Axel Munthe's San Michele Josef Oliv, Axel Boëthius, 1954      Axel Munthe's San Michele Josef Oliv, 1954      The Villa Dei Papiri at Herculaneum Carol C. Mattusch, Henry Lie, 2005 The Villa dei Papiri at Herculaneum buried during the eruption of Mt Vesuvius in A D 79 then rediscovered in 1750 contained a large collection of bronze and marble statuary and busts Before they were published or exhibited the sculptures were restored so as to appear whole it is thus that they helped to shape early modern tastes in classical sculpture The book describes the nature of the ancient sculptures and their impact on the modern public Their chance discovery affected the interpretation of the statues their styles and subjects over the course of the next 250 years The ancient sculptures were copied extensively in reproductions of various sizes and patinas The author traces the popularity of these copies in Europe and America Also presented in the book is a technical study of the production techniques and materials of the sculptures as well as of their modern restoration history Scientific analyses and detailed photographs reveal both how the pieces were cast and pieced together in antiquity and how they were restored in the eighteenth century Even though this collection has been known for two and a half centuries this book covers for the first time the eclectic nature of the sculptures their actual condition and their quality pointing in some cases to mass production
