Along The Clipper Way:

Along the Clipper Way Sir Francis Chichester, 1966 It was used by grain wool and gold clippers from Britain round the Cape of Good Hope to Australia and then round Cape Horn back to Britain Francis Chichester has collected together the best accounts by seamen and the most descriptive passages of well know authors about this famous route This was the route Francis Chichester followed on his now famous lone voyage round the world

me means every cruising sailor John S Letcher Jr It is an excellent book and I would consider it a disgrace for any Society member not to have a copy Do not tell me you already have Borden and Klein and Merrien and Holm and Clarke and etc etc so why should you buy another book on singlehanded sailing Because reading maketh a full man Richard Gordon McCloskey Slocum Society founder     Along the Clipper Way Francis Charles Chichester (Sir),1966     Along the Clipper Way, Etc. (Edited and Abridged.). Sir Francis Chichester,1967     The Race Tim Zimmermann,2004-01-01 A contributing editor for Outside magazine provides a behind the scenes look at the fast paced around the world sailing race An invigorating behind the scenes look at the world of extreme sailing The Race is also a taut engrossing account of the first running of the competition called The Race which began on December 31 2000 in Barcelona and ended sixty two days later in Marseilles The most intense event of its kind a nonstop circumnavigation of the globe in the fastest boats ever built The Race attracts some of the world s best sailors and arguably its most eccentric personalities Tim Zimmermann an experienced blue water sailor relates in knuckle whitening detail how and why sailors risk millions of dollars and their lives to dash around the world in record time He garnishes this story with a chronicle of the tumultuous history of extreme sailing from the nineteenth century to today Zimmermann puts the reader right on board with the tough colorful crews as they take a crash course sometimes literally in how to handle these astonishing machines Derek Lundy author of Godforsaken Sea Praise for The Race Zimmerman turns a daring race of unthinkably fast high tech sailing machines into a page turner Bruce Knecht author of The Proving Ground This is probably the finest account of the history of the circumnavigator s quest yet written refreshingly free of hyperbole and false expectation Zimmerman s pace matches that of The Race itself though he never puts his bow under Lincoln P Paine author of Ships of the World Zimmerman s behind the scenes look at the characters boats and technology in The Race as well as the rich sailing history that preceded it captures the nuances of adventure only a masochist could love The Race was a wild ride and The Race is a fine read Herb McCormick sailing correspondent of the New York Times editor of Cruising World     Along the Clipper Way, with Extracts from Francis Drake [and Others] Francis Charles Chichester,1966     Sailing and Social Class Alan O'Connor,2024-04-23 This book explores the sociology of sailing and yachting Drawing on original research and employing a theoretical framework based on the work of Pierre Bourdieu the book argues that sailing is still an upper middle class activity that has much to tell us about the wider sociology of leisure and sport The book examines the historical foundations of blue water sailing as established by naval and colonial shipping to trace the roots of contemporary sailing and yachting culture It also examines archives of sailing narratives and cruising guides as well as the children s books of Arthur Ransome arguing that this archival material offers a social rather than a psychological interpretation of the bodily investment in sailing The book uses Bourdieu s concepts of illusio an investment of time emotion and body into a worthwhile activity and habitus or lifeworld alongside contemporary data sets to examine the yacht club as a social institution including why many boats never go out on the water the relationship between yacht clubs and the state and social issues as manifested in yacht clubs such as sexism racism and homophobia Offering a vigorous sociological critique of yachting and sailing this book is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in the sociology of leisure and sport subcultures social theory or social issues in wider society Selected Readings in the Marine Sciences Norman T.
