Antitrinitarianism In The Second Half Of The 16th Century:

Antitrinitarianism in the Second Half of the 16th Century Dán, Pirnát, 2022-04-19 Papers from an international colloquium organized by the Hungarian Academy of Sciences Antitrinitarianism and Unitarianism in the Early Modern World

Kazimierz Bem, Bruce Gordon, 2024-11-23 This collection offers an innovative and fresh interpretation of Antitrinitarian and rational dissent in the early modern world The central themes focus on the fierce debates surrounding Antitrinitarianism and Unitarianism that emerged from the Reformation and the lived cultures of these dissenting movements The chapters take an interdisciplinary approach addressing ideas in context their reception and appropriation and the diverse and often conflicting visions of Christianity Drawing on previously unused sources many from Eastern Europe and often in inaccessible languages this book challenges our understanding of dissent as marginal and eccentric and places it at the center of contesting convictions about the nature of religious reform Early Modern Religious Communities in East-Central Europe

István Keul, 2009 Conceived as another chapter in the European history of religions Europäische Religionsgeschichte this book deals with the intense dynamics of the overlapping political ethnic and denominational constellations in Reformation and post Reformation Transylvania Navigating along multiple narrative tracks and attempting to treat the religious history of an entire region over a limited time period in a differentiated polyfocal way the book represents a departure from the master narratives of any singularly oriented religious history At the same time the present work seeks to contribute to laying the groundwork at the micro and meso contextual level of East Central European confessionalization processes and to developing interpretive models for these processes in the region Christians or Jews? Réka Tímea Újlaki-Nagy, 2022-09-05

Transylvanian Sabbatarianism emerged from the aspirations of the Reformation without direct contact with the Jews Although the most frequently asked question about them concerns their identity were they Christians or Jews the answers of the literature are superficial biased and take only an external point of view The aim of this book therefore is to move closer to the 16 17th century Sabbatarian manuscripts and to examine how much they were still connected to Christianity in their biblical interpretations doctrines and religious practices how they adapted to Judaism and how they saw themselves in relation to the two world religions The analysis of Réka Tímea Újlaki-Nagy shows that although they still held some Christian beliefs these were considered to be incidental and unnecessary to salvation Sabbatarians followed the ideal of an age preceding Christ consequently the Reformation effort to reconstitute apostolic Christianity disappeared from their religious thought Theoretical-Practical Theology Volume 4: Redemption in Christ Petrus Van Mastricht, 2023-06-01 Petrus van

Mastricht's Redemption in Christ offers deep insight into God's great work of obtaining redemption in our Mediator The Radical Enlightenment in Germany, 2018-07-03 This volume investigates the impact of the Radical Enlightenment on German culture during the eighteenth century taking recent work by Jonathan Israel as its point of departure The collection documents the cultural dimension of the debate on the Radical Enlightenment In a series of readings of known and lesser known fictional and essayistic texts individual contributors show that these can be read not only as articulating a conflict between Enlightenment and Counter Enlightenment but also as documents of a debate about the precise nature of Enlightenment At stake is the question whether the Enlightenment should aim to be an atheist materialist and political movement that wants to change society or in spite of its belief in rationality should respect monarchy aristocracy and established religion Contributors are Mary Helen Dupree Sean Franzel Peter H yng John A McCarthy Monika Nenon Carl Niekerk Daniel Purdy William Rasch Ann Schmiesing Paul S Spalding Gabriela Stoicea Birgit Tautz Andrew Weeks Chunjie Zhang

Venice and the Radical Reformation Riccarda Suitner,2023-12-04 The Republic of Venice was the only Catholic territory in which an Anabaptist community formed in the 16th century The history of Venetian Anabaptism hitherto little known in Reformation Studies is the focus of this book Using a large quantity of archival material and rare printed sources Riccarda Suitner reconstructs the lives of the Republic s Anabaptists and the inquisitorial repression they suffered and analyses the doctrinal specificities of the Radical Reformation in this area This story represents a fundamental stage in the relations between German central European and Italian culture in the early modern period Events in Venice are presented within a broader comparative framework paying particular attention to the German states Switzerland the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth Transylvania Moravia Tyrol and the Kingdom of Naples It will emerge that its Venetian history cannot be ignored if we are to gain a true understanding of the European Reformation

[Secret conversions to Judaism in early modern Europe \[electronic resource\]](#) Martin Mulsow,Richard Henry Popkin,2004 This volume deals with conversions to Judaism from the 16th to the 18th century It provides six case studies by leading international scholars on phenomena as crypto Judaism judaizing reversion of Jewish Christian converts and secret conversion of non Jewish Christians for intellectual reasons The first contributions examine George Buchanan and John Dury followed by three studies of the milieu of late seventeenth century Amsterdam The last essay is concerned with Lord George Gordon and Cabbalistic Freemasonry The contributions will be of interest for intellectual historians but also historians of political thought or Jewish studies Contributors include Elisheva Carlebach Allison P Coudert Martin Mulsow Richard H Popkin Marsha Keith Schuchard and Arthur Williamson

