Allyn Bacon Guide To Writing C:

Reconnecting Reading and Writing Alice S. Horning, Elizabeth W. Kraemer, 2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction Writing Centres in Higher Education Sherran Clarence, 2017-10-11 This collection of essays reflects on the ways in which writing centres in South Africa are working in and across disciplines Institutional constraints and challenges that arise from these collaborations are addressed and opportunities for transforming teaching and learning spaces are explored The chapters speak to the global move in higher education to reconsider how knowledge is made who makes it and how support and development opportunities for students and lecturers should be created and sustained across the disciplines This volume contributes to the body of knowledge in the growing field of the scholarship of teaching and learning in higher education in South Africa It builds on the work of the first collection of such essays Changing Spaces Writing Centres and Access to Higher Education Eds A Archer and R Richards 2011 SUN PReSS to understand why working within the disciplines is so critical for writing development in a South African context Changing Spaces Arlene Archer, Rose Richards, 2011-07-01 Changing Spaces makes a forceful and credible case for the role of writing centres in engaging with students staff and institutional structures in understanding issues of access from a social perspective This is a specialist book for those working in writing centres and for academics of all disciplines It is based on research and provides an important set of theoretical arguments developed through reflection on writing centre practices about student writing and the work of the university Professor Sioux McKenna Centre for Higher Education Research Teaching and Learning Rhodes University How do we select and train tutors How do we work with faculty How do we combat the image that we are remedial a fix it shop How do we prove our worth How do we show that we improve retention Changing Spaces demonstrates the flexibility of writing centers and the unique roles they play in South Africa Writing centers everywhere represent institutional responses to the learning needs of their students and they do so because writing centers adapt easily to different contexts and situations They meet students where they are as a group and individually Professor Leigh Ryan Writing Center Director University of Maryland USA Approaches to Teaching the Works of Anton Chekhov Michael C. Finke, Michael Holquist, 2016-02-01 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching Anton P Chekhov's plays and short stories in the college classroom in relation to creative writing translation adaptation stage history film performance Facebook postmodernity and Tennessee Williams Includes information on editions reference works biographies and online resources Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses Re Visioning Composition Textbooks Gary S. Zaboly, Xin Liu Gale, Fredric G. Gale, 1999-01-01 Explores the cultures ideologies traditions and the material and political conditions that influence the writing and publishing of textbooks Engaging Ideas John C. Bean, 2011-07-20 Learn to design interest provoking writing and critical thinking activities and incorporate them into your courses in a way that encourages inquiry exploration discussion and debate with Engaging Ideas a practical nuts and bolts guide for teachers from any discipline Integrating critical thinking with writing across the curriculum approaches the book shows how teachers from any discipline can incorporate these activities into their courses This edition features new material dealing with genre and discourse community theory quantitative scientific literacy blended and online learning and other current issues The Practice of Rhetoric Debra Hawhee, Vessela Valiavitcharska, 2022-10-18 Rhetoric broadly conceived as the art of making things matter is both a practice and theory about that practice In recent decades scholars of rhetoric have turned to approaches that braid together poetics performance and philosophy into a practical art By practical art they mean methods tested in practice by trial and error with a goal of offering something useful and teachable This volume presents just such an account of rhetoric The account here does not turn away from theory but rather presumes and incorporates theoretical approaches offering a collection of principles assembled in the heat and trials of public practice The approaches ventured in this volume are inspired by the capacious conception of rhetoric put forth by historian of rhetoric Jeffrey Walker who is perhaps best known for stressing rhetoric's educational mission and its contributions to civic life The Practice of Rhetoric is organized into three sections designed to spotlight in turn the importance of poetics performance and philosophy in rhetorical practice The volume begins with poetics stressing the world making properties of that word in contexts ranging from mouse infested medieval fields to the threat of toxin ridden streams in the mid twentieth century Susan C Jarratt for instance probes the art of ekphrasis or vivid description and its capacity for rendering alternative futures Michele Kennerly explores a little studied linguistic predecessor to prose logos psilos or naked speech exposing the early rumblings of a separation between poetic and rhetorical texts even as it historicizes the idea of clothed or ornamented speech In an essay on the almost magical properties of writing Debra Hawhee considers the curious practice of people writing letters to animals in order to banish or punish them thereby casting the epistolary arts in a new light Part 2 moves to performance Vessela Valiavitcharska examines the intertwining of poetic rhythm and performance in Byzantine rhetorical education and how such practices underlie the very foundations of oratory Dale Martin Smith draws on the ancient stylistic theory of Dionysius of Halicarnassus along with the activist work of contemporary poets Amiri Baraka and Harmony Holiday to show how performance and persuasion unify rhetoric and poetics Most treatments of philosophy and rhetoric begin within a philosophical framework and remain there focusing on old tools like stasis and disputation Essays in part 3 break out of that mold by focusing on the utility and teachability of rhetorical principles in education Jeanne Fahnestock and Marie Secor update stasis a classical framework that encourages aspiring rhetors to ask after the nature of things their facts and their qualities as a way of locating an argument's position Mark Garrett Longaker probes the medieval practice of disputation in order to marshal a new argument about why exactly John Locke detested rhetoric and the longstanding opposition between science and rhetoric as modes of proof that has lasting implications for the way argument works today Ranging across centuries and contexts the essays collected here demonstrate the continued need to attend carefully to the co operation of descriptive language and normative reality conceptual vocabulary and material practice public speech and moral self shaping The volume promises to rekindle long standing conversations about the public world making practice of rhetoric thereby enlivening anew its civic mission

