Baba Folk Beliefs And Superstitions:

Baba Folk Beliefs and Superstitions Cheo Kim Ban, Muriel Speeden, 2018 How does a nonya use a yam stalk to control the sexual powers of her wayward baba Why are Baba children never given sugarcane to chew at twilight What does it mean if a baba has five hairs growing from a mole on his face The answer to these and other fascinating details of Baba folk beliefs and superstitions are told here Wake with a Baba family and observe their daily rituals and taboos Gain insight into their world of symbols Witness the ancient Wangkang ceremonies Stand on the fringes of their spiritual realms Enjoy the humour of their cheeky folk wisdom Well flavoured with memorable anecdotes this book reveals the pantang superstition and pertua folk wisdom ensconced in the traditional Baba mind Keramat, Sacred Relics and Forbidden Idols in Singapore William L.

Gibson, 2024-08-29 Keramat holy graves and shrines represent physical markers of Singapore's history as a multi ethnic maritime trading center They offered sanctified spaces not only for Muslims but also for the entire community in which they emerged Maintained by self appointed caretakers the stories of keramat often interweave fact with folklore that mirror the history and sensibilities of the community While once an abundant part of the social landscape of Singapore many keramat were destroyed during the post independence rush to develop These keramat now face a second vanishing with memories of them fading as caretakers and community members age and pass away In parallel many modern Muslims consider keramat as a form of shirk or polytheism and tacitly consent to their destruction This book concludes by critically examining the often tense relationship between keramat and authority both secular and religious from colonial to modern times The dilemmas of grappling with puritanical norms and grassroots elaborations in varying modes of preservation are investigated using case studies from Singapore and the wider region A vital resource for scholars this work contributes to a people's history of Singapore one that both deepens and problematizes official historical accounts Reframing Singapore Derek Thiam

Soon Heng, Syed Muhd. Khairudin Aljunied, 2009 Over the past two decades Singapore has advanced rapidly towards becoming a both a global city state and a key nodal point in the international economic sphere These developments have caused us to reassess how we understand this changing nation including its history population and geography as well as its transregional and transnational experiences with the external world This collection spans several disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and draws on various theoretical approaches and methodologies in order to produce a more refined understanding of Singapore and to reconceptualize the challenges faced by the country and its peoples

Encyclopedia of Demons in World Religions and Cultures Theresa Bane, 2014-01-10 This exhaustive volume catalogs nearly three thousand demons in the mythologies and lore of virtually every ancient society and most religions From Aamon the demon of life and reproduction with the head of a serpent and the body of a wolf in Christian demonology to Zu the half man half bird personification of the southern wind and thunder clouds in Sumero Akkadian mythology entries offer descriptions of each demon's origins appearance and cultural significance Also included are descriptions of the demonic and diabolical members making up the hierarchy of Hell and the numerous species of demons that according to various folklores mythologies and religions populate the earth and plague mankind Very thoroughly indexed Rites of Belonging Jean DeBernardi, 2004-02-19 In what is today Malaysia the British established George Town on Penang Island in 1786 and encouraged Chinese merchants and laborers to migrate to this vibrant trading port In the multicultural urban settlement that developed the Chinese immigrants organized their social life through community temples like the Guanyin Temple Kong Hok Palace and their secret sworn brotherhoods These community associations assumed exceptional importance precisely because they were a means to establish a social presence for the Chinese immigrants to organize their social life and to display their economic prowess The Confucian cult of memory also took on new meanings in the early twentieth century as a form of racial pride In twentieth century Penang religious practices and events continued to draw the boundaries of belonging in the idiom of the sacred Part I of Rites of Belonging focuses on the conjuncture between Chinese and British in colonial Penang The author closely analyzes the 1857 Guanyin Temple Riots and conflicts leading to the suppression of the Chinese sworn brotherhoods Part II investigates the conjuncture between Chinese and Malays in contemporary Malaysia and the revitalization in the 1970s and 1980s of Chinese popular religious culture Encyclopedia of Spirits and Ghosts in World Mythology Theresa Bane, 2016-03-09 Of all the anomalous phenomenon reported ghost sightings are by far the most common The words ghost and spirit are used interchangeably in American English but in other cultures the lingering souls of the departed are not to be confused with ancestral spirits demonic spirits numens or poltergeists This encyclopedia lists hundreds of entities of the spirit realm from aatxe to zuzeca from world mythology and folklore Peranakan Indians of Singapore and Melaka Samuel S. Dhoraisingam, 2006 This book offers a glimpse into an almost unknown but distinct community in Singapore and Malaysia the Peranakan Indians Overshadowed by the larger more widespread and more influential Peranakan Chinese this tightly knit community likewise dates back to early colonial merchants who intermingled with and married local Malays in Malacca Most Peranakan Indians are Saivite Hindus speak a version of Malay amongst themselves and have a cuisine influenced by all three major cultures of Malaysia and Singapore Malay Indian Chinese Bringing together original interviews and archival material this accessible book documents the all but forgotten history customs religion and culture of the Peranakan Indians of Singapore and Malacca The Way That Lives in the Heart Jean Elizabeth DeBernardi, 2006 The Way That Lives in the Heart is a richly detailed ethnographic analysis of the practice of Chinese religion in the modern multicultural Southeast Asian city of Penang Malaysia The book conveys both an understanding of shared religious practices and orientations and a sense of how individual men and women imagine represent and transform popular religious practices within the time and space of their own lives This work is original in three ways First the author investigates Penang Chinese religious practice as a total field of religious practice suggesting ways in which the religious culture including spirit mediumship has been transformed in the conjuncture with modernity Second the book emphasizes the way in which socially marginal spirit mediums use a religious anti language and unique religious rituals to set themselves apart from mainstream society Third the study investigates Penang Chinese religion as the product of a specific history rather than presenting an overgeneralized overview that claims to represent a single Chinese religion

