Off the Main Sequence Tom Easton, 2006-10-01 Tom Easton has served as the monthly book review columnist for Analog Science Fiction for almost three decades having contributed during that span many hundreds of columns and over a million words of penetrating criticism on the best literature that science fiction has to offer His reviews have been celebrated for their wit humor readability knowledge and incisiveness His love of literature particularly fantastic literature is everywhere evident in his essays Easton has ever been willing to cover small presses obscure authors and unusual publications being the only major critic in the field to do so on a regular basis He seems to delight in finding the rare gem among the backwaters of the publishing field A reviewer's job he says is not to judge books for the ages but to tell readers enough about a book to give them some idea of whether they would enjoy it And this he does admirably whether he is discussing the works of the great writers in the field or touching upon the least amongst them This companion volume to Periodic Stars Borgo Wildside collects another 250 of Easton's best reviews from the last fifteen years of The Reference Library No one does it better and no other guide provides such lengthy or discerning commentary on the best SF works of recent times Complete with Introduction and detailed Index Science Fiction, Fantasy & Horror, 1991 A comprehensive bibliography of books and short fiction published in the English language The Literary World, 1851 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2017-10 New-York Musical Review and Gazette, 1855 The Nation, 1886 The Works of the British Poets Robert Anderson, 1795 Age Rage and Going Gently Oliver Davis, 2006-01-01 This wide ranging study looks at how the ageing process has alternately been figured in and excluded from twentieth century French literature philosophy and psychoanalysis It espouses a critical interdisciplinarity and calls into question the assumptions underlying much research into ageing in the social sciences work in which the negative aspects of growing older are almost invariably suppressed It offers a major reappraisal of Simone de Beauvoir's great but neglected late treatise La Vieillesse and presents the first substantial discussion of a lost documentary film about old age in which Beauvoir appears and which she helped to write PROMENADE AU PAYS DE LA VIEILLESSE Questioning Beauvoir's own rather reductive reading of Gide's work on old age this study analyses the way in which his Journal and Ainsi soit il experiment with a range of representational models for the senescent subject The encounter between psychoanalysis and ageing is framed by a reading of Violette Leduc's autobiographical trilogy in which she suggests that psychoanalysis to its detriment simply cannot allow ageing to signify This claim is tested in a critical survey of recent theoretical and clinical work by psychoanalysts interested in ageing in France the UK and the US Lastly Herv Guibert's recently republished photo novel about his elderly great aunts Suzanne et Louise is examined as a work of intergenerational empathy and is found in addition to be an important statement of his photographic aesthetic Navigating between the extremes of fury age rage and serene acceptance going gently this study aims throughout to examine the role which ageing plays in formal as well as thematic terms in writing the life of the subject
