Tsui, 2013 The History of the Organization of Chinese American Women OCAW covers 1977 2009 recording OCAW's sustained educational and social outreach programs to integrate Chinese American women into the mainstream of America's activities and programs during the last quarter of the twentieth century and first decade of the twenty first century The book also gives recognition to those who contributed to the accomplishments of OCAW as well as creating an available resource to the community Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults Mingshui Cai, 2002-10-30 There is much discussion of multiculturalism in education This is especially true of multicultural literature for children and young adults The rise of multicultural literature is a political rather than a literary movement it is a movement to claim space in literature and in education for historically marginalized social groups rather than one to renovate the craft of literature itself Multicultural literature has been closely bound with the cause of multiculturalism in general and thus has been confronted with resistance from conservatives This book discusses many of the controversial issues surrounding multicultural literature for children and young adults The volume begins with a look at some of the foundational and theoretical issues related to multicultural literature The second part of the book addresses issues related to the creation and critique of multicultural literature including the authorship of such works and the role of the reader in determining whether or not a work is multicultural The third looks at the place of multicultural literature in the education of children and young adults Throughout its discussion the book makes extensive references to a large body of multicultural fiction and provides a thorough review of research on this important topic Amerasia Journal, 1994

Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books Liz Knowles, Martha Smith, 2007-05-30 Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books goes beyond the usual multicultural lists and looks at the wide expanse of the diversity of cultures and lifestyles impacting children's lives in America today and identifies good books to have in library collections for them to read. Included are annotated titles with discussion questions from all of the identified cultures and subcultures and annotated teacher/librarian resources print and Web based as well as an excellent list of topical annotated journal articles. Grades 4-8 Knowles and Smith examine current research on diversity and multiculturalism. They move away from the traditional aspects of multicultural education: food, fashion, folktales, festivals, and famous people to a focus on novels and picture books and realistic fiction to show children with diversity issues that there are others in similar positions. The issue of authenticity: whether the author of the book should be of that culture or merely familiar with the culture is discussed. Topics include Ethnicities: Asian, Latino, Hispanic, African, Black, Native American, White, European, Bi, Multiracial; Exceptionalities: Ageism, Socioeconomic Status, Sexual Orientation, Gender, and Religion. The authors provide this valuable resource for libraries, schools, and communities that wish to utilize literature to help diverse students walk in the shoes of others and to match books to children and young adults to heighten understanding and acceptance. Grades 4-8 Dragon Surf D. G. Driver, Jeni Bautista, Richard, 2023-03-28 Eric Long's dad is a champion surfer. His mom is an artist obsessed with Chinese dragons. On his 15th birthday, both of his parents' interests collide and change everything he knows about the world. While on a surfing vacation with his father up near Santa Cruz, California, Eric has visions of a woman from Imperial China with the ability to control a dragon and the emperor who wanted to exploit her talent to fight a war. One foggy morning, Eric and a new surfing friend sneak down to see the off-limits Dragon's Bluff beach near their motel, and he is rescued from drowning by a real-life dragon. This is the dragon of his visions. Now Eric realizes that those visions are the dragon's memories. But why is he able to see them? Why is the dragon warning him to leave and never come back? Could Eric be a descendant of the Dragon Tamer? How dangerous will it be if he stays and tries to find the answers?
