Atonement and the Logic of Resurrection in Hebrews 9:27-28 William W. Henry, 2024-09-05 The general believer waiting for salvation by Jesus hopes to see him appear while living or promptly at death Comfort during loss of life usually portrays those passing now in heaven Conversely the more religiously academic the less one thinks anyone ever goes to heaven Trained scholars typically choose a closed heaven with temporal delays and spatial detours in limitation of God s promises about so great salvation Better typically perceives as a resuscitated flesh on earth that lives by decay of the surrounding creation Hearing word meaning by mapping creation with an old first century option for plural heavens this project reexamines the conversation recommended by the pastor in the letter to the Hebrews about promises regarding the twofold ministry of Christ By analysis with current study tools the conversation both challenges the common academy views and reintroduces a first century hearing option for God s speech concerning prompt postmortem Christ fulfillment into heaven Listening includes the milk of the beginning teaching requirements for atonement and logic of resurrection to God immediately after death and judgment Hearing senses the solid food about priestly intercession by Jesus after death at judgment to shepherd his believers for salvation into heaven a very little while after individual death and judgment

Women and the Gender of God Amy Peeler, 2022-10-04 A robust theological argument against the assumption that God is male God values women While many Christians would readily affirm this truth the widely held assumption that the Bible depicts a male God persists as it has for centuries This misperception of Christianity not only perniciously implies that men deserve an elevated place over women but also compromises the glory of God by making God appear to be part of creation subject to it and its categories rather than in transcendence of it Through a deep reading of the incarnation narratives of the New Testament and other relevant scriptural texts Amy Peeler shows how the Bible depicts a God beyond gender and a savior who while embodied as a man is the unification in one person of the image of God that resides in both male and female Peeler begins with a study of Mary and her response to the annunciation through which it becomes clear that God empowers women and honors their agency Then Peeler describes from a theological standpoint how the virgin birth of Jesus the second Adam reverses the gendered division enacted in the garden of Eden While acknowledging the significance of the Bible's frequent use of Father language to represent God as a caring parent Peeler goes beneath the surface of this metaphor to show how God is never sexualized by biblical writers or described as being physically involved in procreation making the concept of a masculine God dubious at best From these doctrinal centers of Christianity Peeler leads the way in reasserting the value of women in the church and prophetically speaking out against the destructive idolatry of masculinity The Michael Ramsey Prize Longlist 2023

George Paki, If we want to understand what God was telling John about the future we need to first understand what John understood Professor Jon Paulien Loma Linda University USA In Jesus The Portrait and Inscription of God the author pours his years of research into addressing the issue that Jon Paulien highlights Paki builds an intriguing case for a dual focused method of interpreting Revelation He uses this method to show i that Revelation was written primarily to John and his initial audience ii that the same prophecies also speak to us with clarity and force iii Then he wonders if God intentionally used the same material to speak to an audience then and now When this method is applied to Revelation 1 3 the text does come alive Deep theological truths and nuggets extracted are way too many to recount in a single book In fact this fresh approach minimizes most of our interpretive issues and enhances our understanding and appreciation of the apocalyptic Christ Some of our leading scholars agree It is well written well laid out and has good solid biblical insights Good solid evidence for Revelation s high Christology Dr Kayle de Waal Avondale College Australia I found it thoughtful helpful and interesting to read The style of presentation is also very attractive Professor Jon Paulien Loma Linda University USA You have clearly shown the relationship between Revelation 1 3 with the rest of Revelation Dr Ross Cole Avondale College Australia The method used its interpretations and the theological insights are corroborated by other Johannine books the New Testament the Old Testament and the Spirit of Prophecy This volume will enhance the libraries of academics and laypeople alike

Heavenly Imagery and Symbolism in Matthew's Gospel Daehoon Kang,2023-11-21 The present study explores the role of heavenly imagery and symbolism in the Gospel of Matthew Historical background and narrative criticism are my main methods because the Old Testament and Second Temple Jewish texts form the historical backgrounds for the understanding of Matthew s heaven and Matthew uses heavenly imagery and symbolism to highlight his main themes in the gospel as a whole This study investigates Matthew s distinctive materials and important texts having to do with heaven exploring their meanings and establishing their roles in each narrative section Matthew describes heaven as the space where certain events reveal God's plan of salvation. Heaven is associated with such key matters as revelation and judgment. Each major discourse of Matthew focuses on heavenly imagery with judgment at its end, culminating in the parable of the sheep and the goats. Matt 25:31-46.
