Autumn Wind And Other Stories:

Autumn Wind & Other Stories Lane Dunlop, 2011-12-27 Lane Dunlop's translations read elegantly and his selection of modern Japanese Stories is both fresh and persuasive. Donald Keene, Japanese scholar, historian, teacher, writer, and translator of Japanese literature. The fourteen distinct voices of this collection tell fourteen very different stories spanning sixty years of twentieth-century Japanese literature. They include a nostalgic portrait of an aristocratic Meiji family in Kafu Nagai's The Fox, a surprisingly cheerful celebration of postwar chaos in Sakaguchi Ango's One Woman, and the War, a chilly assessment of the modern society in Watanabe Junichi's Invitation to Suicide and much more. The writers also represent a wide spectrum from renowned figure of Yasunari Kawabata, winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1968, to authors whose works have never before been translated into English. Westerners familiar only with stereotypical images of bowing geisha and dark-suited businessmen will be surprised by the cast of characters. Translator Lane Dunlop introduces in this anthology. Lovers of fiction and student of Japan are certain to find these stories absorbing, engaging, and instructive.

Buttercup Gold, and Other Stories Ellen Robena Field, 2022-09-16 Ellen Robena Field's Buttercup Gold and Other Stories is a charming collection that weaves the delicate tapestry of children's literature with vivid narratives and moral undertones. The literary composition encapsulates the aesthetics of 19th-century storytelling, offering readers a window into the idyllic and sometimes profound experiences of childhood. Within the rich texture of her prose, Field explores the intersection of nature and emotion, a recurring theme that imparts wisdom without sacrificing the gentle cadence suitable for her young audience. This edition, meticulously reproduced by DigiCat Publishing, honors the enduring value of Field's work, presenting it with the dignity befitting a classic of world literature. Ellen Robena Field was a 19th-century author whose writings often drew on the bucolic landscapes and the simplicity of rural life, reflecting a keen understanding of nature as a fundamental element in nurturing young minds. Her intimate connection with her environment and her desire to communicate ethical narratives to children are palpable throughout this compilation. The endeavor by DigiCat Publishing to rejuvenate Field's prose not only revives her legacy but also reintroduces the timeless wisdom and joy that her stories can instill in new generations of readers. Buttercup Gold and Other Stories is recommended for aficionados of classic children's literature and for those seeking a collection that is imbued with life's quieter lessons. The stories, while simple in their telling, offer enriching experiences that resonate with universal themes of nature, virtuousness, and the purity of childhood perception. This carefully curated edition from DigiCat is suited for both young readers embracing their formative literary journey and adults nostalgic for the innocent wisdom of yesteryear's children's tales.