Always a Commando: The Life of Singapore Army Pioneer Clarence Tan Thomas A. Squire, 2018-10-15 Best known for his role in helping to establish the Singapore Armed Forces Commando Formation and as the unit's first commanding officer Lieutenant Colonel Retired Clarence Tan was born on his family's rubber plantation just ten months before the Japanese invasion of British Malaya in 1941 As with those of his generation his life spans the dramatic often tumultuous years of Singapore's evolution from a primarily rural British colony to the world class cosmopolis it is today From leading a platoon during racial riots in Singapore to searching for communist insurgents and Indonesian infiltrators in the jungles of Malaysia during the Emergency and the Confrontation LTC Rtd Tan was part of both the British and Malaysian armies before becoming a pioneer officer in Singapore's defence force For as surely as there are makers of history there are those too who are made by history Always A Commando is at once a compelling chronicle of one man's life from kampong kid to red beret and a rich evocation of the country he served through turbulent and uncertain times Penang Jean Elizabeth

DeBernardi, 2009 A Baba Bibliography Bonny Tan, Seow Leng Ang, Noryati A. Samad, 2007 Nyonya Kebaya Datin Seri, 2012-06-26 This longtime Malaysian fashion icon was originally a long straight Arab inspired top of plain woven cotton The Nyongas the women of the early Peranakan community gradually transformed it into a shapely embroidered translucent blouse fastened with a set of chained brooches and worn with a matching hand drawn batik sarong Sheer romantic alluring yet sedate the designs of Nyonya kebaya crosses several generations and cultures This book showcases the collection of Datin Seri Endon Mahmood wife of the Prime Minister of Malaysia Reconstructing Identities Jürgen Rudolph, 1998 The aim of this text is to provide a social history of the Babas in Singapore It describes and analyzes social political and cultural aspects of their identities by taking into account the conceptual history of Baba designations from 1819 1994 It argues that defining the Babas is misleading it is more meaningful to adopt a socio historical approach that differentiates spatiotemporally distinct Baba identities Such an approach is usually avoided not only in research on the Babas but in many other sociological anthropological or historical studies It concludes that there is no such thing as a Baba identity it has always been in flux and needs to be reconstructed taking seriously the conceptual history The two crucial turning points in the history of the Babas namely the Japanese occupation 1942 1945 and self rule 1959 led to public emphasis on their culture Prior emphasis on their former status as a political and economic elite have been hitherto neglected Taking into account all aspects legal political economic cultural linguistic religious of Baba identities leads us to a fascinating trajectory of a potential group Rumah Baba Peter Lee, Jennifer Chen, 1998 The Straits Chinese House Peter Lee, Jennifer Chen, 2006 The Straits Chinese or Peranakan community is perhaps one of the oldest overseas Chinese communities in
