Darrol Bryant, 2018-04-20 Out of Galilee The History of Christian Thought as a Great Conversation is an ambitious exploration of Christian thought over two millennia It discloses the remarkable unity in diversity of the thought of women monks mystics men philosophers and theologians who are seeking to unfold the meaning and mystery of divine intention in Jesus Christ From the first century in Galilee to the early apologists such as Irenaeus from Augustine's Confessions to the mystic voices of Hildegaard of Bingen and Teresa of Avila and to reformers such as Martin Luther and John Calvin Christians have sought to understand the Christian vision and unfold paths of spirituality The quest continues among Pietists among Puritans such as Jonathan Edwards and among Methodists Together with modern thinkers such as Schliermacher and contemporaries such as Thomas Berry and Abhishiktanada these notable figures have woven the living narrative of Christian thought You will find them all here in accessible language intended for a generalist audience Avoiding technical language Out of Galilee reveals the essential contributions of each to the story of Christian thinking through the ages Américas .1950 Inventing the "Great Awakening" Frank Lambert, 2021-01-12 This book is a history of an astounding transatlantic phenomenon a popular evangelical revival known in America as the first Great Awakening 1735 1745 Beginning in the mid 1730s supporters and opponents of the revival commented on the extraordinary nature of what one observer called the great ado with its extemporaneous outdoor preaching newspaper publicity and rallies of up to 20 000 participants Frank Lambert biographer of

Great Awakening leader George Whitefield offers an overview of this important episode and proposes a new explanation of its origins The Great Awakening however dramatic was nevertheless unnamed until after its occurrence and its leaders created no doctrine nor organizational structure that would result in a historical record That lack of documentation has allowed recent scholars to suggest that the movement was invented by nineteenth century historians Some specialists even think that it was wholly constructed by succeeding generations who retroactively linked sporadic happenings to fabricate an alleged historic development Challenging these interpretations Lambert nevertheless demonstrates that the Great Awakening was invented not by historians but by eighteenth century evangelicals who were skillful and enthusiastic religious promoters Reporting a dramatic meeting in one location in order to encourage gatherings in other places these men used commercial strategies and newly popular print media to build a revival one that they also believed to be an extraordinary work of God They saw a special meaning in contemporary events looking for a transatlantic pattern of revival and finding a motive for spiritual rebirth in what they viewed as a moral decline in colonial America and abroad By examining the texts that these preachers skillfully put together Lambert shows how they told and retold their revival account to themselves their followers and their opponents His inquiries depict revivals as cultural productions and yield fresh understandings of how believers spread the word with whatever technical and social methods seem the most effective Stream Feathers Wally Rentsch, 2013-04 If you have ever fly fished or wished you had Stream Feathers is a must read book to experience the mystique of fly fishing in the wild Appalachian Mountains of Pennsylvania Something quite unexpected happens to those who fish downstream for two miles in the company of the naturalist Hoxie There are adventures and unexpected encounters with wildlife around each bend All combined with the thrill of fighting a pugnacious trout In a sequence of 16 episodes each farther down stream from the other we follow Hoxie in his valiant guest to catch a trout larger than his dads 24 inch Brown Trout In the end through deep truths found beating his dad s trout becomes inconsequential Photographs and Haiku reveal Hoxie's adventures and chance discoveries in each chapter A Spiritual Awakening Tommy Zito, 2011-07-28 THIS BOOK WILL RELEASE YOU TO DO THE WILL OF GOD FOR YOUR LIFE In A Spiritual Awakening revivalist Tommie Zito releases Christians to do the will of God with fearless faith With years of successful evangelism to his credit the author boldly decries the state of the Sunday morning ritual The voice of the Lord is relegated to pointless sermons and denominational drivel Religion has paralyzed the passion and desire of the believer to do the will of God The Church is suffocating under the spirit of slumber while believing all is well BUT THERE IS HOPE YOU You and millions like you have the call the passion and the desire to do what religion and its accompanying litany of legalism can never accomplish You can change the world your country your city your neighborhood your home Zito calls on believers to the last day Church's mandate to be a house of prayer if it is to move in an anointing which will make the world take notice of the Most High God Zito notes A church bulletin contains more social activities and outings than times set aside to really pray and seek the Father's face The power