Bisschop's Bench Samuel D. Fornecker,2022 In Bisschop s Bench Samuel D Fornecker charts the incompatible theological agendas into which post Restoration Arminian conformity proliferated and challenges the thesis that a monolithic Arminianism marched steadily from the post Restoration period into the early Hanoverian

A Companion to Multiconfessionalism in the Early Modern World Thomas Max Safley,2011-06-09 In the sixteenth century the Christian church and Christian worship fragmented into a multiplicity of confessions that has grown to the present day The essays in this volume demonstrate that multiconfessionalism understood as the legally recognized and politically supported coexistence of two or more confessions in a single polity was the rule rather than the exception for most of early modern Europe The contributors examine its causes and effects They demonstrate that local religious groups across the continent could cooperate with confessional opponents and oppose political authorities to make decisions about their religious lives depending on local conditions and contingencies In so doing this volume offers a new vision of religion state and society in early modern Europe Contributors include Bernard Capp John R D Coffey J r mie Foa David Frick Raymond Gillespie Benjamin Kaplan Howard Louthan David Luebke Keith Luria Guido Marnef Graeme Murdock Richard Ninness Penny Roberts Jesse Spohnholz Peter Wallace Lee Palmer Wandel

Aesthetic Theology and Its Enemies David Nirenberg, 2015-07-07 The role of Judaism in the formation of Western aesthetics

Neighboring Faiths David Nirenberg, 2014-10-20 Essays on how Jews Muslims and Christians have coexisted or not over the centuries from a particularly incisive and trustworthy historian of religion Commonwealth Christianity Judaism and Islam are usually treated as autonomous religions but in fact across the long course of their histories the three religions have developed in interaction with one another In Neighboring Faiths David Nirenberg examines how Muslims Christians and Jews lived with and thought about each other during the Middle Ages and what the medieval past can tell us about how they do so today There have been countless scripture based studies of the three religions of the book but Nirenberg goes beyond those to pay close attention to how the three religious neighbors loved tolerated massacred and expelled each other all in the name of God in periods and places both long ago and far away Nirenberg argues that the three religions need to be studied in terms of how each affected the development of the others over time their proximity of religious and philosophical thought as well as their overlapping geographies and how the three neighbors define and continue to define themselves and their place in terms of one another From dangerous attractions leading to interfaith marriage to interreligious conflicts leading to segregation violence and sometimes extermination to strategies for bridging the interfaith gap through language vocabulary and poetry Nirenberg aims to understand the intertwined past of the three faiths as a way for their heirs to produce the future together Will be of extraordinary importance not only for specialists in the field but also for general readers and anyone interested in the relations among the three religions Teofilo F Ruiz University of California Los Angeles

Ethical Implications of One God Robert Petkovsek, Bojan Zalec, 2021-01-27 The issue of the ethical implications of monotheism is a very relevant topic from the point of view of contemporary humanities and social science and from the perspective of the cultural and political condition in Europe and at the global scale Therefore a scientific book devoted to this subject makes a lot of sense Throughout the history and in present times monotheism has been subjected to several sharp criticisms On the other hand we find also very different evaluations of it They stress its positive and even crucial contribution to peace forming of rational non violent tolerant culture and society to the scientific political and cultural development to democracy etc The book offers fresh interdisciplinary perspectives mainly from the point of view of humanities on the ethical aspects of monotheism broadens the scientific understanding of it and establishes a basis for resolving conflicts to which the understanding of monotheism is relevant or even decisive

Mystery Unveiled Paul C.H. Lim, 2012-09-27 Paul C H Lim offers an insightful examination of the polemical debates about the doctrine of the Trinity in seventeenth century England showing that this philosophical and theological re configuration significantly impacted the politics of religion in the early modern period Through analysis of these heated polemics Lim shows how Trinitarian God Talk became untenable in many ecclesiastical and philosophical circles which led to the emergence of Unitarianism He also demonstrates that those who continued to embrace Trinitarian doctrine articulated their piety and theological perspectives in an increasingly secularized culture of discourse Drawing on both unexplored manuscripts and well known treatises of Continental and English provenance he unearths the complex layers of the polemic from biblical exegesis to reception history of patristic authorities from popular religious radicalism during the Civil War to Puritan spirituality from Continental Socinians to English anti trinitarians who avowed their relative independent theological identity from the notion of the Platonic captivity of primitive Christianity to that of Plato as Moses Atticus Among this book s surprising conclusions are the findings that Anti Trinitarian sentiment arose from a Puritan ambience in which Biblical literalism overcame rationalistic presuppositions and that theology and philosophy were not as unconnected during this period as previously thought Mystery Unveiled will fill a significant lacuna in early modern English intellectual history
