Sharpest Lowell Tarling, 2021-03-17 Lowell Tarling recorded Martin Sharp s life and his effect on his friends over twenty years Now two volumes in one in advance of the film of these books GHOST TRAIN Sharp The Road to Abraxas Part One 1942 1979 Sharper Bringing It All Back Home Part Two 1980 2013 Like the Ancient Mariner it s also a ghastly tale I could understand the events at Luna Park a bit I was trying to understand them and then suddenly there was this poetic language working to say this is a crucifixion Golgotha death by fire And then it starts to fit into Apocalyptic vision It was Abraxas if you like the dark face and the light face To look upon Abraxas is blindness To know it is sickness To worship it is death To fear it is wisdom To assist it not is redemption I don t know what it means I ve never been able to work it out You get a Pop Art Parallel It was the Year of the Child the place of Golgotha the Place of the Skull and the Ghost Train You then get these events that are caused by plotting not caring for kids carelessness living a human life the way of the world Martin Sharp 4 March 1984

Sharper 1980-2013 Lowell Tarling, 2018-10-01 Martin Sharp was an integral part of international Pop Art in the 1960s magnified through his covers for OZ magazine in Sydney and London his covers for Cream and posters of Dylan Hendrix and Donovan His efforts at making The Yellow House and Luna Park cultural precincts were aided by his screen prints and exhibitions to flaunt the work of others especially the singer Tiny Tim In this second of two volumes Lowell Tarling offers us a way into the enigmatic and reclusive artist through his extensive interviews with Sharp and all of his trusted friends touching on the many dramas of life at Sharp s home studio Wirian his productions and search for meaning with regard to the Luna Park Fire his spiritual search and death in 2013 I think what Lowell has done here is admirable removing himself from the narrative This book will be of interest to a wider audience who don t even know who Martin is I predict this book will become a genuine hit Peter Kingston

FORENSICS III Harry A. Milman PhD, 2024-04-21 In Forensics III They Got Fifteen Minutes of Fame from the Way They Died I reviewed twenty eight ordinary people who were thrust into the spotlight gaining fame not for their talents or accomplishments while living but for the way they died Newspaper and magazine articles ensured that stories of the circumstances surrounding their deaths remained in the public eye so that as Andy Warhol had predicted their fame would last at least fifteen minutes In some cases it lasted much longer While these individuals may have been ordinary before they died they became extraordinary after death Some of the people I reviewed in Forensics III They Got Fifteen Minutes of Fame from the Way They Died include the Boy in the Box later identified as Joseph Zarelli who died from blunt force trauma Azaria Chamberlain a nine week old infant who was killed by a dingo at Ayers Rock in Australia George Floyd whose death resulted from police brutality Ron Goldman and Nicole Brown Simpson who were stabbed to death Elisa Lam who drowned in a water tank on the roof of her hotel Michael Faherty whose death in Ireland was attributed to spontaneous human combustion Katherine Morris who died from carbon monoxide poisoning due to charcoal grilling in an automobile Carlos Sousa who was mauled to death by a tiger Sahel Kazemi and Steve McNair who committed murder suicide and Jayne and Corinne Peters whose death was due to filicide suicide among many others Forensics III They Got Fifteen Minutes of Fame from the Way They Died reads like a mystery novel presenting biographical and scientific information that helps readers understand how medical examiners and coroners utilized forensic analysis to determine the causes and manners of death of twenty eight not so famous people

Dingo Bold Rowena Lennox, 2021-01-01 Dingo Bold is a thought provoking exploration of the relationship between people and dingoes At its heart is Rowena Lennox's encounter with a dingo on the beach on K'gari Fraser Island a young male she nicknames Bold Struck by this experience and by the intense often polarised opinions expressed in public conversations about dingo conservation and control she sets out to understand the complex relationship between humans and dingoes Weaving together ecological data interviews with people connected personally and professionally with K'gari's dingoes and Lennox's expansive reading of literary historical and scientific accounts Dingo Bold considers what we know about the history of relations between dingoes and humans and what preconceptions shape our attitudes today Do we see dingoes as native wildlife or feral dogs Wild or domesticated animals A tourist attraction or a threat And how do our answers to these questions shape our interactions with them Dingo Bold is both a moving memoir of love and loss through Lennox's observations of the natural world and an important contribution to wider conversations about conservation and animal welfare Combining natural history Indigenous culture folklore memoir and environmental politics this is an elegantly written and affectionate tribute to Australia's most maligned and least understood native animal
