Clare Carolin,2025-03-14 This book explores the Artistic Records Committee ARC of the Imperial War Museum IWM as a bureaucratic mechanism that enabled the deployment of art as an instrument of war The ARC was established in 1972 to commission artistic records of activities involving the British Armed Forces BAF deployed in the North of Ireland as part of Operation Banner Through a close reading of artworks archival research and interviews with artists former IWM staff and a former British Army psychological operations PSYOPS expert this book shows that the ARC was implicated in the propaganda war that the British Government waged to counteract negative public perceptions of British military presence and activity in the North of Ireland after Bloody Sunday and later during Britain s 1982 campaign to recapture the Falklands Malvinas from Argentina Operation Corporate The two case studies are painter Ken Howard s ARC commissions to record Operation Banner in 1973 and 1978 and illustrator Linda Kitson s ARC commission to record the Falklands Campaign in 1982 At a time when emergent conceptual and non object based art practices were increasingly concerned with exposure concealment and photographic evidence the book demonstrates the potential operational significance of creating pictorial records and utilising art as a tool of warfare This volume will be of interest to researchers and scholars of art history museum studies art and politics and military and intelligence studies as well as those studying the recent history of the North of Ireland and the Falklands Malvinas war

Collective and Collaborative Drawing in Contemporary Practice Helen Gørrill,Jill Journeaux,2018-01-23 Whilst both collective and collaborative drawing is being widely explored internationally both within and beyond educational institutions there is surprisingly little serious research published on the topic This realisation led to the first international Drawing Conversations Symposium accompanied by the Drawn Conversations Exhibition at Coventry University UK in December 2015 The two events drew a strong and global response and brought together a wide range of participants including academics artists researchers designers architects and doctoral students This book considers what happens and how when people draw together either in the form of a collaboration or through a collective process The contributions here serve to establish the field of collective and collaborative drawing as distinct from the types of drawing undertaken by artists designers and architects within a professional context The volume covers conversations through the act of drawing collaborative drawing drawing communities and alternative drawing collaborations Julia Kristeva Joanne Morra,2005-08-11 First published in 1998 This is Volume 4 Number 3 of Parallax 8 of July September 1998 It focuses on the intellectual aesthetics politics and ethics of Julia Kristeva from 1966 to 1996 Inefficient Mapping Linda Knight,2021 Working from a speculative more than human ontological position Inefficient Mapping A Protocol for Attuning to Phenomena presents a new experimental cartographic practice and non representational methodological protocol that attunes to the subaltern genealogies of sites and places proposing a wayfaring practice for traversing the land founded on an ethics of care As a methodological protocol inefficient mapping inscribes the histories and politics of a place by gesturally marking affective and relational imprints of colonisation industrialisation appropriation histories futures exclusions privileges neglect survival and persistence Inefficient Mapping details a research experiment and is designed to be taken out on mapping expeditions to be referred to consulted with and experimented with by those who are familiar or new to mapping The inefficient mapping protocol described in this book is informed by feminist speculative and immanent theories including posthuman theories critical cultural theories Indigenous and critical place inquiry as well as the works of Karen Barad Erin Manning Jane Bennett Maria Puig de la Bellacassa Elizabeth Povinelli and Eve Tuck and Marcia McKenzie which frame how inefficient mapping attunes to the matter tenses and ontologies of phenomena and how the interweaving agglomerations of theory critique and practice can remain embedded in experimental methodologies Publisher s website Constructing an Avant-Garde Sergio B. Martins,2021-08-24 How Brazilian postwar avant garde artists updated modernism in a way that was radically at odds with European and North American art historical narratives Brazilian avant garde artists of the postwar era worked from a fundamental but productive out of jointness They were modernist but distant from modernism Europeans and North Americans may feel a similar displacement when viewing Brazilian avant garde art the unexpected familiarity of the works serves to make them unfamiliar In Constructing an Avant Garde Sergio Martins seizes on this uncanny obliqueness and uses it as the basis for a reconfigured account of the history of Brazil's avant garde His discussion covers not only widely renowned artists and groups including Hélio Oiticica Lygia Clark Cildo Meireles and neoconcretism but also important artists and critics who are less well known outside Brazil including Mário Pedrosa Ferreira Gullar Amílcar de Castro Luís Sacilotto Antonio Dias and Rubens Gerchman Martins argues that artists of Brazil's postwar avant garde updated modernism in a way that was radically at odds with European and North American art historical narratives He describes defining episodes in Brazil's postwar avant garde discussing crucial critical texts including Gullar's Theory of the Non Object a phenomenological account of neoconcrete artworks Oiticica's constructivity and Mondrian's portraiture self portraiture and identity the nonvisual turn and missed encounters with conceptualism and monochrome manifestos and engagement The Brazilian avant garde's hijacking of modernism Martins shows gained further complexity as artists began to face their international minimalist and conceptualist contemporaries in the 1960s and 1970s Reconfiguring not only art history but their own history Brazilian avant gardists were able to face contemporary challenges from a unique and oblique standpoint

The Weekly Reporter, 1889    Encounters in the Virtual Feminist Museum Griselda Pollock, 2023-04-14 Continuing her feminist reconceptualisation of the ways we can experience and study the visual arts world renowned art historian and cultural analyst Griselda Pollock proposes a series of new encounters through virtual exhibitions with art made by women over the twentieth century Challenging the dominant museum models of art and history that have been so exclusive of women's artistic contributions to the twentieth century the virtual feminist museum stages some of the complex relations between femininity modernity and representation Griselda Pollock draws on the models of both Aby Warburg's Mnemosyne Atlas and Freud's private museum of antiquities as well as Ettinger's concept of subjectivity as encounter to propose a differencing journey through time space and archive Featuring studies of Canova's Three Graces and women artists' modernist reclamations of the female body the book traverses the rupture of fascism and the Holocaust and ponders the significance of painting and drawing in their aftermath Artists featured include Georgia O'Keeffe Josephine Baker Gluck Charlotte Salomon Bracha Ettinger and Christine Taylor Patten

Mariette and the Science of the Connoisseur in Eighteenth-Century Europe Kristel Smentek, 2017-07-05 Celebrated connoisseur drawings collector print dealer book publisher and authority on the art of antiquity Pierre-Jean Mariette 1694-1774 was a pivotal figure in the eighteenth century European art world Focusing on the trajectory of Mariette's career this book examines the material practices and social networks through which connoisseurs forged the idea of art as an object of empirical and historical analysis Drawing on significant unpublished archival material as well as on histories of science publishing collecting and display this book shows how Mariette and his colleagues practices of classification and interpretation of the graphic arts gave rise to new conceptions of artistic authorship and to a history of art that transcended the biographies of individual artists To follow Mariette s career through the eighteenth century is to see that art was consolidated as a specialized category of intellectual inquiry and that style emerged as its structuring analytic device in the overlapping spaces of the collector s cabinet the connoisseur s portfolio and the dealer s shop     Postmodernism, Politics and Art John Roberts,1990 Met lit opg Met reg

The author argues that the rupture of post modernism with the critical culture of modernism realism and Marxism is in the ligt of the still determining power of many of the aims and concerns of the modernist and realist projects Also included is a description of the production distribution and criticism of the visual arts in Britain since the late 1970s and the rise of Thatcherism
