Bonner, Jr.,2010-03-01 Starting in 1949 John W Bonner Jr compiled an annual annotated bibliography of books by Georgia writers for the Georgia Review Published in 1966 this volume contains sixteen years of publications by native born Georgian authors and authors who had lived in the state for at least five years Books are listed by author title publisher date and price of the work The annotations are descriptive rather than critical intended to outline what type of material is contained in the books A complete index by author is included The Novel and the Rural Imaginary in Egypt, 1880-1985 Samah Selim,2004-07-31 The book locates questions of languages genre textuality and canonicity within a historical and theoretical framework that foregrounds the emergence of modern nationalism in Egypt The ways in which the cultural discourses produced by twentieth century Egyptian nationalism created a space for both a hegemonic and counter hegemonic politics of language class and place that inscribed a bifurcated narrative and social geography are examined The book argues that the rupture between the village and the city contained in the Egyptian nationalism discourse is reproduced as a narrative dislocation that has continued to characterize and shape the Egyptian novel in general and the village novel in particular Reading the village novel in Egypt as a dynamic intertext that constructs modernity in a local historical and political context rather than rehearsing a simple repetition of dominant European literary critical paradigms this book offers a new approach to the construction of modern Arabic literary history as well as to theoretical questions related to the structure and role of the novel as a worldly narrative genre The Mystery to a Solution John T. Irwin,1994 Irwin mirrors the aesthetic impact of the genre by creating in his study the dynamics of a detective story the uncovering of mysteries the accumulation of evidence the tracing of clues and the final solution that ties it all together Tales of the Seven Seas Dennis M. Powers,2010-03-16 Captain Dynamite Johnny O Brien sailed the seven seas for over sixty years starting in the late 1860s in India and ending in the early 1930s on the U S West Coast This book tells of sailing over the oceans when danger and adventure coexisted every day tough times and courageous men in distant places from the Hawaiian Islands to the Bering Sea Smell the salt in the air and hear the ocean s rush as the ship sails with hardened men leaking seams and shrieking winds

Challenging Anthropocentrism in Eco-Science Fiction Novels Fatma Gamze Erkan,2024-01-03 This book explores the relationship between humanity and nature while challenging the notion that anthropocentric behaviour causes the environmental catastrophes depicted in the four selected British eco science fiction novels These novels are John Christopher s The Death of Grass 1956 J G Ballard s The Drought 1965 Brian Aldiss s Earthworks 1965 and John Brunner s The Sheep Look Up 1972 all of which fictionalise the fact that the consequences of environmental problems can be diverse but equally serious This book examines how even the smallest damage caused by human beings to the environment negatively affects them other living beings and the ecosystem they need to live and flourish In conjunction with these the factors and conditions that push characters in the novels to ignore and harm the environment are also scrutinised While examining how and why the environmental problems in the novels have arisen it is evaluated whether the authors propose solutions to these problems and if so what they are

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries
