I Succeeded Once Marie Hansen Fels,2011-05-01 In I Succeeded Once The Aboriginal Protectorate on the Mornington Peninsula 1839 1840 Marie Fels makes the work of William Thomas accessible to anthropologists archaeologists historians and the descendants of the Aboriginal people he wrote about More importantly people who live work study holiday or just have a general interest in the area from Melbourne to Point Nepean can learn about the original inhabitants who walked the land before it was cleared for agriculture and urban development Of course development of the Mornington Peninsula is ongoing and this book will help those involved in development or the management of Aboriginal cultural heritage to identify document and protect Aboriginal places that may not be identifiable through archaeological investigations alone Marie Fels supplements Thomas s writings with other contemporary accounts and her exhaustive historical research sheds new light on critical events and the significant places of the Boon Wurrung people Of particular importance is the critical review of information about the kidnapping of Boon Wurrung people from the Mornington Peninsula

The Hanged Man Mike Richards,2003 Ronald Joseph Ryan was hanged in Melbourne on 3 February 1967 following his conviction for the shooting murder of a prison warder during a daring escape from the maximum security Pentridge prison thirteen months before The decision of the Victorian government in December 1966 to proceed with Ryan s death sentence sparked immediate media condemnation and angry political protests and put the Liberal premier Sir Henry Bolte under siege for the duration of the case State governments around the country moved to abolish the death penalty in the 1970s and 1980s and Ronald Ryan became the last man to be hanged in Australia Today many years later the Ryan case still prompts spirited debate about the guilty finding against Ryan the merits of capital punishment and the politics behind his execution But who was Ronald Ryan and how did he come to be the focus of such dramatic political events Drawing on previously unpublished documents and personal accounts including details of Ryan s childhood and his early turn to crime this book reveals the truth about Ryan s guilt It also goes behind the scenes to tell for the first time of the life long anguish of the judge who pronounced the death sentence the inner workings of the secret cabinet meeting that decided Ryan s fate and the dramatic political process that resulted in the rejection of eleventh hour appeals to save Ryan Mike Richards first became involved in the case as the leader of student protests against Ryan s execution Now he has written a masterly compelling account that retrieves the individual and the drama at the centre of the most divisive capital case in Australia s history Through the depth of its original research and the persuasiveness of its insights Mike Richards award winning biography of Ronald Ryan provides a definitive account of the life and death of the man whose execution stopped a nation

Cliff,2000 Capital punishment the death penalty has enjoyed wide public support in the United States as the penalty of choice for one member of society taking the life of another This viewpoint is not shared by most European governments perhaps because their murder rate is considerably lower DNA testing however has begun to shed light not on the appropriateness of the penalty but on the vastly imperfect system of what is jocularly termed justice DNA evidence has overturned case after case resulting in a seashift in public opinion This book examines current statutes dealing with the death penalty and presents a detailed bibliography on the topics with access provided by subject and author indexes Colonization and the Origins of Humanitarian Governance Alan Lester,Fae Dussart,2014-04-17 This book reveals the ways in which those responsible for creating Britain s nineteenth century empire sought to make colonization compatible with humanitarianism Victorian Government Publications Received by the State Library of Victoria ,1984 Memory in Place Cameo Dalley,Ashley Barnwell,2023-11-23 Memory in Place brings together Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars and practitioners grappling with the continued potency of memories and experiences of colonialism While many of these conversations have taken place on a national stage this collection returns to the rich intimacy of the local From Queensland s sweeping Gulf Country along the shelly beaches of south Sydney Melbourne s city gardens and the rugged hills of South Australia through Central Australia s dusty heart and up to the majestic Kimberley the collection charts how interactions between Indigenous people settlers and their descendants are both remembered and forgotten in social political and cultural spaces It offers uniquely diverse perspectives from a range of disciplines including history anthropology memory studies archaeology and linguistics from both established and emerging scholars from Indigenous and non Indigenous contributors and from academics as well as museum and cultural heritage practitioners The collection locates some of the nation s most pressing political issues with attention to the local and the ethics of commemoration and relationships needed at this scale It will be of interest to those who see the past as intimately connected to the future Black Glass Kate Auty,2005 Between 1936 and 1954 the Western Australian government operated Courts of Native Affairs that heard murder and manslaughter cases where defendant and victim were Aboriginal These cases which for every other citizen had the status of Supreme Court trials were reduced to summary hearings that were largely conducted by amateurs This investigation explores these little known courts along with the silence in which they were buried and the strategic silences exercised by their Aboriginal subjects Aboriginal people volunteered multiple and arguably deliberately obfuscating versions of events establishing false tracks and alternative scenarios of some complexity Some of these narratives were advanced dropped adopted again and repackaged and this study looks at them all Aboriginal Studies Resource List ,1989 Comprehensive reference list

History of the Criminal Justice System in Victoria Colin Rimington,2023-02-01 This is an authoritative comprehensive account of Victoria s justice system starting with a tour of the historic justice precinct which is located on the corner of La Trobe Street and Russell Street Melbourne The author takes us back to the earliest days of Victoria s settlement and introduces the politicians police magistrates and even the criminals who played their parts in Melbourne and Victoria s development We are shown how the prison hulks developed into stockades on land and uncover the philosophy behind the construction of the prisons many no longer occupied and the building of courts which were built for conducting trials both civil and criminal The book is in many ways an insight into an aspect of Victoria s social history about which little has been written elsewhere It is a valuable addition to the justice bibliography and even exposes a mystery or two It took seven years to research and fact check and includes many photos All of the author s proceeds of this book after costs will be donated to Victoria Police Legacy which looks after families of deceased police officers who have died in the course of their duties
