Darina Allen, 2018-07-16 When Ballymaloe s doors opened to students in 1983 there were 15 courses available Now there are over 100 reflected in the recipes collected here including curing meat making gluten free meals and sushi as well as learning forgotten skills like producing butter and cheese and beekeeping The book chronicles how the school has been at the forefront of cooking and food trends since its inception from Darina s championing of the Slow Food movement and her highlighting the importance of using local seasonal and fresh produce to installing a wood burning oven and expanding its gardens so students can learn the importance of eating less meat and more veg and preserving heirloom varieties of produce A fascinating insight into Ballymaloe this is also a history of food over the past thirty years from a time when Darina couldn t get anything other than pre packaged grated Parmesan cheese to one where a local producer makes his own mozzarella

Pandemic Perspectives on the Irish Diaspora in Germany Margaret Haverty, 2024-09-10 This book reflects on how the pandemic impacted upon qualitative social research but also how it affected the lives of the members of the Irish diaspora on the European continent The crisis acted as a pressure cooker for those living abroad transforming distance and migration situations to resemble times gone by when travel was far more prohibitive and emigration felt more permanent At the same time expat lives were being thrown headlong into a new future shaped more profoundly than ever by digital means This work is a close examination of how Irish migrants in Germany construct their Irishness and in doing so maintain their belonging to Ireland across a geographic distance transformed by the pandemic This work seeks to draw out the underlying patterns and meanings in the day to day practices of Irishness by members of Ireland s putative diaspora in Germany by interweaving a multitude of ethnographic vignettes and rich interview material with relevant and interesting theoretical concepts Interlocutors see Ireland as a site of personal memory good bad and in between and of meaning making practices Ireland is deeply personal to them that understood their practices of belonging to Ireland are nonetheless embroiled in the political goal of making Ireland visible abroad
