Almost Back:

To Hell and Almost Back Sam Jones, 2011-12-05 These are the memoirs of a Wisconsin farm boy that grew up during the Great Depression accompanied by a great drought where many of the lakes dried up and much of the Midwest's farmland simply blew away The Depression ended abruptly the year I graduated from high school when WW II was declared and I was drafted into military service where I spent 3 1 2 years I was critically wounded and spent the first 30 hours in a morgue followed by almost 1 1 2 years in military hospitals before I was discharged as a permanently disabled veteran Because of my disabilities I could never be a farmer and had to go somewhere else and develop new skills so I would be able to support my family Jobs were hard to get because at the end of the war in Europe 12 million healthy veterans had just been discharged and the economy was in limbo while industry was converting from wartime to peacetime economy The story deals with how I started out as an apprentice electronic technician became an engineer through home study worked and lived on all continents and finally became Chief of the Navigation Engineering Branch at the Federal Aviation Administration Headquarters in Washington DC It is a story of how I dealt with serious wartime disabilities and managed to develop a productive career at the same time

Claire Ross Richdale, 2006 The liberated 60s have not reached the shores of New Zealand when Claire a single pregnant girl is sent up country to have her child and afterwards have it adopted out The Sloane family are strangers who offer to board her through this time But are they Claire is thrust into the unknown when immediately after her arrival Alan and Hazel Sloane are involved in a truck accident on the farm It is up to Claire to help She does but is now alone on the farm Initial fears at being alone reach a climax when an elderly man arrives to look after the animals He is Bob Hodge Hazel's father Claire and Bob feed out in the snow and gradually an affinity develops between the pair Claire's life is at a tangent and a thread begins to unwind about herself and the family she is living with Tragedies of the past surface and actions of the present complicate issues The local schoolteacher enters Claire's life with consequences that could become tragic while two local women show their true colours In this conservative rural area the tranquillity of the surface hides a darker background that goes back a generation to before Claire's birth And she is directly involved This is a story of how scars of the past are opened and conquered by the love of the present for and by Claire a girl who becomes a woman in the months that make up 1961
