Antiracism An Assault On Education And Value:

Anti-racism Frank Palmer, 1986 Focuses upon what it claims is one of the most serious issues facing Britain today the influence of the race relations lobby on the spheres of education and value religious moral and intellectual Contributors include Roger Scruton David J Levy Caroline Cox and Ray Honeyford Education, Racism and Reform (RLE Edu J) Barry Troyna, Bruce Carrington, 2012-04-27 In this introductory text the authors look closely at widely held assumptions about race and schooling in Britain and evaluate the role of the school in a multi ethnic society Focusing on contemporary issues and concerns they consider such controversial questions as Is the education system rigged against black pupils Is tolerance really a characteristic of the British The volume provides a detailed analysis of the Education Reform Act 1988 and the debate surrounding the National Curriculum and asks whether these new initiatives do truly open the doors of opportunity for all children Race And Education: Policy And Politics In Britain Tomlinson, Sally, 2008-03-01 Provides crucial information on key educational issues events and conflicts in Britain from the 1960s to the present day Anti-Racism Alastair Bonnett, 2005-06-21 This introductory text provides an historical and international analysis of the development of anti racism This lively concise book will appeal to all students interested in issues of race ethnicity and contemporary society more generally Radicalism, Anti-Racism and Representation Alastair Bonnett, 2023-02-14 First published in 1993 Radicalism Anti Racism and Representation is a study set within a wider political context for the discussion of racial representation and anti racism The second half of the book is devoted to interview based exploration of the ambiguities and political characteristics of race equality consciousness amongst public educators It is shown that there is no one anti racism Different ideals and assumptions have been arrived at within different historical and geographical contexts It is suggested that this intellectual plurality provides a resource for those wishing to rethink anti racism in the light of its contemporary malaise The study also explores and explains the development of self critical reflexive anti racist and radical consciousness amongst educators The book provides the first sociological study of anti racism Indeed it is the first to provide a substantive critique of anti racism from outside the New Right It is also the first to look at this phenomenon geographically and to compare anti racism in multiracial and white areas This book will be of interest to students of human geography sociology history ethnic studies and race studies Critical Pedagogy and Race Zeus Leonardo, 2009-02-09 Critical Pedagogy and Race argues that a rigorous engagement with race is a priority for educators concerned with equality in schools and in society A landmark collection arguing that engaging with race at both conceptual and practical levels is a priority for educators Builds a stronger engagement of race based analysis in the field of critical pedagogy Brings together a melange of theories on race such as Afro centric Latino based and postcolonial perspectives Includes historical studies and social justice ideas on activism in education Questions popular concepts such as white privilege color blind perspectives and race neutral pedagogies Education In A Post Welfare Society Tomlinson, Sally, 2005-11-01 Providing a critical overview of education policy since 1945 this book includes chronologies of education acts reports and initiatives and summaries of major legislation Routledge International Companion to Education Miriam Ben-Peretz, Sally Brown, Bob Moon, 2004-04-28 The Routledge International Companion to Education addresses the key issues underpinning the rethinking and restructuring of education at the beginning of the new millennium The volume contains over fifty major contributions exploring a wide range of issues including philosophy of education the economics and resourcing of education testing and assessment current issues and future prospects standards multiculturalism anti racism computers in classrooms mother tongue education civics and moral education Each chapter gives a contemporary account of developments in the field and looks to the future and the directions that new activity and inquiry are likely to take All the chapters are written from an international perspective

Education and Race from Empire to Brexit Sally Tomlinson, 2019-03-27 Covering the period from the height of Empire to Brexit and beyond this book shows how the vote to leave the European Union increased hostilities towards racial and ethnic minorities and migrants Concentrating on the education system it asks whether populist views that there should be a British identity or a Scottish Irish or Welsh one will prevail Alternatively arguments based on equality human rights and economic needs may prove more powerful It covers events in politics and education that have left most white British people ignorant of the Empire the often brutal de colonisation and the arrival of immigrants from post colonial and European countries It discusses politics and practices in education race religion and migration that have left schools and universities failing to engage with a multiracial and multicultural society Teacher Education in Plural Societies (RLE Edu N) Maurice Craft, 2012-04-27 The educational implications of cultural pluralism attracted a good deal of attention in Western societies in the 1970s and 1980s on the grounds of equality and human rights maximising national talent and maintaining social cohesion Maurice Craft and the international contributors to this book highlight the potential of teacher education and in this wide ranging analytical review for its key role in providing for ethnic minority children in respect of access and achievements and also for all children to acquire informed and tolerant attitudes This book makes an important contribution to a small but growing literature concentrating on initial rather than in service teacher education and it brings together papers from experienced specialists from eleven countries worldwide Australia Britain Canada Israel Malaysia Northern Ireland South Africa Spain Sweden The Netherlands and the USA The papers are concerned with the needs both of diverse classrooms and diverse societies and also consider general principles and comparative perspectives Of interest to the specialist and non specialist alike Teacher Education in Plural Societies An International Review deals with an important and timely issue how best to prepare teachers to meet the needs of both minority and majority culture pupils who are growing up in plural societies Morality and Citizenship in Education John Beck, 1998-07-01 The first section of the book compares and contrasts declinist accounts of the current moral predicament with the somewhat more optimistic approach derived from recent sociological analyses The second section is more directly devoted to the role of schools in educating about values morality and citizenship Specific curricular issues such as the values of enterprise and enterprise culture educating about citizenship and the ambiguities about the meaning of the term spiritual are dealt with in successive chapters

