis aw Malinowski A R Radcliffe Brown Marshall Sahlins and lesser known but important anthropological work by Berthold Laufer A M Hocart Kenelm O L Burridge and Robin Ridington among others These essays examine myriad themes such as the pedagogical context of the anthropologist as a teller of stories about indigenous storytellers the colonial context of British anthropological theory and its projects outside the nation state the legacies of Claude L vi Strauss s structuralism regarding culture specific patterns cognitive universals reflected in empirical examples of kinship myth language classificatory systems and supposed universal mental structures and the career of Marshall Sahlins and his trajectory from neo evolutionism and structuralism toward an epistemological skepticism of cross cultural miscommunication Theorizing the Anthropology of Belief Luke J. Matthews, Paul Robertson, 2024-02-01 This book explores both scientific and humanistic theoretical traditions in anthropology through the lens of ontology The first part of the book examines different methods for generating valid anthropological knowledge and proposes a shift in current consensus Drawing on Western scholars of antiquity and the medieval period and moving away from 20th century theorists it argues that we must first make ontological assumptions about the kinds of things that can exist or not before we can then develop epistemologies that study those kinds of things The book goes on to apply the ontology first theory to a set of case studies in modern day conspiracy theories misinformation and magical thinking It asserts that we need to move away from unneeded metaphysical assumptions of conspiracy theories being misinformation and argues that reconstructing particular historical events can be a fruitful zone for application of quantitative methods to humanistic questions Theorizing the Anthropology of Belief is an excellent supplementary suitable for upper level undergraduate and graduate courses in anthropological theory
