

THE CAMBRIDGE SOCIAL HISTORY OF BRITAIN 1750–1950

Whilst in certain quarters it may be fashionable to suppose that there is no such thing as society, social historians have had no difficulty in finding their subject. The difficulty, rather, is that the advance of social history into every sphere of human activity and experience has occurred through such an outpouring of research and writing that it is hard for anyone but the specialist to keep up with the literature or grasp the overall picture. In these three volumes, as is the tradition in Cambridge Histories, a team of specialists has assembled the jigsaw of recent monographic research and presented an interpretation of the development of modern British society since 1750, from three complementary perspectives: those of regional communities, of the working and living environment, and of social institutions. Each volume is self-contained, and each contribution, thematically defined, contains its own chronology of the period under review. Taken as a whole they offer an authoritative and comprehensive view of the manner and method of the shaping of society in the two centuries of unprecedented demographic and economic change.

Volume 2, People and their environment, explores the questions of social structure, social mobility and class relations. Family and household, the social implications of demographic change, jobs, working and housing conditions, and family relations were all crucial elements in the shaping of group consciousness and form the main themes of this volume. Chapters on nutrition, patterns of food and drink consumption and leisure activities all contribute to a comprehensive overview of the way the social order has been changed.

1750 1950 Vol 2 People And Their Environment:

A Companion to Nineteenth-Century Britain Chris Williams, 2008-04-15 A Companion to Nineteenth Century Britain presents 33 essays by expert scholars on all the major aspects of the political social economic and cultural history of Britain during the late Georgian and Victorian eras Truly British rather than English in scope Pays attention to the experiences of women as well as of men Illustrated with maps and charts Includes guides to further reading Health and Society in Twentieth Century Britain Helen Jones, 2014-01-14 Few things tell us more of a nation's general well being than the development of the life expectancy of its citizens the rising standards of health that they come to demand and how evenly that improvement is shared throughout society Helen Jones examines the record of twentieth century Britain in these respects She has much heartening progress to record yet stark inequalities remain Her book is thus both a review of and contribution to the current debates over gender class and ethnic inequalities in standards of health in Britain today The Technology Trap Carl Benedikt Frey, 2019-06-18 A look at the history of technological progress and how it has radically shifted the distribution of economic and political power among society's members The Industrial Revolution was a defining moment in history but few grasped its enormous consequences at the time Frey demonstrates that in the midst of another technological revolution the lessons of the past can help us to more effectively face the present Music, Power, and Politics Annie J. Randall, 2004-12-22 Essays by scholars from around the world explore the means by which music's long acknowledged potential to persuade seduce indoctrinate rouse incite or even silence listeners has been used to advance agendas of power and protest The Locus of Care Peregrine Horden, Richard Smith, 2013-01-11 The care of the needy and the sick is delivered by various groups including immediate family the wider community religious organisations and the State funded institutions The Locus of Care provides an historical perspective on welfare detailing who carers were in the past where care was provided and how far the boundary between family and state or informal and organised institutions have changed over time Eleven international contributors provide a wide ranging examination of themes such as child care mental health and provision for the elderly and question the idea that there has been a recent evolutionary shift from informal provision to institutional care Chapters on Europe and England use case studies and link evidence from ancient and medieval periods to contemporary problems and the recent past whilst studies on China and South Africa look to the future of welfare throughout the world By placing welfare in its historical social cultural and demographic contexts Locus of Care reassesses community and institutional care and the future expectations of welfare provision Exodus from Cardiganshire Kathryn J Cooper, 2011-06-15 Was migration from Victorian Cardiganshire simply a flight from rural poverty This book relates the rate and timing of the outward movements from the county to the prevailing social and economic conditions British Women's History, 1996 This is one of a series of bibliographical guides designed to meet the needs of undergraduates postgraduates and their teachers in universities and colleges of further education All volumes in the series share a number of common characteristics They are selective manageable in size and include those books and articles which are considered most important and useful All are edited by practising teachers of the subject in question and are based on their experience of the needs of students The arrangement combines chronological with thematic divisions Most of the items listed receive some descriptive comment

The Greening of London, 1920-2000 Matti O. Hannikainen, 2017-05-15 The long term development of public green spaces such as parks public gardens and recreation grounds in London during the twentieth century is a curiously neglected subject despite the fact that various kinds of green spaces cover huge areas in cities in the UK today This book explores how and why public green spaces have been created and used in London and what actors have been involved in their evolution during the course of the twentieth century Building on case studies of the contemporary boroughs of Camden and Southwark and making use of a wealth of archival material the author takes us through the planning and creation stages to the intended and actual uses and ongoing management of the spaces By highlighting the rise and fall of municipal authorities and the impact of neo liberalism after the 1970s the book also deepens our understanding of how London has been governed planned and ruled during the twentieth century It makes a crucial contribution to academic as well as political discourse on the history and present role of green space in sustainable cities