The Politics of Marginality Antony Robin Jeremy Kushner, Kenneth Lunn, 1990 The essays in this collection are an attempt to provide a basis for future discussion of immigration ethnicity and race in Britain

Racism and Anti-Racism in Europe Alana Lentin, 2004-06-20 Remarkable a major contribution to our understanding and handling of one of the crucial contemporary issues that acquires more gravity by the day Zygmunt Bauman This is an in depth sociological study of the phenomenon of anti racism as both political discourse and social movement practice in western Europe Lentin develops a comparative study of anti racism in Britain France Italy and Ireland While race and racism have been submitted to many profound analyses anti racism has often been dealt with as either the mere opposite of racism or as a theme for prescriptives or polemics by those concerned with the persistence of racist discrimination By contrast this book views anti racism as a variety of discourses that are central to the understanding of the politics of modern states Examining anti racism gives us insights not only into current debates on citizenship immigration and Europeanisation but it also crucially assists us in understanding the nature of race racism and racialisation themselves At a time of mounting state racism against asylum seekers migrants and refugees throughout Europe and beyond this book provides a much needed exploration of the discourse of anti racism that shapes policy and public opinion today

The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Multicultural Education David Gillborn, Gloria Ladson-Billings, 2004 Bringing together scholarship from both sides of the Atlantic this book focuses on the questions that shape the field of multicultural education offering the reader an opportunity to achieve a real grasp of the subject

The Politics of Marginality Tony Kushner, Kenneth Lunn, 2012-11-12 Immigration to Britain has rarely achieved the levels experienced by the US but it is nevertheless true of all periods that immigrants refugees and sojourners have been continually present While we may have the beginnings of a history of immigration ethnicity and race in Britain there is a lack of historiographical awareness in the subject The essays in this collection ranging from specific case studies to broad themes are an attempt to provide a basis for future discussion

Feminist Academics Louise Morley, Val Walsh, 2002-11-01 This text brings together leading feminists who explore questions of feminist interventions in organisations of knowledge production covering both the structure and culture of academic institutions and the social divisions between women Feminism is located as a force for change empowering women to gain a political understanding and providing a methodology for new approaches to teaching learning research and writing in the academy Contributions demonstrate how an analysis of the micropolitics of the academy in terms of power policies discourses pedagogy and interpersonal relationships provides a framework for de privatising women s experience and influencing change Using theoretical constructs and their own biographies and experience the contributors present predicaments inequalities and strategies Power and influence are considered in conjunction with gender race social class and sexuality

New Right, New Racism Amy Elizabeth

Ansell,2016-07-27 New Right New Racism is a comparative analysis of the role of racialized symbols in the right turn of US and British politics in the late 1970s through to today The author argues that the symbol of race has been central to the New Right s project to redefine the cultural codes and broader social imaginary upon which the consensus politics of the post war years was built In the process of mobilizing race as an ideological articulator of the exit from consensus politics the New Right has promoted a new form of racism qualitatively distinct from more traditional forms "The Infidel Within" Humayun Ansari,2018-08-01 A concise history of Muslims in Britain since 1800 Teachers, Human Rights and Diversity Audrey Osler,2005 How should we educate citizens in multicultural societies This question is receiving increasing attention in countries across the world In this volume authors from England Northern Ireland the Republic of Ireland and the United States report on recent research in this field and consider the implications for teachers teacher education and student teachers Case studies illustrate how young citizens can learn to apply the principles of human rights and equality in resolving complex and controversial issues The contributors include Hilary Claire Colm O Cuanachain Carole Hahn Anne Hudson Ulrike Neins and Jackie Reilly Jill Rutter Chris Wilkins This book will be of particular interest to student teachers and their tutors Race, Ethnicity and Education David Gillborn,2003-09-02 This book is a major new investigation into the issues of race ethnicity and education following the educational reforms during the late 1980s It provides an up to date and critical introduction to current issues and major research findings in the field exploring the teacher pupil relationship through a detailed account of life in an inner city comprehensive It reveals the influence of different racist stereotypes and highlights the especially disadvantaged position of Afro Caribbean pupils within a school Features Draws on a wide variety of research projects in ethnic schools to examine achievement curriculum content language use assessment and testing under the National Curriculum Uses material collected during two years of research to consider young people s school experiences and issues relating to classroom discipline
