Francesco Daniele Padovano, 2022-09-16 For decades and in the interests of greater flight safety Competence criteria have been introduced in professional training The results obtained in professional aviation are indisputable and the proposed new paradigm aims to increase the pilot's ability to resolve in particular unfamiliar situations There is no doubt that during soaring the conditions faced are as a general rule highly variable which requires the pilot to be highly adaptable However even though this flying technique is the one that requires the most resilience there is no single criterion in the development of training that would lead the future pilot to develop the necessary skills nor is there a single evaluation criterion that would determine a common standard From my experience in professional teaching in organisations such as CAE the experience as an EASA inspector and my own experience as a gliding instructor I wanted to propose a new way of teaching and above all of assessing a future glider pilot with COMPETENCE criteria in which the elements of CRM and TEM are always present together with the application of KSA In this text I hope that gliding instructors will find a tool for teaching their classes and a greater standardisation as a guide to develop their own Competence Based Training and assessment adapted at the local conditions and gliders The future is not white or black but an infinite scale of greys where different solutions could be proposed successfully By this the list of missions proposed is my personal view adapted to my programs but it does not pretend to be an absolute criterion Hope you will enjoy Happy landings Francesco Padovano Saturday Review ,1860 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1860 The Arizona Teacher ,1925 Approaches to Teaching Petrarch's Canzoniere and the Petrarchan Tradition Christopher Kleinhenz,Andrea Dini,2014-01-01 One of the most important authors of the Middle Ages Petrarch occupies a complex position historically he is a medieval author but philosophically he heralds humanism and the Renaissance Teachers of Petrarch s Canzoniere and his formative influence on the canon of Western European poetry face particular challenges Petrarch s poetic style brings together the classical tradition Christianity an exalted sense of poetic vocation and an obsessive love for Laura during her life and after her death in ways that can seem at once very strange and because of his style s immense influence very familiar to students This volume aims to meet the varied needs of instructors whether they teach Petrarch in Italian or in translation in surveys or in specialized courses by providing a wealth of pedagogical approaches to Petrarch and his legacy Part 1 Materials reviews the extensive bibliography on Petrarch and Petrarchism covering editions and translations of the Canzoniere secondary works and music and other audiovisual and electronic resources Part 2 Approaches opens with essays on teaching the Canzoniere and continues with essays on teaching the Petrarchan tradition Some contributors use the design and structure of the Canzoniere as entryways into the work others approach it through discussion of Petrarch s literary influences and subject matter or through the context of medieval Christianity and culture The essays on Petrarchism map the poet s influence on the Italian lyric tradition as well as on other national literatures including Spanish French English and Russian Educational Times ,1887 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1860 The Advisor, Teacher-course Evaluation University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