The English in Love Claire Langhamer, 2013-08-22 The intimate history of love marriage and emotional revolution in twentieth century Britain
History, Britain in the second world war Harold L Smith, 2024-06-04 This text provides original documents which are designed to help the reader evaluate claims that World War II introduced a new sense of social solidarity and social idealism which led to a consensus on welfare state reform The book offers important evidence on crime race relations and anti semitism women health and the family in addition to examining the Blitz evacuation and the making of social policy Special attention is paid to the debate within the Conservative party on the Beveridge Report and the proposed national health service Many of the documents included here have been drawn from the Public Record Office and have not been published previously

City Survivors Anne Power, 2007-11-22 This book provides a unique insider view on the impact of neighbourhood conditions on family life and explores the prospects for families from the point of view of equality integration schools work community regeneration and public services

Jigsaw Cities Anne Power, John Houghton, 2007 Looking at major British cities using Birmingham as a case study this title explores Britain's intensely urban and increasingly global communities as interlocking pieces of a complex jigsaw which are hard to see apart yet they are deeply unequal

Companion to Early Twentieth-Century Britain Chris Wrigley, 2008-04-15 This Companion brings together 32 new essays by leading historians to provide a reassessment of British history in the early twentieth century The contributors present lucid introductions to the literature and debates on major aspects of the political social and economic history of Britain between 1900 and 1939 Examines controversial issues over the social impact of the First World War especially on women Provides substantial coverage of changes in Wales Scotland and Ireland as well as in England Includes a substantial bibliography which will be a valuable guide to secondary sources      Francis Bedford, Landscape Photography and Nineteenth-century British Culture Stephanie Spencer, 2011 Focusing on one representative figure Francis Bedford this study emphasizes how photographs operated to form and transmit cultural ideas and values The first writing on Bedford since the 1970s the book examines this premier photographer who was also commercially successful Major themes include the intersection of nature and culture the practice of nineteenth century tourism attitudes toward historical identity and the formation of a national identity in England and Wales      Welfare Peripheries Steven King, John Stewart, 2007 This volume investigates the development of welfare structures in the peripheral states of Europe Focusing on Ireland Wales Scotland Finland The Netherlands Denmark and Norway it explores what the welfare systems shared in common with each other and where the experiences of these states differed from other European welfare structures      Economic Sciences, 1991-1995 Torsten Persson, 1997 Below is a list of the prizewinners during the period 1991 1995 with a description of the works which won them their prizes 1991 R H COASE for his discovery and clarification of the significance of transaction costs and property rights for the institutional structure and functioning of the economy 1992 G S BECKER for having extended the domain of microeconomic analysis to a wide range of human behaviour and interaction including nonmarket behaviour 1993 R W FOGEL 1994 J C HARSANYI J F NASH 1995 R E LUCAS for having developed and applied the hypothesis of rational expectations and thereby having transformed macroeconomic analysis and deepened our understanding of economic policy

Modernism and the Architecture of Private Life Victoria Rosner, 2005 In the late 19th century the conventions of domesticity came under scrutiny by British writers others intent on bringing a modern spirit into the home Rosner reveals the connections between those who elegantly synthesized modernist literature with architectural plans room designs decorative art      Sociology on the Menu Alan Beardsworth, Teresa Keil, 2002-09-11 Sociology on the Menu is an accessible introduction to the sociology of food Highlighting the social and cultural dimensions of the human food system it encourages us to consider new ways of thinking of the everyday act of eating      The Narrative of the Good Death Mary Riso, 2016-03-09 The Christian idea of a good death had its roots in the Middle Ages with ars moriendi featuring reliance on Jesus as Savior preparedness for the life to come and for any spiritual battle that might ensue when on the threshold of death and death not taking place in isolation Evangelicalism introduced new features to the good death with its focus on conversion sanctification and an intimate relationship with Jesus Scholarship focused on mid nineteenth century evangelical Nonconformist beliefs about death and the afterlife is sparse This book fills the gap contributing an understanding not only of death but of the history of Methodist and evangelical Nonconformist piety theology social background and literary expression in mid nineteenth century England A good death was as central to Methodism as conversion and holiness Analyzing over 1 200 obituaries Riso reveals that while the last words of the dying pointed to a timeless experience of hope in the life to come the obituaries reflect changing attitudes towards death and the afterlife among nineteenth century evangelical

Nonconformist observers who looked increasingly to earthly existence for the fulfillment of hopes Exploring tensions in Nonconformist allegiance to both worldly and spiritual matters this book offers an invaluable contribution to death studies
Methodism and Evangelical theology

Adopting the Tune of Appearance: An Mental Symphony within 1750 1950 Vol 2 People And Their Environment

In a world used by displays and the ceaseless chatter of quick communication, the melodic elegance and emotional symphony developed by the published term frequently diminish in to the background, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, nestled within the pages of 1750 1950 Vol 2 People And Their Environment a wonderful fictional treasure brimming with raw emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful composer of language, this fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional trip, skillfully unraveling the concealed tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of the touching assessment, we shall examine the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
