North Star Country Milton C. Sernett,2001-12-01 North Star Country is the story of the remarkable transformation of Upstate New York's famous Burned over District where the flames of religious revival sparked an abolitionist movement that eventually burst into the conflagration of the Civil War Milton C Sernett details the regional presence of African Americans from the pre Revolutionary War era through the Civil War both as champions of liberty and as beneficiaries of a humanitarian spirit generated from evangelical impulses He includes in his narrative the struggles of great abolitionists among them Harriet Tubman Frederick Douglass Gerrit Smith Beriah Green Jermain Loguen and Samuel May and of many lesser known characters who rescued fugitives from slave hunters maintained safe houses along the Underground Railroad and otherwise furthered the cause of freedom both regionally and in the nation as a whole Sernett concludes with a compelling examination of the moral choices made during the Civil War by upstate New Yorkers both black and white and of the post Appomattox campaign to secure freedom for the newly emancipated New Directions in the Study of African American Recolonization

Beverly Tomek,Matthew J. Hetrick,2022-10-18 Beginning in 1816 the American Colonization Society worked to send American blacks to resettle in Africa From inception however its foundational ethos has been debated These debates continued long after the effective end of the ACS during WWI through the Civil Rights movement to today when even historians among the Press's own authors respectfully hold opposing views In this volume Beverly Tomek and Matthew Hetrick gather essays from scholars with different opinions and divergent methodologies offering not only new research to address some of the old questions about American colonization and missionary activities but also new questions to spur further debate Union & Emancipation David W. Blight,Brooks D. guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America The Palgrave Handbook of Christianity in Africa from Apostolic Times to the Present Andrew Eugene Barnes, Toyin Falola, 2024-03-07 This comprehensive Handbook provides chapter length surveys of the history of Christian missions and Christian churches on the African continent since the time of Christ Africa is rapidly becoming the most Christianized region of the world While common narratives about Christianity tend to present Christianity as a set of ideas and beliefs imposed on Africa from the outside such narratives hold little meaning for African Christians or for those seeking to understand Christianity in Africa as an indigenous faith The aim of the Handbook is to propose a set of scholarly starting points for a new set of narratives The chapters collected here communicate an idea of Christianity as it has been embraced among African peoples at particular historical moments It therefore grants voice to the various strands of African Christianity on their own terms and offers scholarly study of what these voices teach us about how the world's most adhered to religion is practiced and understood on the continent of Africa A History of the Episcopal Church - Third Revised Edition Robert W. Prichard, 2014-10-15 Complete through the 78th General Convention Cover The Color of Race in America, 1900-1940 Matthew Pratt Guterl, 2002-10-30 With the social change brought on by the Great Migration of African Americans into the urban northeast after the Great War came the surge of a biracial sensibility that made America different from other Western nations How white and black people thought about race and how both groups understood and attempted to define and control the demographic transformation are the subjects of this new book by a rising star in American history An elegant account of the roiling environment that witnessed the shift from the multiplicity of white races to the arrival of biracialism this book focuses on four representative spokesmen for the transforming age Daniel Cohalan the Irish American nationalist Tammany Hall man and ruthless politician Madison Grant the patrician eugenicist and noisy white supremacist W E B Du Bois the African American social scientist and advocate of social justice and Jean Toomer the American pluralist and novelist of the interior life Race politics and classification were their intense and troubling preoccupations in a world they did not create would not accept and tried to change
