Transnational Corporations and Local Firms in Developing Countries Michael W. Hansen, Henrik Schaumburg-Müller, 2006 This book studies the organization and effects of linkages between transnational corporations mainly Danish and local firms in developing countries It is based on a number of case studies of linkage collaborations and a survey of about ninety Danish firms and their relations to partners in developing countries The analyzed host countries are Ghana India Malaysia South Africa and Vietnam The book is a contribution to the emerging literature on firm strategy in developing countries offering new empirical evidence of the multi faceted and complex nature of cross border inter firm linkages It documents how even small firms in both developed and developing countries engage in and can benefit from cross border linkages TNCs, industrial restructuring and competitiveness in the automotive industry in NAFTA, MERCOSUR and ASEAN Jorge Carrillo Viveros, Romijn H, Van Assouw R, Lall S, Poapongsakorn N, Establishment and Development of Automotive Industries in Developing Countries Organizacja Narodów Zjednoczonych, 1970 Industrial Technology Development in Malaysia Greg Felker, K. S. Jomo, Rajah Rasiah, 2013-02-01 This book and its companion Technology Competitiveness and the State examine and evaluate Malaysian industrialization in terms of its experience of and prospects for industrial technology development The focus is on the development of Malaysia s technological industrial base from a sector and firm specific perspective including the role of foreign multinationals in this process Industrial Technology Development in Malaysia provides a valuable analysis of the technological development of a Newly Industrializing Country and reflects on whether existing development strategies can be maintained in the wake of the financial crises sweeping the East Asian economies The North American Auto Industry since NAFTA Greig Mordue, Dimitry Anastakis, 2024-10-01 The auto sector is North America's most iconic of industries Since the North American Free Trade Agreement came into existence in 1994 the sector has undergone tremendous change escalating concerns around climate change advances in electric and automated vehicles deindustrialization reindustrialization and the rise of low cost locations as hubs for manufacturing The North American Auto Industry since NAFTA examines the issues that have preoccupied the development of policy associated with the manufacture of automobiles in North America The collection addresses the punctuations that have afflicted the industry since NAFTA's implementation as well as the slower incremental evolutions that have also occurred Several aspects of automobility and the industry are explored including but not limited to the Canadian American and Mexican automotive sectors and their evolution and interaction under evolving trade regimes The book analyses issues surrounding labour technology trade policy regional development the environment and broader societal impacts of the automobile It also draws on the expertise of a wide cross section of industry experts and scholars to provide readers with a deeper understanding of the automotive industry and its central role in North America's economic business and political landscape

The Motor Vehicle Industry in Asia Kōnosuke Odaka, 1983 Establishment and Development of Automotive Industries in Developing Countries, 1970 Introducing Foreign Models for Development Izumi Ohno, Kimiaki Jin, Kuniaki Amatsu, Junichi Mori, 2023-10-03 This open access book studies how foreign models of economic development can be effectively learned by and applied to today's latecomer countries Policy capacity and societal learning are increasingly stressed as pre conditions for successful catch up However how such learning should be initiated by individual societies with different features needs to be explained The book answers this pragmatic question from the perspective of Japan's past experience and its extensive development cooperation in Asia Africa and Latin America Since the late nineteenth century Japan has developed a unique philosophy and method for adopting advanced technologies and systems from the West the same philosophy and method govern its current cooperation with the developing world The key concepts are local learning and translative adaptation Local learning says that development requires the learner to adopt a proactive mindset and the goal of graduating from receiving aid Meanwhile translative adaptation requires foreign models be modified to fit local realities given the different structures of the home and foreign society The development process must be wholly owned by the domestic society in rejection of copy and paste acceptance These ideas not only informed Japan but are key to successful development for all The book also asks how this learning method should or should not be revised in the age of SDGs and digitalization Following the overview section that lays out the general principles the book offers many real cases from Japan and other countries The concrete actions outlined in these cases with close attention to individual growth ingredients as opposed to general theories are crucial to successful policy making The book contains materials that are highly useful for national leaders and practitioners within developing countries as well as students of development studies
