Anton Chekhov A Study Of The Short Fiction Twaynes Studies In Short Fiction:

Studies in Short Fiction ,1995 Anton Chekhov Ronald L. Johnson,1993 Though long recognized as one of the founding fathers of the short story it is perhaps the combined longevity and scope of Anton Chekhov's influence that is most astounding The list of authors many of them contemporary who routinely cite Chekhov as a major influence in their own writing could almost read as a who's who in 20th century English and American literature Indeed the seemingly casual story of an ordinary life told with articulate delicacy and heightened mood and detail populates not only Chekhov's canon but also that of the modern short story His ability to provide for the reader a truly intimate feel for what is most telling a vista the weather a conversation has become the cornerstone of the form Prevalent in the works of Katherine Mansfield Ernest Hemingway Raymond Carver and Nadine Gordimer among others this distinctive style of writing is a testament to Chekhov's international influence As with all the greats of literature though it is more than just style and structure that lives on the motif of individual freedom so prevalent in Chekhov's writing is especially poignant today In Anton Chekhov A Study of the Short Fiction Ronald L Johnson follows the Russian master as he matures from a newspaper and magazine writer to becoming the father of the modern short story In a chronological study of an astoundingly prolific career Johnson examines a number of Chekhov stories in great detail echoing the thorough attention to detail for which his subject was well known In this comprehensive study Johnson follows the development of what was to become the benchmark form of the short story while also tracing the vitality and importance of the content of those stories Johnson's study shows that Chekhov was more than just the father of a style but was profoundly concerned with human rights and the search for a meaningful life A Study Guide for Anton Chekhov's "The Gooseberries" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Anton Chekhov's "The Kiss" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Anton Chekhov's The Kiss excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs Critical Survey of Short Fiction: Italo Calvino - Louise Erdrich ,2001 Shirley Jackson Joan Wylie Hall,1993 This book includes essays on Shirley Jackson's fiction excerpts from her lectures on fiction writing and scholars' comments on several of her short stories Charles W. Chesnutt Henry B. Wonham,1998 N A William Trevor Suzanne Morrow Paulson,1993 Intensely poetic understated and ironic William Trevor's fiction contains the very hallmarks of the modern short story following a long tradition of Irish and British literature about the often painful and grueling route people travel in the simple effort to integrate themselves into society In his many poignant stories among them Mulvihill's Memorial The Mark 2 Wife The Day We Got Drunk on Cake Lovers of Their Time and The Ballroom of Romance Trevor reveals his mastery of tragicomedy whereby human interaction at even the most parochial level leads to an understanding of the universal In this first book-length study of Trevor's stories Suzanne Morrow Paulson provides a comprehensive overview of this Anglo Irish writer's craft examining his masterpieces of the form his proficiency with the comic as well as the tragic Trevor writes a personal sort of fiction Paulson observes rendering the grotesque aspects of human nature under stress yet he transcends the personal because his art encourages sympathy for even the most ridiculous figures Refuting critics who find his work dour and pessimistic Paulson finds that most of Trevor's stories convey a genuine optimism and a love of people a love based on a profound understanding of suffering a sympathetic acceptance of human weakness and shrewd insights into social hierarchies Paulson finds Trevor at his best in stories that express his sympathy for women sensitive men and adolescents who suffer from destructive stereotypes of feminine and masculine behavior Paulson assigns the fiction discussed to four thematic groups stories that explore the psychology of coping or failing to cope with trauma stories about fathers and mothers who cannot understand themselves or their adolescent children stories depicting the suffering of adolescent girls spinsters wives and mothers as they conform to destructive stereotypes governing proper female behavior and stories concerned with materialistic values promoted by advertising and the mass media In Parts 2 and 3 of this clear concise introduction to the Trevor short fiction canon Paulson has compiled first Trevor's comments on his art his reader and his community including an original 1989 interview with the author and second a survey of responses to Trevor's work and a brief gathering of articles and reviews published in Ireland England France Canada and America
