Antología de la nueva poesía española José Luis Cano, 1972 Antología de la narrativa hispanoamericana, 1940-1970 Paul Verdevoye, 1979 A Generation of Spanish Poets 1920-1936 C. B. Morris, 1969-09 This critical study of the group of remarkably talented poets who flourished in Spain between the First World War and the Spanish Civil War includes copious quotations accompanied by English prose translations Mr Morris treats his poets as a group showing how they shared certain themes and attitudes He begins with a general study of the generation as a whole and then examines the use of tradition the zest and levity of the Jazz Age the exaltation of life as a shared attitude then its converse the escape from life and finally the expression in complex imagery of personal tensions and disturbances These are often difficult poets but become less so when they are sympathetically examined in this way and in relation to earlier literary traditions Mr Morris enables the reader to take bearings and establish relationships which are enhanced by reproductions of photographs of the poets The Poetics of Epiphany in the Spanish Lyric of Today Judith Nantell, 2019-11-15 Drawing on the poetry of four major voices in the Spanish lyric of today Judith Nantell explores the epistemic works of Luis Muñoz Abraham Gragera Josep M Rodríguez and Ada Salas arguing that for them the poem is the fundamental means of exploring the nature of both knowledge and poetry In this first interpretive analysis of the epistemic nature of their poetry Nantell innovatively engages these poets each of whom has contributed one of their own poems along with a previously unpublished explication of their chosen poem Each also provides an original biographical sketch to support Nantell's development of a poetics of epiphany Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press The Cambridge Companion to Modern Spanish Culture David T. Gies, 1999-02-25 This book offers a comprehensive account of modern Spanish culture tracing its dramatic and often unexpected development from its beginnings after the Revolution of 1868 to the present day Specially commissioned essays by leading experts provide analyses of the historical and political background of modern Spain the culture of the major autonomous regions notably Castile Catalonia and the Basque Country and the country's literature narrative poetry theatre and the essay Spain's recent development is divided into three main phases from 1868 to the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War the period of the dictatorship of Francisco Franco and the post-Franco arrival of democracy The concept of Spanish culture is investigated and there are studies of Spanish painting and sculpture architecture cinema dance music and the modern media A chronology and guides to further reading are provided making the volume an invaluable introduction to the politics literature and culture of modern Spain Moving Reflections Jo Evans, 1996 Volume exploring the important but neglected Spanish female poet Angela Figuera Aymerich Angela Figuera Aymerich 1902-84 remains an obscure figure among the Spanish social poets of the Franco regime her work almost entirely eclipsed by male contemporaries This book attempts both to bring her poetry to the attention of a wider audience and to show how her work anticipates the generation of women writers and poets who have emerged since the coming of democracy

Focusing primarily on a selection of poems published between 1948 and 1962 Dr Evans shows how her work has been mistakenly ignored as maternal in essence and so of little interest to the poetry of social protest in general Using feminist and psychoanalytical theories of language to suggest that identity and poetic identity in particular is constructed as the effect of mirror images the author argues that the moving reflections of gender faith and aesthetics mirror Figuera s struggle with a fragmented poetic identity through these concepts her work can be read not only as a moving reflection of maternal femininity and social injustice but as an active attempt to retrace the boundaries of female identity JO EVANS teaches in the Department of Hispanic Studies Edinburgh University
