emergence of a functionalist viewpoint in ethnology the difficulties of developing a theory of human behavior because of the focus on culture the search for concepts of culture to serve specialized needs the neglect of social psychology by the culture and personality field how value judgments emerged willy nilly or conversely were neglected in ethnological research how applied anthropology was challenged by Action Anthropology and how the interdisciplinary anthropology of the late 1940s was submerged in the postwar effort to return the discipline to traditional roots Individual anthropologists whose work is examined include among others Bronislaw Malinowski Leslie Spier Alfred Kroeber Ralph Linton Margaret Mead Ruth Benedict Clyde Kluckhohn Gregory Bateson and Walter Taylor Preserving the Anthropological Record Sydel Silverman, Nancy J. Parezo, 1995 Indigenous Ethnographies of North East India Somenath Bhattacharjee, Anup Kumar Dey, 2021-01-01 Northeast India is very rich in its multiethnic and multicultural diversity Their indigenous culture is nourished in the lap of nature However with the changing dimension of time and influence of globalization a number of social and cultural changes can be noticed among them On the other hand as their cultural practices social norms values and customs are oral in tradition these are remaining undocumented In this context to understand about the traditional culture contemporary period demands an in depth analytical research from the emic perspective to write the ethnography of indigenous communities It is an academic effort to build the co relation between central and marginal traditions to frame the holistic national integrity in multiethnic and multicultural India Through this book Indigenous Ethnographies of North East India A Study From Emic Perspective it has been tried to find out the similarities in between different cultural traditions as well as to find out the relevance of such traditions in the greater dimension of Indian civilization as a whole The Global Practice of Anthropology, 1997 Becoming a Practicing Anthropologist John Van Willigen, 1987 Cultural Transformations and Globalization Alexander M Ervin, 2016-01-08 Change is the most significant factor of contemporary society and humanity's past This book represents the first substantial attempt since the 1970s to synthesize and critique sociocultural change theories in anthropology and relate them to trends in the social and physical sciences It emphasizes the most recent contributions especially complexity and emergence theory social movements network analysis and globalization Ervin presents a rich legacy of theories and case studies accessible to both the established scholar and the beginning student He considers how theories and insights can inform policy as humanity faces crises of globalization Key Features of the Text Designed for scholars and students seeking a comprehensive analysis of the relation between anthropological theory and practice Assesses big questions facing the social sciences Do cultures and societies change or is it really individuals families and social networks Are there prime movers of change environment technology economics ideas powerful leaders or cultural contacts Are there structures embedded within changes and changes built into structures Original contribution of the book is the integration of sociological and anthropological theories including networks social movements complexity world systems etc Online appendices include resources for students on applied and practice anthropology Cultural Anthropology

