Rulers, Nomads, and Christians in Roman North Africa Brent D. Shaw, 2024-10-28 The studies collected in this volume cover three broad areas of the history of North Africa as part of the Roman Empire Studies devoted to the history of political institutions are followed by ones that detail aspects of interactions between nomad and sedentarist communities in the African provinces The book concludes with two studies on African christianity In all of these special attention is given to the indigenous institutions economies and beliefs that informed the confrontation between African and Roman The studies in general argue for a strongly interactionist approach to historians reconstruction of the history of the period and the region a perspective that would emphasise the continuous conflict between the two world of African and Roman