Handbook of Research on Writing Instruction Practices for Equitable and Effective Teaching Hodges, Tracey S.,2022-05-27 Writing is a critical component for teaching children about advocacy and empowering student voice as well as an essential tool for learning in many disciplines Yet writing instruction in schools often focuses on traditional methods such as the composition of five paragraph essays or the adherence to proper grammatical conventions While these are two components of writing instruction and preparation in education they only provide a small glimpse into the depth and breadth of writing As such writing instruction is increasingly complex and requires multiple perspectives and levels of skill among teachers The Handbook of Research on Writing Instruction Practices for Equitable and Effective Teaching serves as a comprehensive reference of issues related to writing instruction and leading research about perspectives methods and approaches for equitable and effective writing instruction It includes practices beyond K 12 including best writing practices at the college level as well as the development of future teachers Providing unique coverage on culturally relevant writing socio and racio linguistic justice and urgent writing pedagogies this major reference work is an indispensable resource for administrators and educators of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers teacher educators libraries government officials researchers and academicians

Composing a Community Susan H. McLeod,Margot Iris Soven,2006-03-28 Composing a Community is not only a history of early WAC programs but also of how the people developing those programs were in touch with one another exchanging ideas and information forming first a network and then a community Composing a Community captures the stories of pioneers like Elaine Maimon Toby Fulwiler and others giving readers first hand accounts from those who were present at the creation of this new movement David Russell s introduction sets this emergent narrative into relief Susan H McLeod and Margot Iris Soven themselves pioneers in WAC history have assembled some of its most eloquent voices in this collection Charles Bazerman John C Bean Toby Fulwiler Anne Herrington Carol Holder Peshe C Kuriloff Linda Peterson David R Russell Christopher Thaiss Barbara E Walvoord and Sam Watson Their style is personal lively and informal as the authors succeed in putting their personal memories in the larger context of WAC studies

Writing Centers in the Higher Education Landscape of the Arabian Gulf Osman Z. Barnawi,2017-09-06 This book addresses issues surrounding writing centers in the Arabian Gulf region Including a foreword by Professor Ken Hyland it brings together a number of thought provoking chapters on the history concept and ground realities coupled with critical comparative discussions of writing centres in the region The book begins by offering critical historical accounts of writing centers in the Gulf countries before moving onto empirical research and reports on pedagogical practices that vividly capture the on the ground realities faced and experienced by different actors These accounts serve to highlight how the writing centers vary between countries as well as how they differ from the more well known writing centers in the US and the UK Finally the book explores what sort of commonalities and differences the current trend of writing centres is producing within and between the six countries of the Arabian Gulf This book will be highly relevant to those involved with writing centres along with directors policymakers researchers and teacher educators in the fields of Education and Sociology particularly those with an interest in the Arabian Gulf area Catalog of Copyright Entries.
