Virus as a Summons to Faith Walter Brueggemann, 2020-04-30 Why bother with the interpretive categories of biblical faith when in fact our energy and interest are focused on more immediate matters The answer is simple and obvious We linger because in the midst of our immediate preoccupation with our felt jeopardy and our hope for relief our imagination does indeed range beyond the immediate to larger deeper wonderments Our free ranging imagination is not finally or fully contained in the immediacy of our stress anxiety and jeopardy Beyond these demanding immediacies we have a deep sense that our life is not fully contained in the cause and effect reasoning of the Enlightenment that seeks to explain and control There is more than that and other than that to our life in God s world

Divine Presence amid Violence Walter Brueggemann, 2009-02-11 To pursue the matter of revelation in context I will address an exceedingly difficult text in the Old Testament Joshua 11 The reason for taking up this text is to deal with the often asked and troublesome question What shall we do with all the violence and bloody war that is done in the Old Testament in the name of Yahweh The question reflects a sense that these texts of violence are at least an embarrassment are morally repulsive and are theologically problematic in the Bible not because they are violent but because this is violence either in the name of or at the hand of Yahweh from chapter 2      A Guide to Prayer for All Who Walk with God Norman Shawchuck, Rueben P. For Life Abundant Dorothy C. Bass, Craig Dykstra, 2008-04-29 Bass and Dykstra have written extensively and collaboratively on Christian Practices arguing that the what Christians have done faithfully over time constitutes a life giving way of life and that this living of Christianity is more primary to what it means to be Christian than doctrinal confession that our confessions spring from faithful living rather than the other way around This book contains numerous essays that take up the question of Christian Practices and ministry the preparation of ministers theological education etc in a post Enlightenment understanding of the relationship of practice and head knowledge Because the book is the result of a community conversation it doesn't have a clear thesis but it models its conviction that reflection on theology arises from community conversation around our life in discipleship together An extremely helpful beginning to a conversation about ministry practices of faith clergy preparation etc as the time has come to integrate the kind of learning that comes in the classroom with the kind that only comes from living the faith with others Amazon com      Resistance John B. Cobb,2008-01-01 Convinced that several crucial historical trends are moving in the wrong direction John Cobb and his coauthors urge Christians to live in countercultural ways as individuals and as communities Consumerism inequality imperialism and global warming they contend are of such magnitude that the only real response for progressive Christians is to actively resist them In part 1 they explore how the Word of God calls Christians to resist the world's dominant forces and reflect on how prayer can provide the conviction and commitment necessary for sustaining such a life In part 2 they examine particular destructive forces showing how these trends attained dominance and analyzing their effects Part 3 then explores two theological movements that have stressed the need for resistance Latin American liberation theology and feminist theology Concluding in part 4 they give specific examples of how individuals and churches can live in countercultural ways