JoAnn Jacoby, Josephine Kibbee, 2007-05-30 The latest edition of a major literature guide provides citations and informative annotations on a wide range of reference sources including manuals bibliographies indexes databases literature surveys and reviews dissertations book reviews conference proceedings awards and employment and grant sources The organization closely follows that of the 1st edition with some much needed additions relating to online resources and new areas of interest within the field such as forensic anthropology environmental anthropology and Lesbian Bisexual Gay and Transgendered Anthropology Separate sections focus on individual subfields as well as emerging concerns such as ethical issues in cultural heritage preservation For academic and research library collections as well as faculty members in anthropology area studies and intercultural studies Anthropologists in the SecurityScape Robert Albro, George Marcus, Laura A McNamara, Monica Schoch-Spana, 2016-06-16 As the military and intelligence communities re tool for the 21st century the long and contentious debate about the role of social scientists in national security environments is dividing the disciplines with renewed passion Yet research shows that most scholars have a weak understanding of what today s security institutions actually are and what working in them entails This book provides an essential new foundation for the debate with fine grained accounts of the complex and varied work of cultural physical and linguistic anthropologists and archaeologists doing security related work in governmental and military organizations the private sector and NGOs In candid and provocative dialogues leading anthropologists interrogate the dilemmas of ethics in practice and professional identity Anthropologists in the SecurityScape is essential reading for anyone who wishes to understand or influence the relationship between anthropology and security in the twenty first century Growing Old in El Barrio Judith Freidenberg, 2000-08 In Growing Old in El Barrio Judith Noemi Freidenberg addresses the life course and daily experiences of the elderly residents of El Barrio She interweaves the economy of immigrant neighborhoods with the personal experiences of Latinos aging in Harlem Freidenberg further links policy issues such as persistent poverty in urban enclaves and the provision of health and social services to an aging population to social issues critical to the daily lives of this population Feminist Anthropology Ellen Lewin, 2009-02-09 Feminist Anthropology surveys the history of feminist anthropology and offers students and scholars a fascinating collection of both classic and contemporary articles grouped to highlight key themes from the past and present Offers vibrant examples of feminist ethnographic work rather than synthetic overviews of the field Each section is framed by a theoretical and bibliographic essay Includes a thoughtful introduction to the volume that provides context and discusses the intellectual foremothers of the field including Margaret Mead Ruth Landes Phyllis Kaberry and Zora Neale Hurston Aesthetics and Anthropology Ina-Maria Greverus, Ute Ritschel, 2009 Aesthetics and Anthropology is a collection of contributions by an international and interdisciplinary team of authors from the fields of anthropology performance studies curatorial studies and the arts The title refers to the paths that lead to the in betweens and the beyonds of aura and trace in the representation of life that is performed in aesthetic reflexivity Aesthetic reflexivity refers not only to the authors attempts at an interdisciplinary encounter with one another but also to their encounter with the readers and with the recipients of an intended message in an aesthetic dialogue Our approach is innovative in that it looks upon aesthetics as a topos of the living We seek to capture the present discourse of ethnographic and aesthetic disciplinary turns with the intent of bringing them together in theory and practice Here academics and artists approach one another s respective forms of representation in a Gesamtkunstwerk of texts and images The book presents experimental approaches and interdisciplinary turns and hoped for interactions between anthropologists and artists and recipients of aesthetic encounters We believe this is presently the most innovative pathway to interdisciplinary encounters with aesthetics You the readers meet us the artists and authors of an aesthetic reflexivity Are we tricksters in an aesthetic turn toward performing life and reflecting performed lives in the in between

The Moral Work of Anthropology Hanne Overgaard Mogensen, Birgitte Gorm Hansen, 2021-06-11 Looking at anthropologists at work this book investigates what kind of morality they perform in their occupations and what the impact of this morality is The book includes ethnographic studies in four professional arenas health care business management and interdisciplinary research The discussion is positioned at the intersection of applied or public anthropology and the anthropology of ethics and analyses the ways in which anthropologists can carry out moral work both inside and outside of academia

A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa Roy Richard Grinker, Stephen C. Lubkemann, Christopher B. Steiner, Euclides Gonçalves, 2019-02-06 An essential collection of scholarly essays on the anthropology of Africa offering a thorough introduction to the most important topics in this evolving and diverse field of study The study of the cultures of Africa has been central to the methodological and theoretical development of anthropology as a discipline since the late 19th century As the anthropology of Africa has emerged as a distinct field of study anthropologists working in this tradition have strived to build a disciplinary conversation that recognizes the diversity and complexity of modern and ancient African cultures while acknowledging the effects of historical anthropology on the present and future of the field of study A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa is a collection of insightful essays covering the key questions and subjects in the contemporary anthropology of Africa with a key focus on addressing the topics that define the contemporary discipline Written and edited by a team of leading cultural anthropologists it is an ideal introduction to the most important topics in the field both those that have consistently been a part of the critical dialogue and those that have emerged as the central questions of the discipline s future Beginning with essays on the enduring topics in the study of African cultures A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa provides a foundation in the contemporary critical approach to subjects of longstanding interest With these subjects as a groundwork later essays address decolonization the postcolonial experience and questions of modern identity and definition providing representation of the diverse thinking and scholarship in the modern anthropology of Africa

Practices of the Self and Spiritual Practices Sergey S. Horujy, 2015-03-03 In this book Sergey Horujy undertakes a novel comparative analysis of Foucault s theory of practices of the self and the Eastern Orthodox ascetical tradition of Hesychasm revealing great affinity between these two radical subject less approaches to anthropology As he facilitates the dialogue between the two he offers both an original treatment of ascetical and mystical practices and an up to date interpretation of Foucault that goes against the grain of mainstream scholarship In the second half of the book Horujy transitions from the dialogue with Foucault to his own work of Christian philosophy rooted in but not limited to the Eastern Christian philosophical and theological tradition Horujy s thinking exemplifies the postsecular nature of our contemporary period and serves as a powerful invitation to think beyond religious secular divides in philosophy and Eastern Western divides in intellectual history
